CIVIL SERVICE REGULATIONS

RELATING TO

SALARY, LEAVE, PENSION AND TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Chapter I.—General Scope.

Extent of Application.

- 1. (a) These Regulations are intended to define the conditions under which salaries, and leave and pension and other allowances, are earned by service in the Civil Departments, and in what manner they are calculated. They do not deal otherwise than indirectly and incidentally with matters relating to recruitment, promotion, official duties, discipline, or the like.
- (b) Many orders applying to particular appointments or to particular individuals are not included in them; but with this exception the Regulations have been framed so as to embody all orders still in force affecting the acting allowances, the leave and leave allowances, the pensions, and the travelling allowances of officers, the conditions of whose service in respect to these matters are not defined by the Army and Marine Regulations. The omission from the Regulations of any order on those matters which is believed to be still in force should be brought to the notice of the Government of India through the proper channel. Until so confirmed, it should be considered as not in force.
- (c) These Regulations do not apply to the pay and allowances (except travelling allowances), pension and leave of officers of the Royal Indian Marine holding shore appointments, which are governed by the Marine Regulations.
- 2. The rules which apply to the ordinary Civil establishments of the State apply also to officers employed under the Military and Marine Departments and under Local Governments whose service does not qualify under the Army or Marine Regulations. The rules in Part VII apply to all officers in the service of the British Government.
- 3. The Travelling Allowance Regulations in Part XI apply to Military officers in the Army Secretariat of the Government of India; Chaplains of the Church of Scotland, except when on service with a regiment in the field; and all officers in Civil employ, except those officers of the Royal Indian Marine to whom the Travelling Allowance Rules in the Marine Regulations (see Section III, Volume I, Part II) apply.

Except in cases in which it is otherwise provided in the Military Regulations, or in which it may be otherwise specially sanctioned by the Government of India, the travelling allowance of clerks in all Military offices is governed by the Regulations in Part XI.

Right of Changing or Interpreting Rules.

4. The Government of India reserve to themselves the right of changing the rules in these Regulations regarding pay and acting allowance and leave and pension, from time to time at their discretion, and of interpreting their meaning in case of dispute.

An officer's claim to pay and allowances is regulated by the rules in force at the time in respect of which the pay and allowances are earned; to leave by the rules in force at the time the leave is applied for and granted; and to pension by the rules in force at the time when the officer resigns or is discharged from the service of Government.

Norm 1.—[In all contracts for service in India to which the Secretary of State is a party provision is made for the exercise of these rights by the Government of India.]

. Note 2.—[Extracts from a despatch from the Secretary of State and a Resolution by the Government of India relating to the rights reserved by Government in this Article

Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 10, dated 7th October 1880.

"You remark that you are unable to admit any obligations on the part of the Government of India to compensate those officers for the indirect and remote effects of any administrative measures which it has been considered necessary to adopt in the interests of the State generally, and that it would be extremely inconvenient, if not wholly impracticable, in carrying out every change to consider every possible effect, however remote, which such change might have on the prospects of every officer in the service.

I concur in the sentiment expressed by your Government in this matter. All administrative reforms would be rendered impossible if the Government were fettered by considerations such as those above referred to."

Resolution No. 4863, dated 4th December 1891.

"The Government of India have always been careful to exercise the right of altering rules with due consideration for the rights of their servants. The ordinary course adopted to prevent hardship arising from any change of rule found necessary has been either to defer the introduction of the change for some time after its publication, or to give the officers affected the right of choosing whether they shall come under the operation of the old or of the new rules. It has been decided that the right of altering rules must be maintained, that care should be taken, as in the past, to prevent the introduction of any new rules from operating harshly, but that the Local Governments and the Government of India should not consider themsetse precluded from recommending an exception in any case of individual hardship whice, the local authorities should understand that, when the officer applies to retire, they are not precluded from examining into its merits and ascertaining whether, in their opinion, he has substantially suffered from the introduction of a rule not in force at the time he entered the service. If, after comparing the advantages secured to the officer, by the altered rules with any disadvantages incidentally involved, they find that he has on the whole substantially suffered, the point may be taken into consideration in determining whether some compensation ought not to be granted and the particular instance."]

*4-A. An officer transferred to a Service or post to which the pension rules in these Regulations apply, from a Service or post to which they do not apply, becomes subject to the pension rules in these Regulations, provided that it shall be open to him, within six months of the date of transfer or, if he is on leave on that date, within six months of his return from leave, to elect to be governed by the pension rules to which he was subject immediately before the date of transfer. The intention of exercising this option must be specifically declared to the local Government or the Governor-General in Council as the case may be. The option once exercised shall be final.

Note.—[The service in Mysore of Civil and Military officers as above described became "Foreign Service" on the 1st October 1892.]

29. Grade and Class.—Appointments are said to be in the same "Class" when they are in the same Department, and bear the same designation, or have been declared by the Government of India to be in the same class. Appointments in the same class are sometimes divided into "Grades" according to pay.

Officers who were declared by Local Governments to be Heads of Departments under the Resolution by the Government of India in the Finance Department, No. 5525-Ex., dated the 19th November 1909, will continue to exercise such powers as have already been delegated to them; but the extension to any such officer of the larger powers that can now be delegated to Heads of Departments requires the sanction of the Government of India, in which alone rests the power of adding to the list of Heads of Departments.
- (b) Any other authority to which the Government of India may delegate the powers of a Head of a Department.

29-B. Imperial Branch or Service.—The term applies—

- ${\bf 30.}$ Indian Civil Service means the service formerly known as the Covenanted Civil Service.

- 31. Lien on Appointment.—When an officer is said to have a lien on an appointment, it is meant that the right of such an officer to resume on return to duty a substantive or an acting appointment on which he has a lien is subject to the same condition of conformity with the interest of the public service as the tenure of the appointment is. An officer may have a lien on an appointment without having actually joined it.
- 32. Local Allowance is an allowance given to an officer in addition to pay or salary in consideration of exceptional local circumstances, such as the [*] expensiveness of the locality or duty.

House rent allowances, Presidency allowances, Sind allowances, Burma, Assam and Baluchistan allowances, are local allowances. Travelling allowances, conveyance allowances, horse allowances and tentage allowances are not local allowances.

 - (1) Revenue administered by bodies which by law or rule having force of law come under the control of Government whether in regard to the proceedings generally, or to
 - specific matters such as the sanctioning of their budgets, sanction to the creation or filling up of particular appointments, the enactment of leave, pension or similar rules;
 - (2) the revenues of any body which may be specially notified by the Government of India as such.
- 34. Local Government.—This term applies primarily to the Provincial Governments enumerated in Part I of Appendix 1 with which regular or quasi-provincial settlements have been concluded, and the Minor Local Governments enumerated in Part II whose position is analogous to that of Provincial Governments, but which are not embraced in the system of Provincial Settlements. But for the purpose of these Regulations, the term also includes, in so far as they exercise the powers of a Local Government, the Departments and officers who are shown in Part III of the Appendix referred to as exercising these powers in full or in part.
- 35. (a) Military Officers.—A Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules means a Military Commissioned Officer in permanent Civil employ who is not subject to the British Army Leave Rules.
 - 1. A Military Officer who entered the Indian Army or the Indian Medical Service after the 31st December 1875, or was subject, previous to his entering Civil employ, to the Indian Army Leave Rules (1886), becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules from the date of first substantive appointment in the Civil Department, or from the date of completion of three years' continuous officiating service in the Civil Department,

^[*] The words "unhealthiness or" deleted with effect from the 10th March 1924.

whichever may be earlier. For the purpose of reckoning the three years' officiating period, the following may be included:—

- (a) any period of employment of an officer in Foreign Service, if he has been transferred to such service direct from Civil employ;
- (b) any period of privilege leave.
- Furlough or leave other than privilege leave does not count towards the three years' period, but it does not operate as a break cancelling past officiating service for the purposes of this rule, unless the officer has to revert to Military employ in order to obtain such furlough or leave.
- 2. A continuous service Royal Engineer Officer becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules from the date of entry into permanent Civil employ if it is subsequent to the date of his election for continuous Indian Service, or from the date of such election if it is subsequent to the entry into permanent Civil employ. A non-continuous service Royal Engineer Officer becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules, if he elects these rules, from the date of entry into permanent Civil employ. It is subsequent to the date on which he completes five years' Indian Service, or from the date of completion of five years' Indian Service if it is subsequent to the entry into permanent Civil employ.
- 3.* An officer of the Cantonments Department becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules from the date of his substantive appointment to the Department,
- 4. A Military Officer in the Army Secretariat of the Government of India, and a Military Officer appointed from Military employment to be Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor, are not in Civil employ.
- 5. A Military Officer does not come under the Civil Leave Rules by reason of his being transferred to an appointment in the Civil Department of which the tenure is limited to a definite period. Such officers remain subject to the Military Leave Rules, except as regards privilege leave (see Article 24).
- 6. When a Military Officer subject to the Civil Rules is temporarily deputed to the Military Department, but retains a lien on his appointment in the Civil Department, the period of his deputation qualifies for leave under the Civil Rules.
- 7. An Officer of the Indian Medical Service who is subject to the Civil Leave Rules becomes subject to the Military Leave Rules on promotion to the rank of Colonel or Surgeon-General.
- (b) A 'Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules' means a Military Commissioned Officer in permanent Civil employ who is subject to the British Army Leave Rules, a Departmental Commissioned Officer, a Commissioned Officer of the Indian Subordinate Medical Department, or a Warrant Officer. Such an officer is not included in the term "an Officer" used in the Leave Rules.

Note.—The term 'Military Commissioned Officer', when used in these Regulations, does not include a Departmental Commissioned Officer, or a Commissioned Officer of the Indian Subordinate Medical Department, or a Warrant Officer.

(c) The term 'all Military Officers' means both Military Officers subject to the Civil Leave Rules, and Military Officers subject to the Military Leave Rules.

^{*} The amended rule takes effect from the 16th September 1933.

36. Ministerial Officer means an officer, whether gazetted or not, whose duties are not of an administrative or executive character, but who is employed as a member of an office establishment.

Note.—(For brevity's sake, a Progressive pay is described by three groups of figures, namely, the minimum, the increment and the maximum, thus Rs. 100-20-200 means a pay rising from Rs. 100 by a yearly increment of Rs. 20 to Rs. 200.]

In the case of an officer who is appointed on pay not exceeding fifty rupees, the Local Government may accept a certificate in such form as it considers sufficient from any other officer who need not even be a medical man. and it may delegate its power in this matter to the officer having authority to make the appointment.

No medical certificate is necessary upon an officer being promoted from Inferior to Superior service, even though the officer while in Inferior service may have been paid from a Local Fund.

Note .- [In the case of female officers, the Local Government may either dispense with the medical examination by commissioned (or male) medical officers or authorise their examination by doctors of their own sex under suitable safeguards.]

Date of reckoning Allowances.

- 52. (a) Unless it be otherwise provided by special rule or contract, the salary of an officer begins when he takes charge of the appointment in respect of which it is earned. If the charge is transferred after noon, the transfer does not affect allowances until the next day.
- (b) If, however, the substantive appointment of an officer is changed while he is officiating in an appointment, or if, while so officiating, an officer is appointed, for the first time, to some substantive office, then, provided that his tenure of his officiating appointment is not interrupted by his new, substantive appointment, he may draw the pay thereof without joining it from the date on which he is appointed thereto, or from any later date on which the substantive office becomes yacant.

(c) The Local Government may by general or special order allow a student, stipendiary or otherwise, who is entitled to be appointed to the service of Government on passing through a course of training at a university, college or school, to draw pay from any date following that on which the final qualifying examination passed by him ends. as if he assumed charge of his duties on that date. It may also grant such a student leave for a period not exceeding five weeks, or in thecase of Burma six weeks, from the date from which he is allowed to draw pay and count service.

Charge of Office.

- 53. Unless for special recorded reasons (which must be of a public nature) the authority under whose orders the transfer takes place permits or requires it to be made in any particular case elsewhere, or otherwise, the charge of an office must be made over at its head-quarters, both the relieving and the relieved officers being present.
- 1 A Provincial Government may delegate to a subordinate authority the power to relax, for special and recorded reasons of a public nature, the provisions of this Article in the case of any class of officers serving under the latter whose transfer has been ordered by competent authority not higher than that of the Provincial Government.
- 2. Sanction to the delivery of charge away from headquarters, but within the jurisdiction of the officer relieved, may be accorded by Minor Local Governments and by Heads of Imperial Departments in respect of all officers serving under them who are transferred under competent authority. In special cases where the Head' of the Minor Local Government or Imperial Department desires, for particular reasons connected with the public service, to confer at his own headquarters with the relieving officer before the latter enters upon his local duties, he may permit the transfer to be made at his own headquarters.
- 5. The condition imposed by this rule that both the relieving and the relieved officers must be present is not enforced in the case of officers who are permitted to combine vacation with leave under Article 278. In such cases the following procedure has been laid down:—
 - (a) When vacation is prefixed to leave the outgoing officer will report before leaving headquarters, or if for urgent reasons the leave is granted during vacation, as soon as it is granted, that he makes over charge with effect from the end of the vacation. The relieving officer will then take over charge at the end of the vacation in the ordinary way.

Secretariat, are the headquarters, for the time being of the Government to which he is attached.

55. The headquarters of any other officer are either the station which has been declared to be his headquarters by the authority which appoints him, or, in the absence of such declaration, the station where the records of his office are kept.

Note.—[A Local Government may delegate to a subordinate authority the power to fix, or change, the headquarters of officers serving under the latter who are appoint ed by a higher authority.]

Leaving Jurisdiction.

- 56. No officer (other than a police officer acting within his legal powers or an excise officer acting under the orders of the Collector) is entitled to pay or allowances for any time he may spend beyond the limits of his charge without proper authority.
- 57. A Local Government may authorise any of its officers to proceed on duty to any part of British India, whether within or beyond its own jurisdiction, or to any Indian State or Foreign Settlement in India, provided either that the pay and allowances of the officer deputed are chargeable wholly or partially to Provincial Revenues or that the officer belongs to a Department or establishment, which, though paid from Imperial Revenues is under the administrative control of the Local Government.

Note.—(The Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments. Deputy Inspectors General of Police and Commissioners of Police in the Presidency towns and Rangoon are Heads of Departments for the purposes of this rule.)

1. An officer permitted under this Article to proceed to any place on duty may take with him such establishment and records as are absolutely necessary for the efficient discharge of his duties.

58. If an officer, while absent on Short Leave during which the amount of his leave allowances depends upon the substantive or officiating appointment which he would hold if present on duty, obtains promotion, substantive or officiating, or an increase of pay or acting allowance which involves no change in, or addition to, his duties or responsibilities, the promotion or increase has effect at once.

Personal, Local and Duty Allowances.

- 61. Unless in any case it is specially ordered otherwise by the authority sanctioning it, a personal allowance should be reduced by any amount by which the recipient's pay or salary may be increased, and should cease as soon as his pay or salary is increased by an amount equal to his personal allowance.
- 62. (a) (i) A duty allowance is drawn in full by the officer actually discharging the duties for which the allowance has been sanctioned.
- (ii) In addition, a duty allowance may continue to be drawn by an officer absent from his office through deputation on special duty for a period not exceeding one month, but if the absence exceeds this period, he is not entitled to draw the allowance for any part of the absence.

Note .- Any medical officer in medical charge of a civil station, who is required to proceed beyond the limits of his charge in order to appear as a witness in any judicial proceedings shall, in addition to the salary of his office, continue to draw the duty allowance attached thereto. 1

(b) An officer in receipt of house-rent at a Presidency town may, during absence from the Presidency town, whether on other duty or on duty connected with his office, continue to draw his house-rent. provided the term of his absence does not exceed two months, exclusive of the months of departure and return. If the absence exceeds this term, the house-rent is not admissible for any part of the absence. A claim to house-rent under this Article must be supported by a certificate by the officer that his previous rate of expenditure for a house at the Presidency town continued during his absence.

Note 1 .- [This rule applies also to officers in receipt of house-rent allowances at Shillong.]

Note 2.- [Members of the signalling establishment of the Telegraph Department at Rangoon who receive house rent at that place are permitted, during periods of absence on deputation to Elephant Point for not more than two months, to draw their house-rent at Rangoon, on furnishing the certificate prescribed in the foregoing Article. 7

(c) (i) Subject to the provisions of Article 268 (a) as regards houserent allowances, an officer discharging the duties of an appointment is entitled to the local allowances attached to it.

(ii) So much of a local allowance as is not paid to a substitute may be drawn by an officer absent from his office through deputation on special duty for a period not exceeding one month, but if the absence exceeds this period he is not entitled to draw the allowance for any part of the absence.

Note 1.—[This rule applies also to an officer in receipt of presidency allowance at a Presidency town, who is absent therefrom on duty connected with his office. But Senior Accountants of the late Public Works Accounts Department and Public Works Divisional Accountants, when absent from the Presidency town on inspection duty, may draw presidency allowances, irrespective of whether the period of absence is under or over a month [

Note 2.—[The rule in the Note under clause (a) of this Article regarding duty allowance applies in the case of local allowance also, without prejudice to the claims of the locum tenen to draw the allowance.]

Salaries of Natives of India.

63. The salary of a Native of India appointed to an office which has been usually filled by a member of the Indian Civil Service, or of the Indian Army or by nomination in England, or otherwise with specific approval of the Secretary of State, is, in the absence of special orders to the contrary, two-thirds of that assigned to the European.

Note 1.—In the case of appointments usually filled by members of the Indian Civil Service, the two-thirds is more accurately described as 64 per cent., thus—

	Rs.
Full salary	100
Deduct 4 per cent. for annuity—net salary	96

- (b) The advance may be drawn under the orders of the Audit Officer from any treasury in India to be specified in such orders.

(c) Such advances, as well as similar advances issued by the Home Government, are to be recovered by monthly instalments of one-third of salarv.

Note.—[Clause (c) does not apply in the case of a Military officer in Civil employ subject to the Military Leave Rules granted an advance under those rules: nor does it apply to Covenanted Engine-drivers, Mechanics, Boiler-makers, etc., recoveries from whom are regulated by Article 667.]

- 65. An officer returning from leave out of India may be granted an advance of his leave allowance for the unexpired portion of his leave subject to a maximum of 35 days from the date of embarkation for India.
- 66. An advance of pay made in England to enable an officer to return to duty in India, or to one appointed in England proceeding to India to join his appointment, is recovered at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State in Council may by order prescribe.

Transfer on Duty.

- 67. (a) No officer (unless he has been newly appointed to the service of Government) can begin to draw any pay or allowances at any treasury in India, or at the Home treasury of the Government of India, without producing a last-pay certificate from the treasury where his pay or allowances were last disbursed, or from the Accountant-General within whose jurisdiction this treasury is, or in the case of a nongazetted officer, from the head of the office under whom he was last employed.
- (b) The rules regarding the issue of last-pay certificates in connection with "transfer on duty" are laid down in Appendix 3.
- 68. A salary or establishment bill on account of an officer, of whatever rank, required to accompany the headquarters of a Government to a hill station, or other station which has been declared to be the headquarters of Government for the time being signed or countersigned by a gazetted officer, is exempted from the operation of the preceding Article.

Pay of officers undergoing training or instruction.

68A. The Local Government may authorise an officer to undergo a course of instruction, or training; and may, at its discretion, decide what pay shall be allowed during the period of training up to the limit of the salary which the officer would have drawn but for his undergoing such training. In the case of a non-gazetted officer allowed under the provision of Article 57 to proceed outside the limits of the province in which he is serving, the Local Government may, at its discretion, grant in addition an allowance not exceeding one-fifth of his salary, when it considers that the expenses of the officer exceed those to which he might be put by a temporary transfer on duty within the province in which he is employed. If the place of training has been recognised as particularly expensive by the grant of special compensatory allowances to officers stationed there, the Local Government, at its discretion, may in addition grant a non-gazetted officer an allowance similar to the compensatory allowance admissible in such place to an officer of his class. In the case of a student who is not in Government service, the Local Government may allow such pay, not exceeding Rs. 250 a month, as it considers suitable.

Note 1.—[The Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

Note 2.—[A Local Government may issue general orders under this Article in regard to any specified class of officers.]

Chapter IV.—Additions to Salary and Deputations.

Note.—[The powers of the Government of India and of subordinate authorities in regard to the creation of permanent and temporary appointments, the placing of officers on deputation in India, and the sanctioning of additions to the remuneration of officers are stated in separate Resolutions of the Government of India as amended from time to time with the approval of the Secretary of State for India.]

- 69. The maximum Civil Salary, except of appointments of which the salary is fixed by Statute, is Rs. 50,000 a year. But sumptuary allowances, travelling allowances and the like may be granted in addition to this maximum.
 - 70. Cancelled.

Additions to Salary.

- 71. (a) Unless in any particular case it be otherwise distinctly provided, the whole time of a public officer must be held to be paid for by the State, and he may be employed in any manner required by proper authority within his own branch of duty, without claim for additional remuneration, whether the services rendered are such as would ordinarily be paid for from General Revenues or a Local Fund or from the revenues of an Indian State.
- (b) All Municipalities and Funds administered under a Local Government, inclusive of Port Trust Funds and Wards' Estates, are entitled to the gratuitous advice and services of officers of the Public Works Department, and of all Government Medical, Sanitary and Educational officers whenever these can, in the opinion of the Local Government, be given without detriment to the public service. It will rest with Local Government in each case to decide whether this last condition is fulfilled, and to indicate in each instance to what officer application for advice or assistance should be made. When a Municipality has its own Engineer or Manager, it will probably only desire to consult some superior officer of the Public works or other Department. In other cases more direct supervision and assistance may be considered desirable, and should be freely given without charge if the Local Government decide that such supervision and assistance can be given without detriment to the public service.
- (c) This rule does not, however, affect such officers as Directors of a Railway Company, Members of a Town Council or a Port Trust, Government Director of the Darjeeling Railway, Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Rangoon Port Trust, who are entitled under any special or local law to receive fees or other remuneration for attendance at meetings of Directors or Commissioners, etc., for the transaction of business.
 - 72-74. Cancelled [with effect from 21st November 1935].

Temporary Appointments.

76A. A temporary appointment is an appointment carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned for a limited time.

- 76B. When a temporary appointment of like character to existing permanent appointment is filled by an officer in the service of Government, his salary will be determined as follows:—
 - (a) If the existing appointments are divided into grades or classes, the temporary appointment will be treated as a temporary addition to the corresponding grade or class of the cadre; and the salaries of all officers concerned will be regulated according to promotions within the cadre under the rules in Chapter V.
 - (b) If the appointments are not graded, the salary of the officer filling the temporary appointment will be equal to that which he would draw if he were acting in a permanent appointment on the same pay. The promotions made in such arrangements may in certain cases be substantive pro tempore, if the temporary appointment is for not less than six months, in accordance with the provisions of Article 90.

Note.—[A temporary addition to a clerical establishment for the performance of work falling within the ordinary duties of the establishment comes under clause (a) above.]

The Government of India may sanction the drawal by the holder of a temporary appointment of salary in excess of what is permissible under the above rules, subject to the maximum limit of the pay of the appointment.

The Local Government may sanction the drawal by the holder of a temporary appointment, the pay of which does not exceed Rs. 800 a month, of a salary in excess of what is permissible under the above rules, subject to the maximum limit of the pay of the appointment, and provided that no special orders of the Government of India are thereby infringed.

76C. When a temporary appointment not of like character to existing permanent appointments is filled by an officer in the service of Government his emoluments will, subject to the maximum limit of the pay of the appointment, be regulated as if he had been deputed on special duty under Article 81. The authority appointing him will declare whether any increase in emoluments drawn by him is to be treated as a deputation (duty) or deputation (local) allowance.

The Government of India may, subject to the maximum limit of the pay of the appointment, increase the amount of the deputation allowance to such an extent as is considered necessary.

If the pay of the appointment does not exceed Rs. 800, the Local Government may increase the amount of the deputation allowance to such an extent as is considered necessary, subject to the maximum limit of the pay of the appointment and provided that no special orders are thereby infringed.

Note.—(In the case, however, of an officer not belonging to an Imperial Service (as defined in Article 29-B), a Provincial Government may in exceptional cases, where the cost is chargeable to Provincial or divided heads of expenditure exercise this power even if the pay exceeds Rs. 800.]

76D. The authority which appoints an officer to a temporary appointment may declare that the officer shall hold the appointment substantively for the purposes of the acting allowance rules. The effect of such a declaration will be that if the officer officiates in another appointment while continuing to retain a lien on the temporary appointment, his emoluments in respect of the temporary appointment will be regarded as his substantive pay for the purpose of calculating his salary.

Deputation in India.

77. An officer is said to be on deputation when he is detached on special temporary duty for the performance of which there is no permanently or temporarily sanctioned appointment.

77A-78. Cancelled.

78A. See Article 76B.

79-80. Cancelled.

81. An officer deputed on special duty may be allowed to draw the pay or salary which he is drawing at the time of his deputation, or which he would have drawn from time to time if he had not been so deputed: provided that an officer who, while on deputation, is nominated to an appointment outside the regular line, shall not be admitted to the pay or salary of that appointment until he joins it. The officer may in addition be allowed to draw (1) if the special duty involves a decided increase of work or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment, a deputation (duty) allowance, or (2) if the special duty involves a change of station, a deputation (local) allowance. the special duty involves both increased work or responsibility and a change of station, the allowance will be classed as duty or local according as it is given mainly for increased work or responsibility or for a change of station. In either case it may not, except with the special sanction of the Government of India, exceed one-fifth of salary or Rs. 10 a day, whichever is less.

Note 1.—[Provincial Governments, however, may in exceptional cases, where the cost is chargeable to Provincial or divided heads of expenditure, grant to an officer not belonging to an Imperial service (as defined in Article 29-B), a deputation allowance in excess of this amount.]

NOTE 2.—[The following are instances of appointments considered to be outside the regular line for the purposes of this rule:—

Members of the Boards of Revenue and Financial Commissioners.

Judges of High Courts and Chief Courts and Judicial Commissioners.

[81-84

Heads of Departments including Chief Conservators of Forests and Chief Engineers.

Secretariat appointments.

Agents to the Governor-General and Residents of the first class.]

NOTE 3.—[Rules governing the appointment and allowances of Settlement Officers and Assistant Settlement Officers are contained in Appendix 4-A.]

82. Deputation allowance does not include re-imbursement of cost of travelling, and an officer who draws deputation allowance is not thereby debarred from drawing any travelling allowance which would be admissible to him, if the duty on which he is deputed were treated as a new permanent appointment.

Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor.

83. Only an officer already in the service of Government can be appointed to be a Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor. The pay and staff pay of a Military officer appointed from Military employ are laid down in the Army Regulations. A Military officer in Civil employ, a member of the Indian Civil Service or other officer appointed to be a Private Secretary from Civil employ, is, while so employed, entitled to a duty allowance of Rs. 350 a month in addition to the salary to which he would, but for his appointment as Private Secretary, be entitled: Provided that (1) the officer's total emoluments (including the allowance of Rs. 350) shall in no case exceed Rs. 1.250 a month plus exchange compensation allowance; (2) no extra expenditure shall be caused to Government beyond the duty allowance of Rs. 350 per mensem and the grade place, substantive or officiating, held by the officer on the establishment to which he is attached shall not be filled up, and (3) no Military officer in Civil employ, or member of the Indian Civil Service, may be employed as Private Secretary whose substantive appointment in the regular line is above the grade of a Joint Magistrate or Assistant Commissioner.

Famine Duty.

84. The following allowances in addition to salary are granted to an officer deputed to Famine work in a Presidency or Province other than that in which he is serving, besides the usual travelling allowances both to and from the scene of his labours and while there:—

ment .

Besides the usual sub-divisional allowances permitted by the rules, and cost of one servant's journey to and from the famine districts. (ii) To a Military officer trans ferred from Regimental or purely Military duty to Famine work whether in or out of his own Presidency or Province-1. If the officers' service is more than five 300 years . 2. If the officers' service is not more than five 200 vears

Rs. a month

The travelling allowances of a Military officer are the same as those admissible to a member of the Indian Civil Service.

(iii) To every other officer . Rs. 5 a day

Besides the cost of the journeys to and from the famine districts of his servants and (if tents and horses are carried) the carriage of his tents and horses.

Deputation outside India.

84-A. Cancelled.

- *85. (1) The Governor-General in Council may sanction the deputation of a Government servant on duty out of India, elsewhere than in Europe or America, for not more than twelve months.
- (2) Except in accordance with the provisions of clause (1) of this Article, no deputation of a Government servant out of India shall be sanctioned without previous reference to the Secretary of State unless the Secretary of State by general or special order otherwise directs.
- *85A. (1) When a Government servant is with proper sanction temporarily deputed for duty out of India either in connection with the post held by him in India or in connection with any special duty on which he may temporarily be placed, his pay shall be regulated as follows :--
- (A) If he is deputed for duty in Europe or his deputation elsewhere is declared by the Governor General in Council to be under quasi European conditions and if he is sent from India for the purpose of his deputation and does not include any leave within the period of his absence from India, he shall receive for the first month of his absence from India the pay which he would have drawn if he had remained on duty in India, for the second month of such absence, 11/12ths of such amount, for the third month of such absence, 5/6ths of such amount, for the fourth month of such absence, 3/4ths of such amount, for the fifth to tenth month of such absence, 2/3rds of such amount, and thereafter 3/4ths of such amount.

^{*}Revised Articles 85 to 85-C, which have been substituted for Articles 85 and 85-A, take effect from 4th March 1938.

- (B) If he is deputed for duty in Europe or his deputation elsewhere is declared by the Governor General in Council to be under quasi-European conditions, and if he is not sent from India for the purpose of his deputation, or having been so sent, includes a period of leave within the period of his absence from India, he shall receive throughout his deputation 3/4ths of the pay which he would have drawn if he had remained on duty in India.
- (C) If he is deputed for duty elsewhere than in Europe and his deputation is not declared by the Governor General in Council to be under quasi-European conditions, his pay shall be determined by the Governor General in Council with due regard to the provisions of Articles 76B and 76C of these Regulations as though a temporary post had been created provided that—
 - (a) No Government servant on deputation out of India shall draw pay at a rate exceeding Rs. 5,500 per month;
 - (b) A Government servant having his domicile in India may in any case be allowed by the Governor General in Council to draw during the period of deputation out of India pay not exceeding the full amount of the pay which he would have drawn had he remained on duty in India, in lieu of the pay admissible to him under sub-clause (A) or subclause (B) of this clause.
- (2) In addition to the pay admissible under clause (1) of this Article a Government servant on deputation may be granted a compensatory allowance of such amount as the Secretary of State may think fit in respect of deputation to Europe or America or as the Governor General in Council may think fit in respect of deputation elsewhere.
- (3) The sterling equivalent of the pay admissible under clause (1) of this Article shall be calculated at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State may by order prescribe.
- *85B. The rules in Articles 85 and 85A are applicable to Government servants whose conditions of service are laid down by the Secretary of State. In the case of Government servants whose conditions of service are laid down by the Governor General in Council no deputation out of India shall be sanctioned without the previous approval of the Governor General in Council. The pay and allowances of such Government servants during the period of deputation will be regulated by the provisions in Article 85A.
- *85C. When a Government servant is with proper sanction deputed for duty out of India to hold a regularly constituted permanent or quasi-permanent post, other than a post borne on the cadre of the service to which he belongs, his pay shall be regulated by the orders of the Secretary of State or the Governor General in Council as the case may be.

Chapter V.—Acting Allowances—General Rules.

SECTION I.—DEFINITIONS AND LIMITATIONS.

- 86. "Acting Allowance" is the allowance given, in addition to substantive pay (if any), to an officer who is appointed to officiate in an appointment of which either there is no holder or of which the holder is an absentee.
- $1.\ A$ Local Government may, at its discretion, allow acting appointments to be made in place of officers ordered or permitted to undergo a course of training. It may delegate its power under this rule to Heads of Departments.
- 2. A Local Government may also issue general orders authorising acting appointments to be made in the place of any specified class of officers under training.
- 87. In certain cases, as defined in Articles 89 to 92, it is permissible to appoint an officer "provisionally" or "substantively pro tempore" instead of appointing him to officiate.
- 88. It is also permissible, instead of appointing an officer to officiate, to appoint him to be in charge of the current duties of the vacant appointment. In such cases a 'charge allowance' is given as explained in Articles 94. 95, 165 to 169-A and 174-A.

Provisional Appointments.

89. If an officer is transferred to duty which is such that he retains no connection with his own appointment and which, there is reason to believe, will not terminate within three years, the Local Government may, if it thinks fit, suspend his lien upon his own appointment altogether, and fill up that appointment substantively, reserving only the right to reverse the arrangements thus made in case the absent officer at any time reverts to his original appointment.

NOTE.—[A Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments in respect of officers whom they can appoint.]

Substantive pro tempore Appointments.

96. An officer to whom the rules in Section I of Chapter VI do not apply may be appointed substantively pro tempore on full pay, without prejudice to the lien of the absentee, in place of an absentee who draws no part of the pay of the appointment or of an officer on deputation, provided that when the absence is due to a temporary appointment or the officer is on deputation, the temporary appointment or dejutation lasts for six months or more.

The full pay of an officer thus appointed substantively for a time may, in like manner and upon the same condition, be given to a substitute similarly appointed. The status of an officer appointed substantively pro tempore under this Article is that of an Acting officer, and if he is appointed to officiate in a higher appointment, his salary is reckoned upon his substantive pay proper and not upon the pay of the appointment he held substantively pro tempore.

Norm 1.—[This rule is subject to the proviso that the salary of an officer who is substantive pro tempore in one appointment and who is appointed to officiate in a higher appointment shall not be less than that which he drew while holding the substantive pro tempore appointment. While appointed to officiate in a higher appointment or in a higher class the officer does not cease to hold the former appointment substantively pro tempore unless expressly reverted; and unless the officiating appointment is expected to last for at least three months, the authority appointment firm may not revert him to his substantive appointment merely for the purpose of appointing another officer to the substantive pro tempore appointment.]

Note 2.—[Full pay is not to be drawn under Articles 89 and 90 as a matter of course, or unless the officer claiming it has been formally appointed "provisionally" or "substantively pro tempore" by competent authority.]

- 91. An officer appointed to act in another office is not an absentee within the meaning of Article 90 unless the full pay of that office is available and he is appointed to it substantively pro tempore.
- 92. An absentee who receives absentee allowances draws, within the meaning of Article 90, "part of the pay of his appointment;" and that Article is not to be construed as conflicting with Article 214.
 - 93. Omitted.

Charge Allowances.

94. An officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an office independently, i.e., under orders which expressly relieve him of the charge of his own office, is entitled to a charge allowance of three-quarters of the acting allowance which would be admissible to him if he were appointed to officiate in the office. An officer cannot be thus appointed to be in charge of a "grade."

Note.-[The rules laid down in Articles 162 and 169 apply here also.]

95. The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, assign to the officer a charge allowance of less than the amount thus admissible, and, on the other hand, if it thinks this amount too small, may grant him for special recorded reasons, the full acting allowance. Charge allowance under this Article must never exceed what an officer would draw as acting allowance if appointed to officiate in the appointment.

Note .- [The rules laid down in Articles 168 and 169 apply here also.]

1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the Head of a Department or Commissioner of a Division.

SECTION II.-MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM SALARIES.

- 96. The minimum salary of an officiating officer is half the pay of the appointment, and, except in cases where the rules in Section I of Chapter VI apply, the maximum salary is the pay of the appoinment.
 - 97. Cancelled.

CHAP. VI

SECTION III.—PRIVILEGE LEAVE VACANCIES.

98. As a general rule, the duties of an officer absent on Privilege leave taken separately and not combined with other leave under Article 232 shall be discharged by another officer in the same station or district Only in exceptional cases where there is absolutely no officer available on the spot, can the transfer of an officer from another station or district to act in consquence of the absence of an officer on Privilege leave be allowed. In the case of appointments held by members of the Indian Civil Service or a Commission, if a member of that Service or Commission is not available on the spot, a Provincial Service officer should be placed in charge of the vacant appointment.

99—103. Cancelled.

Chapter VI.—Acting Allowances—Rules for Calculation.

SECTION I.—IMPERIAL SERVICES AND SERVICES ORGANISED ON A TIME-SCALE BASIS.

104. The rules in this Section apply to all Imperial Services and to any other Service, except the Indian Finance Department, which is organised on a time-scale basis.

Norm.—[The officiating promotion and acting allowances of officers of the Indian-Finance Department are regulated by the rules which were in force prior to 11th-September 1920.]

105. Subject to the provisions of Article 162, an officer holding one appointment substantively, who is appointed to officiate in another, shall not draw acting allowance unless the officiating appointment involves the assumption of duties or responsibilities of greater importance or of a different character. This condition is not fulfilled if the two-appointments are on the same scale of pay.

Note.—[Two appointments are said to be on the same scale of pay when they fall within a cadre or a class in a cadre, such cadre or class having been created in order to fill all appointments involving duties of approximately the same character or degree or responsibility in a service or establishment or group of establishments, so that the pay of the holder of any particular appointment is determined by his position in the cadre or class and not by the fact that he holds that appointment.]

Exception.—Officers who on 10th September 1920 were in receipt of acting allowauces as officiating in the selection grade of Judges may be permitted by the Local Government to continue to draw acting allowances for so long as they officiate continuously: and a similar concession may be given to officers in other services similarly situated.

106. Subject to the provisions of Articles 105 and 108, the acting allowance of an officiating officer will be the difference between his pay and the pay of the appointment in which he officiates. If, however, his substantive pay is greater than the pay of the appointment in which he officiates, he will continue to draw his substantive pay.

107. An officer officiating in an appointment on a time-scale draws as initial salary the stage of the time-scale next above his substantive pay, if any; provided that, if he has previously officiated in the appointment or in an appointment in the same cadre on the same time-scale, his initial salary shall not be less than the salary which he drew when last officiating. All officiating service in any stage of the time-scale, whether continuous or not, counts for increment in that stage. If the salary drawn during any period of past officiating service was intermediate between two stages of the time-scale, that period will count for increment in the lower of the two stages. If the substantive pay of the officer at any time exceeds the salary calculated under this rule, he will draw salary equal to that substantive pay.

Note.—[This Article does not apply to any time-scale sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council in so far as it is inconsistent with the terms specially so sanctioned for such time-scale.]

108. A Local Government may grant to an officiating officer an acting allowance less than that admissible under these rules.

109-137. Cancelled.

SECTION II.—OTHER SERVICES.

- 138. The following rules are applicable to officers in Civil empoly whose cases are not provided for in Section I of this Chapter, or by rules peculiar to the Services concerned, such as—
 - (1) Lieutenant-Governors and Members of Council (see Chapter XXII).
 - (2) Judges of the High Courts (See Chapter XXIII).
 - (3) Ecclesiastical Officers (see Chapter XXVII).
 - (4) Law Officers (see Chapter XXXI).

Officers having a Substantive Appointment.

- 140. An officer with a substantive appointment, officiating in an appointment to which this Settion applies and of which the pay is not less than Rs. 100, is entitled to an acting allowance of one-fifth of the pay of the appointment: Provided that no officer may under this Article be appointed to officiate in a higher grade of his own class.
- 1.—A Section-writer or a Press servant who is paid for piece-work is, for the purposes of the rules in this Section, held to be an officer without a substantive appointment.
- 141. For the purposes of this Section, the pay of an appointment which belongs to a graded class is the average pay of the grades, calculated without reference to the number of appointments in each grade; but the officiating officer's salary shall not exceed the pay of the lowest grade, unless he belongs to another department, and is especially appointed to officiate in a grade other than the lowest.

The provisions of this Article are not to be applied in the case of temporary acting appointments not lasting longer than three months so as to give the officiating officer a lower salary than his salary in the appointment he would have continued to hold but for the acting appointment.

Medical Appointments.

142. A Military Assistant Surgeon while officiating in charge of a Civil station is entitled to draw the full minimum pay of the post and to count the period of officiating service towards increment.

Note.-[In Bengal, the Punjab, the Central Provinces, Bihar and Orissa, Assam and Burma, the undermentioned allowances may be granted under the orders of the Local Government to a Military Assistant Surgeon performing the duties of the Civil Surgeon at headquarters while the latter is absent for more than seven days

(a) If the substantive holder of the charge is a Commissioned Medical Officer-

To a Senior Military Assistant Surgeon, or Military Assistant Surgeon, first class, a duty allowance of To a Military Assistant Surgeon of the second, third or fourth class, a duty allowance of 50

(b) If the substantive holder of the charge is a Civil or Military Assistant Surgeon-

In all cases, a duty allowance of ... 50

143. Cancelled.

143A. A military Assistant Surgeon officiating at the Presidency General Hospital, Calcutta, or as Assistant Apothecary, Medical College Hospital, Calcutta, is entitled to a fixed acting allowance of Rs. 50 a month.

Officers without a Substantive Appointment.

- 144. (a) An officer without a substantive appointment, officiating in an appointment the pay of which is not less than Rs. 100, is ordinarily entitled to an acting allowance of half the pay, or, if the pay of the appointment is progressive, half the minimum pay, of the appointment.
- (b) In special cases, however, the acting allowance may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, be increased to an amount not exceeding the full pay of the appointment.

Note 1.-[The Local Government may delegate its powers under clause (b) of this Article to Heads of Departments in respect of non-gazetted officers under their control.]

Note 2.-[The salary of an officer without a substantive appointment who does not devote his whole time to the duties of the appointment in which he officiates, is regulated by clause (a) of this Article. If the appointment is not ordinarily a whole-time post, the Local Government may increase his salary up to the full pay of the appointment under clause (b) of the Article; but otherwise, no allowance in excess of the minimum laid down in clause (a) may be given to such an officer without the sanction of the Government, of India.

Note 3.—[A report of the circumstances of each case in which sanction is accorded by the Local Government or Subordinate Heads of Departments under clause (b) of this Article should be forwarded at the beginning of each year through the audit officer to the Government of India in an amalgamated schedule.]

145-146. Cancelled.

Appointments on less than Rs. 100.

- 147. The salary of an officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay is less than Rs. 100 should, as far as practicable, be regulated by Articles 140 and 144. The following conditions must be observed:—
 - (i) If the officiating officer has a substantive appointment, his salary must not exceed what it would be if Article 140 were applied.
 - (ii) If he has no substantive appointment, the officer who appoints him may grant him such allowance, not exceeding the pay, or if the appointment is progressive, the minimum pay, of the appointment, as he considers necessary.
 - (iii) If the vacancy is caused by the absence on leave of an officer in inferior service, the absentee allowance of such officer must not exceed the difference between his pay and the sum of the acting allowances paid in consequence of his absence, except when, in the resultant acting arrangements, an officer who has no substantive appointment is given more than half the pay of the appointment in which he acts—in which case the excess over half pay granted to him may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be disregarded altogether in calculating the sum available for the leave allowance of the absence and the acting allowances paid in consequence of his absence.
- 1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this clause to Heads of Offices and Departments.
- 148. The third of the conditions above mentioned is not enforced in the case of :—
 - Officers on hospital leave under Chapter XII, Articles 287 to 294
 - (ii) Female warders or matrons employed in Jails.

Appointments on Progressive Pay.

- 148A. In the case of progressive appointments, acting allowances are fixed as follows:—
 - (a) An officer whose substantive pay is progressive, and who acts in an office of which the pay is fixed. In this case the officer's acting allowance is calculated as if his substantive pay were a fixed one, equal to the amount at which from time to time it stands.

- (b) An officer whose substantive pay is fixed, and who acts in an office of which the pay is progressive. In this case the officer's acting allowance is calculated upon the pay to which he would from time to time have risen if he had held the officiating appointment substantively.
- v(c) An officer whose substantive pay is progressive, and who acts in an office of which the pay is progressive. In this case the officer draws—
 - (i) His substantive pay, with the increments thereof as they fall due;
 - (ii) The acting allowance which he would have drawn if the substantive and officiating appointments were both on fixed pay equal to the minimum.

Note 1.—[No officer should be transferred to officiate in a progressive appointment the value of which calculated under Article 150 is less than that of his substantive appointment, save for special reasons of a public nature, to be recorded by the authority appointing him.]

Note 2.—[The maximum limit of salary is not that prescribed in Article 96 but the officer's substantive pay or the pay to which he would have risen if his officiating tenure had been substantive, whichever is the greater.]

Norm 3.—[When calculating the salary of an officer who acts in an appointment, the whole of the acting tenure, whether continuous or not, should be taken into account.]

Beample.—An officer who is substantively in the Rs. 170 stage of an appointment on Rs. 150—10—200 is appointed to act in an office of which the pay is Rs. 200—240. His salary is thus fixed—

 $\begin{array}{c} \text{Rs.} \\ \text{Pay.} \\ \text{Acting allowance (one-fifth of Rs. 200)} \\ \text{Total} \end{array} \begin{array}{c} \text{Rs.} \\ 170 \\ \text{40} \\ \text{But this is limited for the first year to} \\ \text{Rs. 200.} \end{array}$

Next year he gets pay Rs. 180 + acting allowance Rs. 40 = total Rs. 220. But this is limited for a year to Rs. 208.

Chapter VII—Regulation of Progressive Pay

149. Except under special orders to the contrary, a Progressive pay shall not rise from the minimum to the maximum by less than five equal yearly increments.

149A. The rules in Articles 151 to 160-B in this Chapter do not apply to any Time-scale or Progressive pay sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council in so far as they are inconsistent with the terms specially so sanctioned for such Time-scale or Progressive pay.

Calculation of Value.

150. A Progressive pay is, on an average, equivalent to a fixed pay, the amount of which lies between the minimum and maximum of the Progressive pay. The exact amount of this equivalent varies according to the conditions of each appointment; but in practice, it is assumed that a Progressive pay rising to its maximum by five equal yearly increments, is equivalent to a fixed pay equal to the minimum plus two-thirds, or if the appointment is a ministerial appointment, plus three-fourths, of the difference between the minimum and the maximum.

Note.—[This Article does not fix the pay of a Progressive appointment, but only indicates the mode of rating the value of such an appointment for financial purposes.]

Accrual of Increment.

151. An increment accrues from the day following that on which it is earned.

Exception.—An officer appointed in England by the Secretary of State for service in India receives the increment in his pay in accordance with the terms of his engagement.

- 152. A periodical increment should not be granted to an officer serving on Progressive pay, as a matter of course, or unless his conduct has been good. When an increment is withheld, the period for which it is withheld is at the discretion of the authority having power to withhold, who will also decide whether the postponment is or is not to have the effect of similarly postponing future increments. The authority having power to withhold is, in the case of ministerial and menial officers, the head of the office, and in the case of other officers, the Local Government, which may delegate the powers to heads of departments or other supervising officers.
- 153. (a) A proposal to grant an increment of Progressive pay in advance of the due date should always be scrutinised with special jealousy: it is contrary to the principle of Progressive pay to grant an increment before it is due, and such a grant should not be recommended or allowed, excepting under circumstances which would justify a personal allowance to an officer whose pay is fixed,—that is to say, seldom if ever.
- (b) The powers of the Government of India, of Local Governments and of subordinate authorities to grant a premature increment to an officer are subject to the limits up to which each such authority can raise the officer's remuneration.
- 154. An officer reduced to a lower grade or appointment on account of misconduct or inefficiency cannot, without the sanction of the authority by whom he is reinstated or promoted, count for increments previous service in the grade or appointment from which he was reduced.

155. Omitted.

Initial Pay.

- 156. When an officer is appointed substantively to a post on progressive pay—
 - (a) (i) if he has not previously officiated in the post; or
 - (ii) if he has officiated in it but his present substantive pay exceeds the salary which he last drew in it, he will draw as initial pay the pay of the stage in the progressive scale next above his present substantive pay, and will draw increments after the period usually required; and

(b) if he has previously officiated in the post, but his present substantive pay does not exceed the salary which he drew when last officiating, he will draw initial pay equal to that salary, and will count for increment in that stage the period during which he was drawing the said salary.

157—157A. Cancelled.

- 157B. (a) When, however, the conditions of an officer's service are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same department between appointments of which the pay and increments are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transfer, count for increments as if he had not been transferred.
- (b) The authority which orders the transfer of an officer, as a penalty from a higher to a lower appointment, may allow him to draw any salary not exceeding the maximum of the lower appointment, as it may think proper.
- 158. The incumbent of an appointment the pay of which is changed shall be treated as if he were transferred to a new appointment on the new pay: Provided he may at his option retain his old pay until the date on which he has earned his next or any subsequent increment on the old pay, or until he vacates his appointment. This option once made is final.

Time spent on Leave and under Suspension.

159. Time spent on leave with allowances counts towards increments in the same manner as if during it the officer had actually held or officiated in (as the case may be) the appointment on which he has a lien.

Norg.—[The last sentence of Article 31 must not be held to conflict with this Article. Shipect always to the provisions of Article 60, the phrase "the appointment on which he has a lien" means the appointment which the officer relinquished when he proceeded on leave and does not refer to an appointment to which an officer has been nominated during hits absence on leave.]

160. Time passed under suspension does not count towards increments if the suspension is a penalty for misconduct; but an officer, in directing the reinstatement of a person who has been suspended, may declare that the time shall count.

Officers under Training.

160A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer who is selected to undergo a course of training, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for increments of pay.

Note 1.—[The Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

Note 2.—[A Local Government may issue general orders under this Article in regard to any specified class of officers under training.]

Officers on a Time-scale of Pay.

- 160B. (a) Leave without allowances taken by an officer prior to his admission to a time-scale of pay, and overstayals of privilege leave to the extent of one week in similar circumstances, count for increments under the time-scale.
- (b) Leave without allowances taken by an officer while he is on a time-scale of pay, or overstayals of privilege leave, do not count towards increments; but Local Governments and Departments of the Government of India which have the powers of Local Governments, may exempt an officer from the operation of the rule, on proof being furnished to them that the leave was taken on account of illness or other cause beyond the officer's control.

Chapter VIII-Combination of Appointments and Salaries.

- SECTION I.—AN OFFICER PERFORMING PERMANENTLY THE DUTIES OF ONE OR MORE SANCTIONED APPOINT-MENTS IN ADDITION TO THE DUTIES OF HIS OWN APPOINTMENT.
- 161. A Local Government may appoint an officer to hold permanently two or more appointments at the same time if the aggregate remuneration does not exceed the maximum limit up to which it can increase an officer's remuneration. The salary of an officer appointed to officiate in two or more appointments which under due sanction have been combined as a single charge is calculated upon the pay fixed for the combined appointment, Article 162 being inoperative in such case.

Norg.—[A Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to a Head of a Department in cases where he is competent to fill up the appointment.]

SECTION II.—AN OFFICER PERFORMING TEMPORARILY ADDITIONAL DUTIES WHICH ARE OUTSIDE THE DUTIES OF HIS OWN APPOINTMENT.

Performance of additional duties for which there are one or more sanctioned appointments.

- 162. A Local Government may, without the sanction of the Government of India, appoint one officer to hold substantively as a temporary measure, or to officiate in, two or more independent appointments at one time. In such cases, the emoluments are regulated as follows:—
 - (i) He draws the highest salary to which he would be entitled if he held, or, as the case may be, officiated in, any one of the appointments alone.
 - (ii) For the other appointment or appointments he draws such allowances as the Local Government may fix, not exceeding for each appointment half the salary which he would draw if he held, or, as the case may be, officiated in, it alone.
 - (iii) Provided that his aggregate salary shail not exceed the pay which he would draw in the most highly paid of the appointments, if he held it substantively and alone.
- 1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the Head of a Department or Commissioner of a Division.
- 2. The proviso in clause (iii) of this Article may be dispensed with if the Local Government declares that for special reasons (which shall be recorded) it is necessary on public grounds to entrust to the one officer the duties of the several offices at once, and that the salary to which he would be limited by this proviso is not enough.

Norz.—[This Article does not apply to the allowance given to a Government officer for holding a Professorship or Lecturership in any Government institution conjointly with another office.]

162A. Article 162 does not apply to the case of an officer discharging the duties of more than one appointment in the same office or on the same establishment. An officer so employed is entitled to the highest salary to which he would be entitled if he held or officiated in any of the appointments alone, and to nothing more.

Examples.—An Under-Secretary discharging the duties of a fellow Under-Secretary in the same office or department as well as his own.

A Joint Magistrate appointed in addition to his own duties, to officiate as Magistrate of the District. In this case he gets allowances only as Officiating Magistrate.

A District Judge deprived of the help of an Additional or Assistant Judge, and therefore doing the Additional or Assistant Judge's work.

A Joint Magistrate doing the work of a second Joint Magistrate in the District as well as his own.

A subordinate doing the duties of another subordinate in the same office.

163. The allowances for his Civil duties of a Military Officer, appointed to officiate in a Civil office other than a Cantonment Magistracy without being relieved of his Military duty, are regulated in accordance with Article 162 and Rule 2 under it and are drawn in the Civil Department. If he has no substantive appointment in the Military Department, the pay of his rank is held to be his substantive pay for the purposes of Article 162.

Note.—[This Article does not apply to cases of Medical appointments falling under Article 171.]

164. An officer holding two or more independent appointments, to all or any of which a local or duty allowance is attached, will ordinarily draw the highest allowance (whether it is local allowance or duty allowance) attached to any one of the appointments. In case, however, the highest allowance is a local allowance, the difference between this and the highest duty allowance, if any, will be treated as a local allowance and the balance as duty allowance. But the Local Government may, for special reasons, allow him to draw all such allowances attached to the different appointments held by him.

Charge of Current Duties.

165. An officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an office in addition to his own duties may, if the charge in the opinion of the Local Government entails a substantial increase of responsibility and some additional work, be granted a charge allowance, to be fixed by the Local Government, not exceeding one-tenth of the pay of the office; provided that if the office is open to, and may in practice be held by, a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer, the allowance shall not be less than Rs. 100.

Note.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

- 166. The salary of an officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an additional office shall never exceed the salary which would receive for officiating in the office. One effect of this rule is than an officer is not entitled to an allowance for taking charge of an office the pay of which is not more than that of his own substantive-office. But the Local Government may, for special reasons which shall be recorded, relax this restriction.
- 167. The amount of 'charge allowance' has been fixed in the cases shown in Appendix 6.
- 168. (a) No allowance is admissible under Article 165 unless the incumbent has actually given over charge of the office under the orders of competent authority, and is absent on leave or deputation or is under suspension. For instance, no allowance is admissible to a subordinate officer empowered to dispose of routine business while his superior is on tour.

168-172A] COMBINATION OF APPOINTMENTS AND SALARIES [CHAP. VIII

- (b) But in the Northern India Salt Revenue Department, charge allowance is granted to an officer placed in charge of the current duties of an Assistant Commissioner's office during the absence of the incumbent on tour.
- 169. An officer placed in charge of the current duties of an office is not entitled to any local or duty allowances attached to the office, except under the special orders of the Local Government. (See also Article 1010.)

NOTE.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the Head of a Department or Commissioner of a Division.]

169A. The above rules in this Chapter do not apply to the special cases dealt with in the following Articles,—Articles 170 to 174,—for which special allowances are admissible.

SPECIAL CASES.

District Jail.

170. No allowance is admissible to a member of the Indian Civil Service, or to any officer holding an appointment ardinarily held by a member of that Service, or to a Superintendent of a Central Jail, for the executive charge, either permanently or temporarily, of a District Jail. Any other person, whether he does or does not hold any office under Government, if placed in executive charge of a District Jail, is entitled to an allowance on the following scale:—

1st class Jail	Rs.	150 a month.
2nd class Jail	Rs.	100 a month.
3rd class Jail	Rs.	75 a month.
4th class Jail	Rs.	50 a month.

Civil Surgeoncy.

- 171. A Regimental Medical Officer appointed to act as Civil Surgeon without relinquishing his Regimental duties is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100 a month.
- 172. An officer in medical charge of a Civil station is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100 a month for holding visiting charge of a second station.

Note.—[In Bengal the allowance may be Rs. 50 or Rs. 100 as the Local Government may fix.]

Medical Charge of Jails.

172A. An officer appointed to the medical charge of a Central Jail when the administrative and medical charges are not united is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100, or, in special cases at the discretion of the Local Government, Rs. 150;

JOINING TIME [172A-175

Provided always that the aggregate cost for the administrative and medical charges shall not exceed the total pay payable for the combination of the two charges in one person.

Agricultural Appointments.

172B. When a post specially reserved for, or usually filled by, an officer of the Indian Agricultural Service is vacant, the Local Government may appoint an officer of the Agricultural Service other than an Indian Agricultural Service Officer to hold charge of its current duties in addition to his own, and may in such cases grant an allowance not exceeding Rs. 50 a month.

Veterinary Appointments.

173. When a post specially reserved for, or usually filled by, an officer of the Imperial Civil Veterinary Service is vacant, the Local Government may appoint an officer of the Civil Veterinary Service other than an Imperial Civil Veterinary Service Officer to hold charge of its current duties in addition to his own, and may in such cases grant an allowance not exceeding Rs. 50 a month.

174. Cancelled.

Nature of the allowance.

174A. The allowances granted under Articles 170 to 174 are 'acting' or 'charge' allowances if they are granted to an officer for acting in, or holding charge of the current duties of, an office for which there is a sanctioned appointment and 'duty' allowances if granted for the performance of duties for which there is no sanctioned appointment.

Chapter IX Joining Time.

SECTION I.—GENERAL RULES.

175. Joining Time is the time allowed to an officer to proceed from one station to another when his appointment is changed, or when, being unemployed, he is appointed to any office, or to an officer returning from long leave out of India (whether combined with privilege leave or not), who is not entitled to subsidiary leave, to travel from the port of debarkation and re-organise his domestic establishment. In the latter case the minimum Joining Time is 10 days. An officer is held to be on duty during Joining Time.

- 176. In cases involving a change of station, Joining Time is calculated as follows, subject to a maximum of thirty days:—
 - (i) Six days for preparation; and, in addition thereto:-

officer travels or might travel— By railway	each. 250 miles.
By ocean steamer By river steamers	200 ,, 80 ,,	or any longer time actually occupied in the journey.
By motor car plying for public hire .	80 ,,
By mail cart or other public stage con- veyance drawn by horses	80 ,,
In any other way	15 ,,
An extra day is allowed for any fraction	of distance ov	ver that prescribed.

(ii) When part of the journey is by steamer, the days intervening between the officer being set free from his office, or, if he has no office, receiving his orders, and the departure of the steamer or his start duly regulated to catch the steamer, shall be added.

steamer, shall be added.

NOTE 1.—[Sundays are not included in the above calculations, though they are included in the maximum limit of thirty days.]

Note 2.—[A journey by road of five miles or under to or from a railway station from or to the point which may be prescribed under Article 998 does not count for joining time.]

Norm 3.—[An officer whose salary does not exceed Rs. 100 a month should not ordinarily be required to travel by mail cart or other public stage conveyance drawn by horses.]

177. By whatever route the officer travels, his Joining Time shall, unless the Local Government specially permit otherwise, be calculated by the route which travelers habitually use.

Note.—[The Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

- 178. (a) The Local Government may in any case extend the Joining Time admissible by rule provided the general spirit of the rules is observed.
- (b) Within the maximum of thirty days, Heads of Departments and Commissioners of Divisions in the case of officers of Provincial Services and non-gazetted subordinates under their control, may extend the Joining Time admissible by rule—
 - (i) if the officer has been unable to avail himself of the usual mode of travelling, or if, notwithstanding due diligence on his part, the journey has occupied more time than is allowed by the rules— to the extent of the time actually taken:
 - (ii) if such extension is considered necessary for the public convenience or for the saving of public expense, as, for example, to prevent unnecessary and merely formal transfers to the extent necessary:

(iii) if the rules have in any particular case operated harshly, as, for example, if an officer has through no fault on his part missed a steamer or fallen sick on the journey—tothe extent necessary, on such conditions as to allowances or otherwise as the sanctioning authority may think fit.

Note.—[A Local Government may delegate the powers of Heads of Departments under clause (b) of this Article to other subordinate authorities in respect of nongazetted officers serving ander the latter.]

179. The Audit Officer shall move the Local Government to report to the Government of India any concession made under the preceding Article, which appears to him contrary to the spirit of the rules. The Local Government may not, finally, overrule the Audit Officer without a reference to the Governor General in Council.

SECTION II.—JONING TIME ON FIRST APPOINTMENT OR TRANSFER.

180. Only one day is allowed for joining an appointment which does not necessarily involve a change of residence from one station to another.

Norm.—[Sundays are included in the calculation of the joining time of one day admissible under this Article. An officer who gives over charge on Saturday forenoon must, therefore, take charge on Saturday afternoon, and an officer who gives over charge on Saturday afternoon must take charge on Monday forenoon.]

181. If an officer is authorised under Article 58 to make over charge of an office elsewhere than at its headquarters, any Joining Time to which he may be entitled shall be reckoned from the place at which he actually makes over charge.

When Leave intervenes.

- 182. When an officer, after giving over charge of his office at one stain on transfer, or reversion to another office, takes Privilege or Examination leave before joining the office to which he has been transferred, or to which he has reverted, or when an an officer, while on Privilege or Examination leave, is transferred to a station other than that from which he took leave, he is entitled to Joining Time in addition to his Privilege or Examination leave. The Joining Time of an officer transferred during Privilege or Examination leave will be counted from his old station, or from the place where he receives the order of transfer, whichever calculation would entitle him to the less Joining Time.
- 183. If an officer, during transit from one appointment to another, obtains Furlough on medical certificate (with or without Privilege-leave prefixed), he may be allowed only the Joining Time calculated for the journey from his old station to the furthest place to which he has proceeded on his route to his new station.

Appointment Changed.

184. The Joining Time of an officer whose appointment is changed while he is in transit from one appointment to another hegins on the day following that on which he receives his orders.

Allowances.

185. Except in the case mentioned in Article 188, an officer draws, during Joining Time, the pay or salary which he *[would have drawn if he had not been transferred], or that which he will draw on joining his new appointment, whichever is less: Provided that an officer transferred from one officiating appointment to another shall not draw any acting allowance during Joining Time if he had not a superior lien on either of the officiating appointments to that of the officer relieved by or relieving him. If the officer is entitled to tentage in his old appointment and tentage is also attached to his new appointment. he may draw tentage during Joining Time at the lower of the two rates. If the officer in his old appointment drew a local allowance granted on account of special expensiveness of living or unhealthiness of climate, in any district, province or locality, and the transfer is to another appointment within the same district, province or locality he may draw the local allowance during Joining Time. Provided that, if the rates differ in the two appointments or parts of the local area, he may draw the lower rate only. If an officer drawing a duty allowance in one appointment is transferred to another appointment similarly carrying a duty allowance he may draw the same during the period of transit provided that, if the rates differ, the allowance to which he is entitled is the lower of the two.

Norg.—[An officer transferred from service under His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to service to which these Regulations apply draws, for the period of the voyage to India and from the date of debarkation to the date preceding that of assumption of charge, pay at the rate last drawn by him in his appointment under His Majesty's Government.]

186. When, under Article 182, an officer combines Privilege or Examination leave and Joining Time, his allowances during Joining Time,—that is to say for the period, not exceeding the Joining Time admissible by rule, in excess of his Privilege or Examination leave, during which he is absent from duty,—must be calculated at the rate at which his Joining Time allowance would have been calculated if he had joined the office to which he is transferred directly.

187. If a member of the Indian Civil Service, on first arrival in India, is unable, from illness, to proceed to the seat of the Government to which he is attached or to any other station to which he is ordered to proceed direct, the Local Government in whose jurisdiction he is, may, on medical certificate, grant him a subsistence allowance of Rs. 250 a month for not more than two months. Time thus spent is not Active Service.

^{*[]} This amendment takes effect from the 11th September 1929.

188. An officer who is not in the Indian Civil Service or in the Army, and who has no substantive appointment, is not entitled to any allowance during Joining Time; but if such an officer officiating in an office is transferred to another office under the same Local Government, the officer who orders the transfer may allow him to draw, during his transit, the allowance to which he would be entitled under the first sentence of Article 185.

Note.—[A Provincial Government may issue general orders applicable to officers of any particular class holding no substantive appointment, permitting them to draw the allowances admissible under the first sentence of Article 185, when transferred from one office under it to another.]

Exceeding Joining Time.

189. An officer who does not join his new appointment within his Joining Time is entitled to no allowances after the end of his Joining Time, and after a week ceases to have a lien on any appointment. But if the authority making the appointment considers that his default was due to circumstances beyond his control, it may exempt him from the loss of his appointment.

Note.—[The expression "allowances" in this Article does not include travelling allowance.]

Ministerial Officers.

190. A ministerial officer transferred to service in another office is entitled to Joining Time under the rules in this Chapter and his service for leave and pension is not interrupted. But unless his transfer has been ordered for the public convenience he is not entitled to any allowances during Joining Time and the Joining Time does not count as service for leave or pension.

NOTE 1.—[A transfer at the officer's request for his own advantage is not a transfer for the public convenience within the meaning of this Article.]

Note 2.—[The procedure laid down in Article 1099 should be followed when an officer is transferred otherwise than for the public convenience.]

SECTION III.—JOINING TIME ON RETURN FROM LONG LEAVE OUT OF INDIA.

- 190A. (a) An officer returning to India, without the permission of the authority which granted him leave, more than fourteen days before the end of his leave, is not entitled to Joining Time, save under the special orders of the Local Government.
- (b) An officer, serving in Persia or Arabia, reckons such Joining Time from the port or frontier town by which he returns to the country. The date of arrival at such port or frontier town must be certified by the British Consul, or, if there be no British Consul, by the officer himself.

(c) An officer either of the Persian or the Persian Gulf Section of the Indo-European Telegraph Department, who returns from leave by an Indian port whether it be Karachi or Bombay, may reckon Joining Time from such port.

190B. During Joining Time granted to an officer returning dong leave out of India he is entitled to allowances as follows :-

(a) If the leave from which the officer returned was (i) furlough other than furlough on average salary or (ii) extraordinary leave granted in extension of furlough for a period not exceeding 14 days, the officer retaining a lien on his substantive appointment, he is entitled to the allowances which he would have drawn for the last day of his furlough had that day been spent on furlough in Asia These allowances are subject to no maximum if the officer is a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Ruels. Otherwise they are subject to the maxima prescribed for allowances during leave spent in Asia. If the furlough was furlough on average salary under Article 316A or 325A, the allowances admissible are as for furlough on half average salarv.

(b) If the leave from which the officer returned was extraordinary leave and the conditions of clause (a) (ii) are not fulfilled, a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules is entitled to subsistence allowance and other officers to no ance.

CHAPTER X-Officers Dismissed, [Removed,] Suspended. or Imprisoned.

Members of the Indian Civil Service and Military Officers.

191. A member of the Indian Civil Service is entitled when under suspension to the subsistence allowance of his rank, and a Military officer in Civil employ to the pay and allowances of his rank.

Other Officers.

192. Saving as provided in Article 193 (b). an officer under suspension is entitled to no salary while he is absent from duty, and the salary of an officer who is dismissed [or removed]1 ceases absolutely from the date of his dismissal [or removal]1; no allowances may be granted for any period occupied in the prosecution of appeals against the order of dismissal [or removal]1.

193. (a) A subsistence allowance, at a rate not exceeding one quarter of his salary, may be granted by the authority suspending him to an officer removed from office pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct: Provided that the subsistence allowance of a European should not commonly be less than Rs. 25 a month; if his salary be less than Rs. 100 a month, the rate may be increased accordingly. An officer of the Marine Department, whose duties are not confined to the shore, will draw, in addition to the subsistence allowance, rations, or, when rations are not issued, compensation in lieu thereof.

(b) When the suspension of a Government servant is held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable; or when a Government servant who has been dismissed '[removed] or suspended is reinstated, the revising or appellate authority may grant to him for the period of his absence from duty-

- (a) if he is honourably acquitted, the full salary to which he would have been entitled if he had not been dismissed, ¹[removed] or suspended and, by an order to be separately recorded, any allowance of which he was in receipt prior to his dismissal, ¹[removal] or suspension; or
- (b) if otherwise, such proportion of such salary and allowances as the revising or appellate authority may prescribe.
- In a case falling under clause (a), the period of absence from duty will be treated as a period spent on duty. In a case falling under clause (b), it will not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the revising or appellate authority so directs.
- (c) No extra cost may ordinarily be imposed on the State by the grant of an allowance under either clause (a) or clause (b) without the permission of the Local Government. In cases however where it does not exceed Rs. 500 and where the period during which the officer has remained unemployed through suspension, [removal]¹ or dismissal does not exceed six months, the excess expenditure may be admitted on the sanction of the authority mentioned in clause (a) or in clause (b) as the case may be.

NOTE.—[The subsistence allowance referred to in clause (a) is authorised as a matter of grace only, and cannot be claimed as of right.]

193A. The preceding Article applies also to officers in temporary employ, but in deciding whether an allowance should be granted to such officers, the period for which the temporary appointment has been sanctioned should be taken into consideration.

Committals to Prison.

194. A servant of Government committed to prison either for debt or on a criminal charge, should be considered as under suspension from the date of his arrest, and not allowed to draw any pay until the termination of the proceedings against him, when an adjustment of his allowances should be made according to the circumstances of the case, the full amount being given only in the event of the officer being acquitted of blame or (if the imprisonment was for debt), of its being proved that the officer's liability arose from circumstances beyond his control.

Leave while under Suspension.

195. Leave of absence for a definite period is not admissible to an officer who has been suspended from duty. If permission to proceed to England is granted in such a case, it should only be for such period as the Secretary of State may determine.

PART III.—LEAVE RULES.

Chapter XI.—General Conditions of Leave.

SECTION L-GENERAL RULES.

- 196. The rules in this Chapter apply to all officers in Civil employ except in as far as they are inconsistent with, or overriden by, the special conditions of leave which obtain in the case of the following classes of officers :-
 - (a) Lieutenant-Governors and Members of Council (see Chapter XXII).
 - (b) Judges of the High Courts (see Chapter XXIII).
 - (c) Barristers and Fleaders holding the appointments specified in Article 547 (see Chapter XXIV).
 - (d) Statutory Civil Servants (see Chapter XXVI).*
 - (e) Ecclesiastical Officers (see Chapter XXVII).
 - (f) Officers subject to the Military Leave Rules (see Chapter XXVIII).
 - (g) Army Veterinary Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department (see Chapter XXIX).
 - (h) Law Officers (see Chapter XXXI).
 - (i) State Railway Establishments (see Chapter XXXII).
 - (i) Bengal Covenanted Pilot Service (see Chapter XXXIII).*
 - (k) Port Blair Police (see Chapter XXXIV).
 - (l) Assam and Dacca Military Police (see Chapter XXXV).
 - (m) Calcutta and Suburban Police Forces (see Chapter XXXVI).
 - (n) Burma Military Police (see Chapter XXXVII).
 - (o) Officers serving under Special Contracts (their contracts).
- 1. An officer appointed under contract for any term of years without prospect of permanent employment is not entitled to leave, other than privilege leave and leave on medical certificate (regarding which see Note below), except in accordance with the terms of his contract.—(See Note under Article 552.)

Note. -[If the health of an officer who is serving under an agreement which does not give a title to leave until the expiry of a fixed period fails during that period, his engagement should be terminated, unless-

- (i) he has exhibited such special ability that it is desirable on public grounds to retain him even at the cost of the difference between a leave allowance and any passage money, etc., due under his agreement; and
- (ii) it is certified that he will in all probability be able to return to duty at or before the end of six months.

In cases in which the engagement is not terminated, leave may be granted for a period not exceeding six months and on allowances not exceeding half-pay.]

Discretion of Government.

197. (a) Leave of absence cannot be claimed as of right. Nothing in these Regulations must be understood to limit the free discretion of the Government to refuse, or revoke, leave of absence of any description, at any time according to the exigencies of the public service.

(b) The Local Government may refuse to grant the full amount of leave applied for in any case, and should, by the exercise of this power, so regulate the date of an officer's return from leave as to cause as little change as possible in administrative arrangements.

Local Governments should not grant leave of any description to an extent which would unduly deplete the strength of a service or department available for active duty. Consequently, when the duty strength has been reduced to a point which, in the opinion of the Local Government, is for the time being an essential minimum, no further leave of any description should be given save in cases of the most absolute necessity, such as sickness or most urgent private affairs, until the strength available for duty has increased. In applying this principle, Local Governments may take into special consideration the case of officers who apply for privilege leave in India, for, as they can be readily recalled if necessary, they stand on a different footing to officers who are out of convenient reach.

- 1. The Local Government may lay down such conditions as it may consider administratively desirable to check any undue frequency of leave in the case of officers holding isolated appointments not filled by members of a regularly organised service.
- 2. When the cadre of a service includes provision for appointments under the Government of India or in another province, the Local Government should take marticular care that the needs of other Governments are properly compiled with.
- (c) This Article gives Local Governments ample powers for regulating leave of every description and in dealing with applications for leave the following instructions should be carefully borne in mind:—
- 1. Extract from Circular in the Home Department, No. 22 (Public) dated 16th M. 1841.—The Secretary of State has now decided that the Civil Furlough Rules as they stand, appear to make sufficient provision against their frequent or general abuse, and that any present formal modification of those rules is therefore unnecessary. Officers at home on medical leave will not be permitted to return to duty without a medical certificate of fitness for duty in India. At the same time, His Lordship expresses his readiness to reconsider the subject should further experience show that more stringent precautions against abuse of the rules are necessary, and is of opinion that the matter might be brought by circular to the notice of Local Governments and heads of departments. It is pointed out that to grant leave our ungent private affairs in consideration of the state of an officer's health is not in accordance with the spirit of the rules. When an officer applies for repeated grants of medical leave within short intervals, the attention of the Medical Board should be drawn to his case with a view to their carefully considering the term of absence necessary for his complete recovery."

2. Home Department No. 513 (Public), dated 16th April 1883.—"Two Military officers having applied for ordinary furlough within a short period after their transfer to employment in the Civil Department,—manely, before they had completed one year's service in that Department,—the Local Government concerned felt itself justified under the terms in clause (a) in refusing to forward the applications unless supported by medical certificate, and reported its proceeding to the Government of India. The Local Government was told that 'the object of the rule contained in clause (a) under which these applications fall to be dealt with its to give Local Governments the fullest power of dealing with applications for leave, subject to the condition that leave may be refused only on public grounds.' The Local Government's action was accordingly approved."

Maximum Leave Admissible.

198. After five years' continuous absence, whether with or without leave, an officer is considered to be out of Government employ.

1. Extract from Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 87, dated 15th March 1883.—"It appears to me that considerable misapprehension exists in India in regard to the meaning of the rule contained in Article 188 of these Regulations which was framed in analogy with the provisions of Statute 35, Geo. III, Cap. 52, s. 70, and which provides that after five years' continuous absence, whether with or without leave, an officer is considered to be out of Government employ. In cases like the present, it seems to be thought that this rule merely indicates the maximum amount of leave which, if not inconvenient to the Government, an officer may not unreasonably expect to have granted to him; whereas the intention of the rule is merely to fix a limit of leave which under no circumstances can be exceeded, and to which it is undesirable that any near approach should be made in any but very exceptional cases."

Nors 1 .- [This Article does not apply to officers transferred to Foreign Service in India.]

NOTE 2.—[The Government of India have the power to relax the rule in this Article in the case of officers who are lent to the Governments of Siam and Iraq.]

Recall from Leave.

- 199. An officer who is recalled to duty before the expiry of leave of any kind, if the return to duty is optional, is entitled to no concession. If the return to duty is compulsory, he is entitled—
 - (a) if the leave from which he is recalled is out of India-
 - (i) to the concessions in Articles 8 (iii) and 1127 subject to the conditions and limitations specified therein; and
 - (ii) to leave allowances during the voyage to India; and for the period from the date of landing in India to the date of joining his appointment, to the joining time allowance which he would have drawn had he not been recalled but simply returned on the termination of his leave:
 - (b) if the leave from which he is recalled is in India-
 - (i) to the concessions in Article 1127 subject to the conditions and limitations specified therein; and
 - (ii) to be treated (if the recall is from leave other than privilege leave) as on duty from the date on which he starts for the station to which he is ordered but he is entitled until he rejoins his appointment to draw leave allowances only.

Note.—[All orders recalling an officer before the expiry of his leave should distinctly state whether the return to duty is optional or compulsory. Orders recalling an officer from leave out of India should be communicated to him officially through the Secretary of State.]

Employment during Leave.

- 200. A Government servant on leave may not take any service or accept any employment without obtaining the previous sanction of—
 - ¹(a) the Secretary of State, if the proposed service or employment lies elsewhere than in Asia;
 - (b) the Governor General in Council, if the proposed service or employment lies in Asia elsewhere than in India; and
 - (c) the Governor General in Council or any lower authority empowered to appoint him, if the proposed service or employment lies in India.

Provided that a Government servant who has been granted permission to take any service, or accept any employment under this rule, during leave preparatory to retirement, shall be precluded, save with the specific consent of the Secretary of State in Council, or the Governor General in Council or any lower authority empowered to appoint him, as the case may be, from withdrawing his request for permission to retire, and from returning to duty.

Note.—This rule does not apply to casual literary work, or to service as an examiner, or similar employment. Nor does it apply to acceptance of foreign service during leave, which is governed by Article 761 of the Regulations.

SECTION II.—SERVICE QUALIFYING FOR LEAVE.

Service out of India.

200A. Time spent on duty in any part of Asia under Articles 85 and 85A counts for leave in the absence of special directions to the contrary. Time spent on duty in any other place out of India is not an interruption of service for leave, but it does not, without the special sanction of the Secretary of State, count as service for leave.

Temporary Service.

201. Temporary and officiating service, if it counts for pension, counts also for leave.

Note.--[The rules providing for the grant of leave to an officer who has a temporary or officiating appointment only are contained in Articles 242 and 320 (b).]

¹ Clauses (a) to (c) in this amended form take effect from the 23rd October 1939.

Probationers and Apprentices.

202. (a) An officer appointed as probationer for a certain period before formal appointment is entitled to the same leave as if he held a substantive appointment.

Officers appointed under contract in England on probation in view to permanent service in India are entitled to leave as follows:—

- (i) Officers appointed for three years or more (see Appendix No 33), the same leave as if they held permanent appointments.
- (ii) Officers appointed for less than three years (see Appendix No. 33), privilege leave and, if necessary, furbugh on medical certificate, not more than six months of such furbugh carrying allowances.

Note 1.—[Officers appointed in England to posts created temporarily but with the prospect more or less definite, of their being eventually made permanent, are entitled to leave under clause (i) of this rule, if they are otherwise qualified.]

None 2.—[Furlough under clause (i) or (ii) shall not be granted for a period extending beyond the term of an officer's contract unless or until it has been decided to retain him in permanent employment.]

Note 3.—[The Government of India have the power to revise Appendix 33 without reference to the Secretary of State.]

- (b) Police probationers and temporary and officiating Assistant Superintendents of Police in all Provinces count their service as follows:—
 - (1) If recruited in England—from the date on which they report their arrival in India.
 - (2) If recruited in India under the orders in the Secretary of State's despatch No. 14, dated the 15th March 1894—from the date of assuming charge of their appointments.
 - (3) If recruited in India before the date of the orders of 1894 mentioned in (2) above—from the date either of attaining the age of 20 years or of assuming charge of their appointments, whichever is later, provided that the service has been continuous.

(c) The service of-

- Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Magistrate-Collectors and Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam,
- (2) Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Collectors in the United Provinces,
- (3) Probationary, officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Punjab and Assam, and
- (4) Officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Central Provinces.

counts for leave from the date on which all the three following conditions are fulfilled, namely,

- (a) two years' continuous probationary or officiating service as such has been rendered,
- (b) departmental examinations have been fully passed, and
- (c) the age of twenty years has been attained.

Note 1.—[The above conditions do not apply to Deputy Collectors and Sub-Deputy Collectors who began service in the Settlement Department on a temporary footing and were promoted to be probationary or officiating Deputy Collectors or Sub-Deputy Collectors in the provincial and subordinate civil services. Such officers are allowed to count for leave the whole of their continuous service from the date of their first appointment in the Settlement Department.]

Note 2.—[Condition (b) does not apply to Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal and Bihar and Orissa, who were appointed before the 4th July 1892 and exempted from the operation of the rules for Departmental Examinations laid down in Resolution No. 5111-A of the Government of Bengal, dated the 4th July 1892.]

Norm 3.—[Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal and Bihar and Orissa who were appointed before the 4th July 1892, and were brought under the operation of the rules for Departmental Examinations laid down in Resolution No. 3111-A of the Government of Bengal, dated the 4th July 1892, shall be held to have passed their Departmental Examinations at a date calculated by taking the period of time between the 4th July 1892 and the actual date of passing the examinations as the time taken to pass after first appointment as an officiating Sub-Deputy Collector.]

203. (a) Service as an Apprentice does not qualify except in the following cases:—

Engineer or Examiner Apprentices, Qualified students of the Thomason College under practical training; Department.

Assistant Superintendent Apprentices in the Indian Telegraph Department.

(b) Apprentice Overseers in the Public Works or Railway Department and Apprentice Permanent-way Inspectors on State Railways may be allowed leave on medical certificate on half pay subject, in the case of Military Apprentices, to the proviso that the leave allowance shall not be less than Military pay and allowances. An apprentice of either class counts his service as such for leave if on the termination of his apprenticeship he is appointed to the department.

Officers under Training.

203A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer who is selected to undergo a course of training, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for leave; and also whether or not such time shall be regarded as an interruption entailing forfeiture of leave already earned.

NOTE 1.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments in respect of officers serving under them.]

NOTE 2.—[A Local Government may issue general orders under this Article in regard to any specified class of officers under training.]

Service under other Rules.

- 204. An officer transferred to an office to which these rules apply is not entitled to Long Leave under them in respect of service rendered in an office to which they do not apply. But service in the Army which under Article 356 counts towards Civil pension qualifies also for leave under Civil rules. Any leave taken by an officer during such service will in the calculation of future leave be treated as if it had been taken under these Regulations.
- [1] Nore 1.—[A Government servant paid from Military Estimates who is temporartly transferred to service paid for from Civil Estimates (including service in a tenure post) remains subject to the Rules which would be applicable to him but for his temporary transfer.]

Norz 2.—[A Government servant paid from Civil Estimates and subject to the leave rules in the Fundamental Rules who is permanently transferred to service paid from Defence Services Estimates becomes subject to the leave rules in the Regulations as if they had applied to him ab initio. In calculating the leave due to him under these Regulations, the following procedure should be adopted:—

- (1) The leave on average pay up to four months which corresponds with privilege leave under these Regulations should be treated as privilege leave; the period of leave on average pay taken in excess of privilege leave which would have been admissible under these Regulations should be treated as furlough on average salary although the conditions for its grant may not have been fulfilled.
- (2) Leave on half average pay enjoyed under the Fundamental Rules should be treated as furlough under these Regulations. This leave will not be treated as an interruption of duty for the purpose of Article 246.
- (3) Any leave already enjoyed in excess of the leave which would have been due under these Regulations should be ignored.

Service before Discharge, Resignation, or Dismissal.

- 205. (a) An officer who is discharged on reduction of establishment from, or resigns, the public service and is re-employed after an interval, cannot, without the permission of the authority sanctioning the re-employment, count his former service towards leave.
- (b) An officer who is dismissed or removed from the public service and who is reinstated on appeal, cannot count his former service towards leave unless the authority who, on revision or appeal, reverses the order of dismissal or removal, declares that his former qualifying service shall count.

Private Secretary.

206. Service as Private Secretary to the Governor-General, a Governor or a Lieutenant-Governor qualifies for leave, provided that the officer (before his appointment as Private Secretary) belonged to the Civil Service (whether the Indian Civil Service or not), or to the Indian Army, or to any of the Indian Establishments of the British Army.

^[1] Introduced with effect from the 4th February 1930.

207. After a continuous service of three years, a Private Secretary whose case is not provided for by the preceding Article, may be granted Leave on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year with a leave allowance equal to half his salary, and subject to a maximum of £1,000 a year.

Press Servants.

208. A Section-writer, or a Press servant, paid under the piece-work system, if granted leave, is not entitled to any allowance whatever during his absence.

Workmen of the R. I. N. Dockyard Bombay.

208A. Permanent workmen of the Royal Indian Navy Dockyard, Bombay, holding appointments, the status of which was brought into line with effect from the 1st January 1933, with that of posts held by permanent civilian officers in superior service, are eligible from that date for leave as admissible to the latter under these Regulations, subject to the condition that no substitute is engaged in place of workmen on leave except in rare cases and at the discretion of the Flag Officer Commanding, Royal Indian Navy.

Rule of Proportions.

209. The leave allowances of an officer not subject to the Foreign Service Rules (Part VII) who has served in any appointment the salary of which has been derived either wholly or in part otherwise than from Indian Revenues, is charged according to the Rule of Proportions.

SECTION III.—RETENTION OF APPOINTMENT.

Lien on Appointment.

- 210. An officer on Privilege leave has a lien on his substantive appointment; he has also a lien on his officiating appointment, so long as it is not resumed by an officer having a superior lien on it.
- 211. Except as provided in Article 212, an officer on furlough under the European Service Leave Rules or the Indian Service Leave Rules has a lien on his substantive appointment or on a substantive appointment of a like character and not less pay. He has no lien on an acting appointment.
- 212. A member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules has no lien on any appointment during any period of furlough during which he is entitled to draw subsistence allowance only.
- 213. An officer, during joining time on return from long leave out of India, has or has not a lien on an appointment according as he has or has not such a lien on the last day of the leave immediately preceding the joining time.

- 214. An officer on leave may not surrender his lien on his substantive appointment, and, except as provided in Articles 89 and 90, a Local Government may not fill up substantially, even for a time, the appointment on which an officer has a lien, without transferring him to another substantive appointment which, save in cases of misbehaviour or inefficiency, must be one of not less pay than his standing in the regular line would justify.
- 215. Except as provided in Articles 202 (a) and 320 (b), an officer cannot obtain furlough unless he has a substantive appointment.

Note 1.-[A Military officer who has officiated continuously in the Civil Department for at least 3 years is an officer with a substantive appointment for the purposes of this rule.]

Note 2.—[A Military officer holding the appointment of Commandant or Adjutant of the Burma or Assam Police Battalions retains a lien on his appointment while on furlough under the Military Leave Rules to which he is subject.]

Compulsory Retirement.

- 216. If a Local Government decides, before an officer whom it has the power to remove from the service leaves India, that he shall not be permitted to return to duty in India, it should give notice to him before he leaves India, so that any remonstrance which he may wish to make may be considered on the spot by an authority fully cognizant of the facts of the case. Such notice should not be postponed until after the officer's departure, and then communicated to him through the Secretary of State.
- 217. If when an officer is going on leave out of India it is necessary to consider the propriety of removing him for incapacity, whether mental or physical, which is of such a nature that it is not possible to say before his departure from India, whether it will be permanent or temporary, or if for any reason it is considered inexpedient that an officer who is on leave should return to India, the Local Government should report the circumstances fully (in the case of the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal direct; otherwise through the Government of India) to the Secretary of State. A communication of this nature should not be made direct to the officer concerned. The report should be made in time to enable the Secretary of State to take any necessary measures before the officer would in ordinary course be permitted to return to duty, and in any case should reach the India Office at latest three months before the end of the officer's leave.
- 218. Articles 216 and 217 must not be understood to authorise the grant of Furlough to an officer who ought to be dismissed or removed from the service for misconduct or general incapacity.

Abolition of Appointment.

219. The abolition of the appointment of an officer absent on leave out of India should be immediately communicated to the Secretary of State.

SECTION IV.—COMMENCEMENT AND END OF LEAVE.

- 220. Ordinarily leave begins on the day on which transfer of charge is effected, or, if charge is transferred after noon, on the following day; similarly leave other than long leave out of India ordinarily ends on the day preceding that on which charge is resumed, or, if charge is resumed after noon, on that day. But if a Sunday or one or more gazetted holidays fall on a day immediately preceding that on which the leave begins, or on the day on which the leave or the joining time between two appointments ends, an officer may leave his station at the close of the day before, or return to it at the end of, such holidays, provided his departure or return does not involve—
 - (i) the immediate transfer of an officer from or to another station or the loss of his appointment by an officer appointed temporarily to the service.
 - (ii) the taking over of money, unless, subject to the condition that the departing officer remains responsible for the money in his charge, the Local Government specially allows transfer of charge to take place before or after the holidays.

If holidays are as above prefixed to leave, the leave and consequent rearrangement of allowances, if any, take effect from the first day after the holidays on which the office is opened for business, and if holidays are affixed to leave or joining time, the leave or joining time is treated as having terminated on, and the arrangement of allowances, if any, takes effect from the day on which the officer would have resumed charge had holidays not followed the leave or joining time.

In cases in which the application of the above rules as to prefixing and affixing holidays to leave is doubtful or inequitable, the Local Government shall decide which officer shall be held to have been in charge and to which the salary of the office for the Sunday or holiday shall be paid.

221. Long leave out of India ends on, and includes, the day before the arrival at the port where the officer last quits it of the vessel in which he returns, and joining time begins the day after.

Note.—[The day of arrival of the vessel in which the officer returns is the day on which the vessel reaches her moorings or anchorage in port.]

221A. Special rules have been laid down in Appendix 6A for reckoning leave in the case of officers stationed in certain remote districts outside India.

222. An officer taking Furlough out of India, whether by itself or in combination with Privilege leave, must report his embarkation through the Audit Officer, to the Local Government (or other authority) which granted his leave, and his arrival in England to the Secretary of State.

SECTION V.-RETURN TO DUTY.

Note.—[With the exception of Article 231, this Section applies to Military officers in Civil employ subject to the Military Leave Rules.]

Permission to Return.

223. (a) An officer may not, without the permission of the authority which granted him leave, return to duty more than fourteen days before the end of Long Leave.

(b) Officers returning to India at times other than those fixed for them by their own Government, are liable to be kept on subsistence allowance until a suitable vacancy occurs to which to post them.

224. An officer on Long Leave in Europe, North Africa, America, or the West Indies must, if the leave was granted or has been extended on account of ill-health, whether it be technically leave on medical certificate or not, satisfy the Medical Board at the India Office as to his fitness to return to duty. Ordinarily he must attend at the India Office for examination by the Board, but, in special cases, particularly if he be residing at a distance of more than sixty miles from London, a certificate in a form to be obtained from the India Office from two medical practitioners may be accepted. On the required evidence of fitness being furnished, the officer will receive from the India Office permission to return to India. An officer whose leave was not granted, and has not been extended, on medical grounds, does not require permission from the India Office to return to India. He must, however, take steps, either personally or through his agents, to obtain from the India Office a last-pay certificate, and should also inform the authority in India who granted him the leave, of the date on which he expects to return to duty, at least a month before he is due to arrive in India.

Nome.—[An officer who has taken leave on medical certificate, or whose leave has been extended on medical certificate, should ordinarily appear before the Medical Board at the India Office or should furnish a certificate from two medical practitioners at least two months before the expiry of his leave. An officer who fails to do so, and who is not permitted to return to India within the period of his leave will ordinarily be charged with the cost of the telegram which will be sent to the authorities in India informing them of the extension of leave granted.]

225. (1) An officer who has taken leave in Asia on medical certificate may not return to duty until he has produced a medical certificate of fitness in the following form:—

We the members of a Medical Committee
Civil Surgeon of

I,

registered medical practitioner of do hereby certify that we/I have carefully examined A. B. C. of thedepartment, and find that he has recovered from his illness and is now fit to resume duties in Government Service. We/I also certify that before arriving at this decision we/I have examined the original medical certificate(s) and statement(s) of the case (or certified copies thereof) on which leave was granted or extended, and have taken these into consideration in arriving at our/my decision."

- (2) The original medical certificate(s) and statement(s) of the case on which the leave was originally granted or extended shall be produced before the authority asked to issue the above certificate. For this purpose the original certificate(s) and statement(s) of the case should be prepared in duplicate, one copy being retained by the officer concerned.
- (3) If the officer is gazetted, the medical certificate should be obtained :— $\,$
 - (i) where the total leave is for not more than three months, or where the total leave is for more than three months and the Medical Committee granting the original certificate or the certificate for extension of leave state at the time of granting of such certificate that the officer need not appear before any Medical Committee for obtaining a certificate of fitness,—from a Commissioned Medical Officer or a Medical Officer in charge of a civil station and
 - (ii) in all other cases—from a Medical Committee.

If the officer is not gazetted, the competent authority may, in its discretion, accept a cerificate of fitness signed by any registered medical practitioner or require a certificate signed by such medical officer as the authority may direct.

- (4) An officer who has taken leave in Asia on account of ill health but not on medical certificate, or elsewhere than in Asia, Europe, Noth Africa, America or the West Indies on account of ill health, whether on medical certificate or not may be required by the authority who granted the leave to produce, before he is permitted to return to duty, a medical certificate of fitness signed by such medical officer as the authority may direct.
- 226. An officer is not entitled, at the end of Long Leave, to resume, as a matter of course, without further orders, the particular appointment which he vacated before his leave. He should report his return to duty as prescribed in Article 228 and await orders.

Change of Appointment.

227. If the appointment of an officer is changed during Long Leave in India, he must join his new appointment within his leave. But if he have not had sufficient notice of the change, the Local Government may allow him joining time. During such joining time his allowances will be the same as for joining time on return from furlough out of India.

Report of Return.

228. A gazetted officer must report his return to duty to the Local Government under which he is employed. A member of the Indian Civil Service on the Bengal Establishment employed directly under the Government of India, returning from Long Leave, must also report his return to the Government of India in the Home Department.

Overstaying Leave.

229. An officer who remains absent after the end of his leave is entitled to no allowance for the period of such absence, and ceases to have a lien on any appointment,-

(i) if his leave was Furlough without Medical Certificate,-immediately, and

(ii) if it was Furlough on Medical Certificate or Vacation or Privilege Leave,—after a week. In the case of officers to whom exception (ii) under Article 251 applies, the week commences from the end of the fifteen days mentioned

Note 1.—[This Article does not affect the liability of an officer overstaying leave to forfeit past service under the rule in Article 420 (b).]

NOTE 2.- [Short extensions of leave may be granted retrospectively in India to officers who under certain specified circumstances overstay their leave. 299 (c).]

230. If the Local Government is satisfied that the default of an officer is due to circumstances beyond his control, it may exempt him from loss of appointment under the preceding Article, but not from loss of allowances during the period of his absence without leave. The Local Government may authorise the payment to an officer subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules of as much as it thinks fit of any joining time allowances to which he would have been entitled under Article 190B if he had not remained absent after the end of his furlough.

NOTE .- [The Local Government may delegate the power exercised by it under the first sentence of this Article to any subordinate authority in respect of officers to whom such authority is empowered to grant leave.]

231. So long as an officer retains a lien under Section III, or if he is exempted under the preceding Article from loss of appointment, absence after the end of his leave, though not counting as Continuous Service. does not operate as an interruption of Continuous Service or Continuous Active Service.

SECTION VI.—COMBINATION AND EXTENSION OF LEAVE.

- 232. The authority which has the power to sanction leave may-
 - (I) grant to an officer any kind of leave admissible under these Regulations (including extraordinary leave without allowances) in combination with any other kind of leave so admissible:

- (2) grant to an officer any kind of leave admissible under these Regulations in continuation of leave of any other kind already taken;
- (3) commute the whole or any portion of any leave granted under these Regulations retrospectively into any other kind of leave which was admissible when the original leave was granted; and
- (4) commute retrospectively periods of absence without leave into leave without allowances (see Article 421).
- Extraordinary leave without allowances cannot be converted retrospectively into furlough on medical certificate but furlough may be given on medical certificate in continuation of extraordinary leave without allowances.
- 2. Leave granted to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules may be retrospectively commuted by the authority which granted it to any other kind of leave which the said authority would have been competent to allow when the original leave was sanctioned. When the privilege leave of such an officer is on medical certificate retrospectively changed for furlough out of India, so much of the leave passed before the departure of the vessel in which the officer sails may be treated as subsidiary leave under clause (1) of Article 321 (a) as it stood prior to 29th July 1920 as might have been granted as subsidiary leave if the officer had originally obtained furlough and not privilege leave, notwithstanding that a portion of such retrospective furlough has been passed in India.
- 233. (a) Except when furlough is extended on medical certificate or extraordinary leave is granted in continuation of other leave, the total leave enjoyed by an officer at one time shall not exceed two years. *[This period shall in no circumstances be exceeded by an officer who is on furlough preparatory to retirement].
- (b) The total period for which Military Officers in Civil employ who are subject to the Military Leave Rules may be absent from duty is regulated by the rules in Army Regulations and not by this Article.

Note.-[Extensions of furlough, see Article 299.]

SECTION VII.—LEAVE AFTER COMPLETION OF TERM OF SERVICE.

- 234. (a) The limitations affecting members of the Indian Civil Service, whose term of service is complete, are prescribed in Article 555, and those affecting Military Officers in Article 620.
- (b) In the case of other officers the Local Government may grant on the attainment of 55 years of age such leave as is necessary for the purpose of breaking up establishments and proceeding to the port of embarkation or frontier town by which he quits the country; or in exceptional cases, when leave has been deferred in the public interest, may in its discretion grant leave extending to not more than 6 months beyond an officer's fifty-fifth birthday; or may grant leave for not more than six months in all to an officer who is being retained in the service after the age of 55 years. The leave granted must be of a kind which is due and not in excess of the amount at credit.

Save as above stated, all leave expires on the date of attaining 55 years and no fresh leave may be granted.

1. In the case of an officer of the Persian or Persian Gulf Section of the Indo-European Telegraph Department, who proceeds via an Indian port, the words "port of embarkation" in clause (b) of this Article shall be read as meaning the Indian port.

235—240. Cancelled.

Chapter XII.—Short Leave.

SECTION I .- EXTENT OF APPLICATION.

- 241. The rules in this Chapter regulate the Short Leave of all officers in Civil employ (whatever may be the rules to which they are subject in regard to other leave) except:—
 - (a) The Governor-General, Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Members of Council (see Chapter XXII).
 - (b) Judges of High Courts (see Chapter XXIII).
 - (c) Barristers holding the appointments referred to in Chapter XXIV except as stated in that Chapter.
 - (d) Ecclesiastical officers appointed before 29th July 1906. But Articles 279 and 280 do apply (see Chapter XXVII).
 - (e) Law officers, except as stated in Chapter XXXI.
 - (f) State Railway Establishments, except as stated in Chapter XXXII.
 - (g) Port Blair Police (see Chapter XXXIV).
 - (h) Calcutta and Suburban Police Forces (see Chapter XXXVI).

Officers in charge of medical store depots remain subject to the leave rules, civil or military, under which they were serving at the time of their transfer to the Medical Store Department.

Temporary and Non-Continuous Service.

- 242. (a) An officer who has a temporary or officiating appointment only may be allowed Privilege leave, without losing his lien on such appointment, if no substitute is required, or if his duties can be provided for without additional expense.
- (b) If such an officer is, without interruption of his service, appointed to a permanent office, his temporary or officiating service may be treated as duty qualifying for Privilege leave.

Note.—[This rule does not apply to the State Railway officers whose service is classed under clauses (o) and (d) of Article 659.]

243. Frivilege leave is not allowed to an officer employed in an establishment the duties of which are not continuous, but are restricted to certain fixed periods in each year. (See also Article 369.)

Petty Military Officers.

244. Privilege leave may be granted under this Chapter to a Military Hospital Assistant temporarily lent to the Civil Department. A Hospital Assistant is not entitled to Privilege leave in respect of duty done in the Military Department.

Seamen.

245. An officer or seaman attached to a Pilot vessel at the Sandheads may, in addition to the Privilege leave admissible under this Chapter, be allowed one month's leave on shore, beginning on the date of his arrival at Calcutta, after four months' continuous duty at the Sandheads.

SECTION II.—PRIVILEGE LEAVE—ORDINARY RULES.

Amount earned.

- 246. The amount of Privilege leave earned by an officer is one-eleventh part of the time during which he has been on duty without interruption: Provided that no Privilege leave can be earned by an officer by duty performed while four months' such leave is due to him, and that, whenever duty is interrupted, all claim to Privilege leave earned theretofore is forfeited. Absence on Privilege leave, though not counting as duty, is not an interruption of duty within the meaning of this Article.
- 247. The calculation must be made as follows:—One calendar month for every eleven complete calendar months of duty, and one day for every eleven days of the balance.

Qualifying Service.

- 248. When an officer is first appointed to the public service, duty qualifying for Privilege leave does not begin until he takes charge of his office.
 - 249. Cancelled.
- 250. (a) In calculating the Privilege leave of a Military officer no distinction should be made between an officer who has a substantive Civil appointment and one who is merely officiating in the Civil Department.

CHAP. XII

(b) The leave is earned by uninterrupted duty in either the Civil or the Military Department. But a Military officer who has taken in any calendar year the whole or a portion of the Privilege leave admissible to him for that year, under Military Rules, does not begin to count service for Privilege leave in the Civil Department until the first day of the following year.

Limit.

251. The amount of Privilege leave admissible at one time is limited to four calendar months.

Exception.—Officers stationed in the Andamans and Nicobars or Nepal; officers stationed in Persia at places such as Ahwaz and Kermanshah, and in the Persian Gulf or at Maskat and Baghdad, Gyantse or in Chumbi; Indian officers and men of the Assam Rifles stationed at Kohima, Aijal and Imphal; and European officers in Burma who take Privilege leave by taelf and spend it out of Burma or India, are allowed, on each occasion when they may wish to take Privilege leave, the option between the following two courses, namely—

(i) to accumulate Privilege leave up to four months and fifteen days;

(ii) to overstay any Privilege leave due by fitteen days without forfeiting pay or appointment: Provided that, in the case of such overstay, the officer shall not begin to count service towards future Privilege leave until he shall have served a period of time proportionate to the amount of overstay,—that is, eleven times the period of overstay.

Amount due.

252. The Privilege leave due to an officer is the privilege leave which he has earned since the last interruption of duty, less the period during which he has been absent on Privilege leave.

Interruptions of Duty.

253. If an officer remains absent after the end of Privilege leave, his duty is interrupted within the meaning of Article 246. But if the Local Government considers that his default was due to circumstances beyond his control, it may remit the penalty.

Norm.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to any subordinate authority in respect of officers to whom such authority is empowered to grant leave.]

254. If an officer remains absent after the end of Examination leave, or of Joining Time, the period of absence cannot count as duty qualifying for Privilege leave, and, unless the absence is accounted for to the satisfaction of the Local Government it is an interruption of duty.

Note.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to any subordinate authority in respect of officers to whom such authority is empowered to grant leave.]

255. (a) Leave under Articles 279 and 280 may, if the examination for which it is granted be successfully passed, and if the officer has not already had twelve months' leave under that Article, count as duty qualifying for Privilege leave.

- (b) Leave under Article 281 may also count as duty qualifying for Privilege leave if the examination for which it is granted is successfully passed.
 - (c) Examination leave does not interrupt duty.
- 256. Hospital leave under Articles 287, 288, 288A and 291 and leave on medical certificate under Articles 661 and 663 are not interruptions of duty.
- 257. Suspension from office as a penalty for misconduct is an interruption of duty.
- 258. Suspension from office pending enquiry into an officer's conduct interrupts duty or not as may be decided in each case by the authority having power to pass final orders in the case. Time passed under suspension does not qualify for Privilege leave, unless, in any case, such authority expressly orders that it shall so qualify.
- 259. "Leave in India" under Rule 1 of the Leave Rules for the-Indian Army is an interruption of duty.

Condition of Grant.

260. Subject to the exigencies of the public service, an officer may be granted the whole or any part of the Privilege leave due to him.

¹ 260A. Privilege leave may be granted under this Chapter to an officer in inferior service so far as it can be done without imposing any cost upon the State. The absentee allowance of the substantive incumbent must not exceed what remains from his pay after provision is madefor the efficient discharge of his duties during his absence except when, in the resultant acting arrangements, an officer who has no substantive appointment is given more than half the pay of the appointment in which he acts, in which case the excess over half pay granted to himmay, at the discretion of the local Government, be disregarded altogether in calculating the sum available for the leave allowance of the absence and the acting allowances paid in consequence of his absence.

Nora.—[The local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Headsof Offices and Departments.]

Leave Allowances.

261. Except as provided in Articles 266, 271 and 275, an officer on-Privilege leave is entitled to a leave allowance equal to the salary whichhe would receive if he were on duty in the appointment on which he has a lien, and he is entitled to this allowance even though anotherofficer be appointed to act for him.

Note 1.—[The term salary in this Article includes a duty allowance attached to the appointment on which the officer has a lien.]

Note 2.—[An officer on Privilege leave may draw a deputation (duty) allowance-provided that he would have continued to draw the allowance had he not proceeded:

262. Cancelled.

- 263. An officer who has no hen on an appointment is entitled, during Privilege leave,—
 - (i) in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules—to Subsistence allowance;
 - (ii) in the case of any other Civil officer—to no allowance.

Exception.—Officers of the Indian Medical Service who have rendered not less than 3 years' officiating service but have not yet been cinfirmed in a civil appointment may draw, during Privilege leave, when they have no lien on any appointment, the allowances that would be admissible under the military leave rules.

264. Cancelled.

265. If an officer, on transfer from one appointment to another, obtains Frivilege leave without joining his new office, his leave allowance shall not be less than it would have been if he had joined his new office before taking leave, provided that the rate of pay attached to the new appointment is not different from and higher than the rate of pay attached to the old appointment. Where, however, the transfer involves an increase in the officer's duties or responsibilities, and is to an office on a different and higher rate of pay from that drawn by the officer in the old office, the officer shall not draw the higher rate of salary until he actually joins his new office.

Example.—The rate of pay drawn by a Collector and by an Accountant General is different from and higher than the rate of pay drawn by a Joint Magistrate or by an officer in Class I of the Indian Finance Department respectively.

266. An officer who holds an appointment of the kind specified in Article 76-B sanctioned for not more than six months is not entitled, during Privilege leave, to the special rate of pay of, or any special allowance attached to, the appointment.

- 267. (1) A local allowance attached to an appointment may not be drawn by an officer on Privilege leave unless he has a lien on the appointment, and
- (2) A deputation (local) allowance drawn by an officer before going on Privilege leave may not be drawn by him during the leave unless he would have continued to draw it had he not proceeded on leave and unless it is intended that he should return to the special temporary duty at the end of the leave.
- 268. Provided that the conditions laid down in Article 267 are fulfilled,—
 - (a) The house rent attached to his appointment may be drawn by an officer on Privilege leave if he places his house at the disposal of the officer, if any, who officiates for him. The officiating officer cannot in such cases draw the house rent attached to the appointment. But if the officiating officer for a reason which the Local Government considers sufficient refuses the accommodation placed at his disposal, the allowance is to be drawn by him and not by the absentee.

Exception.—This rule does not apply to the Calcutta, Bombay and Rangoon House-Rent Schemes, which are governed by special rules.

- (b) A local allowance given on account of the expensiveness of the locality or duty may be drawn by an officer on Privilege leave if the officer continues to incur the expenditure tomeet which the allowance was sanctioned. The fact that the expenditure continues during Privilege leave should becertified in writing by the officer himself if he is a gazetted officer, by the head of the office in the case of a nongazetted officer and by the immediate superior in the caseof a non-gazetted officer who is himself the head of an office.
- (c) Any other local allowance may be drawn by an officer on Privilege leave under rules framed by the Local Government.

Nors 1.—[The local allowances known as Burma. Assam and Baluchistan allowances and the local allowances drawn by certain Executive and Assistant Engineers in Sind, the Punjab and the North-West Frontier Province, may continue to bedrawn by officers on Privilege leave, provided that the grant of leave does not necessitate the transfer within the limits of the Province of an officer from outside the Province. No certificate of title to Privilege leave, except the leave "in case of urgent necessity" under Article 271, can be given for the period of service rendered between two vacations, until the second vacation expires. If, however, the conditions required by this Article or by Article 273 to render an officer eligible for Privilege leave under the ordinary rules are subsequently fulfilled in respect of the second vacation, any Privilege leave which may have been granted on half salary under Article 271, in consequence of the presumption that the officer would avail himself of the vacation, may be commuted into Privilege leave on full salary. been referred to by him and has no objection to the extension or com-

If on medical grounds the officer desires an extension for more than 14 days, he must satisfy the Medical Board at the India Office of the necessity for the extension. If application for extension be delayed until the last two months of leave, advice of any extension granted for a period of more than seven days will be sent to India by telegraph and the cost of the telegram will ordinarily be charged to the officer.

If the officer has been granted furlough on medical certificate and desires an extension on grounds other than medical, he must satisfy the Medical Board as prescribed in Article 224 that he has recovered his health. Any such extension without medical certificate will only be admissible if the extension was due at the time the original furlough was granted.

(c) The authority in India, by which the leave was originally granted, is empowered, in any case in which it is satisfied that the non-return of an officer within the period of his leave was due to circumstances beyond his control and of such a nature that an application to the Secretary of State for an extension was impossible before embarkation, or that non-return was for administrative convenience, to sanction retrospectively extension of furlough or leave up to a maximum period of 14 days. It is also empowered in the case of an officer returning from furlough on medical certificate to sanction an extension, if the circumstances seem to require it, up to a maximum of 14 days inclusive of any short extension that may have been granted by the Secretary of State.

Note 1.—(Extensions of furlough up to a maximum of 14 days granted under this clause are not limited by the provisions of Article 235, and may be granted whether the furlough be due or not and in excess of the six months admissible under Article 302.)

An officer who has enjoyed furlough under this Article may not again be granted a furlough on the same condition until the furlough earned by him after his return to duty exceeds so much of the furlough granted under this Article as was not 'due'.
- 303. If in the interests of the public service all applications for furlough cannot be complied with, the Local Government will have full discretion in deciding which should be granted, and in so doing it may take into consideration the following circumstances:—

 - (2) The furlough due to the various competing applicants.
 - (3) The amount and character of the previous continuous active service that they have rendered.

 - (5) The fact that an officer has been refused leave in the public interests.
- 304. (a) On medical certificate furlough may be extended to a total period not exceeding three years.

- (b) Otherwise than on medical certificate furlough may be extended to a total period not exceeding two years, provided that—
 - (i) when furlough is combined with other leave, the total period of leave granted shall not exceed two years, and
 - (ii) the furlough granted under Article 302, which is 'not due', shall not exceed six months.
- 1305. Notwithstanding anything in Articles 301, 302, 303 and 304, furlough which is not "due", whether on medical certificate or otherwise shall not be granted to an officer on furlough preparatory to retirement. In cases where an officer who has been granted, under the foregoing articles, furlough which is not due, applies for permission to retire voluntarily, the furlough which is not due shall, if permission be granted, be cancelled, and his retirement shall have effect from the date on which such furlough commenced.

SECTION IV .- EXTRAORDINARY AND CASUAL LEAVE.

- 306. (a) Subject always to the provisions of any Statute applicable to the case, the authority competent to grant leave may, in special circumstances and when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible, grant leave of absence from duty otherwise than under these Regulations: provided that:—
 - (i) an officer absent from duty on leave so granted shall receive no absentee allowance; and
 - (ii) if he is a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, he shall retain no lien upon any office except when the extraordinary leave does not exceed a fortnight.
- (b) No officer is entitled to extraordinary leave, but subject to the provisions of Article 198, there is no limit to the length or frequency of leave under this Article.
- 1. The Local Government may for special reasons dispense with the ordinary condition that extraordinary leave can be granted only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible.
- 307. A Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, who has exhausted the full period of furlough admissible to him under these Regulations and who is granted extraordinary leave on medical certificate, will continue to be treated as wholly in the Civil employ for all purposes, with the exception that, if the Medical Board at the India Office report that there is no prospect of the officer returning to duty within a reasonable period, he will be placed on Military half-pay. If an officer thus placed on half-pay is afterwards permitted to revert to the effective list and returns to duty in India, he will not be entitled to be reinstated in Civil employment, but will be posted to Civil or Military duty as may be decided in India.

308. Articles 306 and 307 do not refer to casual leave for short periods. Such leave is not recognised and is not subject to any rule. Technically, therefore, an officer on casual leave is not treated as absent from duty, and his salary is not intermitted. Casual leave, however, must not be given so as to cause evasion of the rules regarding—

(i)	Date of reckoning allowances	see Articles 52—55
(ii)	Charge of office
(iii)	Commencement and end of leave	see Articles 220—231
(iv)	Return to duty

or so as to extend the term of Privilege or other leave beyond the time admissible by rule.

SECTION V.—QUARANTINE LEAVE.

309. Quarantine leave is leave of absence from duty necessitated by orders not to attend office in consequence of the presence of infectious diseases in the family or household of a Government servant or detention in plague camps on the way to rejoin duty. Such leave may be granted by the head of the office on the certificate of a Medical or Public Health Officer for a period not exceeding 21 days, or, in exceptional circumstances, 30 days. Any leave necessary for quarantine purposes in excess of this period shall be treated as ordinary leave. Quarantine leave may also be granted when necessary in continuation of other leave, subject to the above maximum. Except in the cases mentioned in the Note below, no substitute should be appointed in place of a Government servant absent on quarantine leave. A Government servant on quarantine leave is not treated as absent from duty and his pay is not intermitted.

Note.—[The Government of India or the Local Government may sanction a substitute for an absentee who is on quarantine leave and whose duties cannot be arranged for without prejudica to his pay; provided the absence does not exceed 30 days and the pay or salary of the absentee is not more than Rs. 100 a month.]

SECTION II.-FURLOUGH.

312. The total amount of furlough admissible (a) to a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules is six years and six months, and (b) to any other officer to whom these rules apply (see Article 310) is six years. All the rules in this part of the Regulations are subject to this limitation.

Note,—[The following leave under rules is counted as furlough under this Article:—

- Furlough and special leave with allowances taken under the rules in force prior to 29th July 1920.
- (2) In the case of a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, leave in and out of India with pay under the Leave Rules for the Indian Army, 1886.
- (3) In the case of an officer who becomes entitled to the rules contained in this Chapter after being subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules—all leave counting towards the maximum in Article 322.
- 313. The amount of furlough 'earned' by an officer subject to the rules in this Chapter is one-fourth of the active service rendered by him while subject to such rules.
- 314. An officer, who becomes entitled to the rules in this Chapter after being subject to other Leave Rules, may add to furlough earned under Article 313 an amount of furlough in respect of his previous service calculated as shown below. Any minus result of the calculation may be neglected, while, in the case of an officer other than a Military Officer subject to Civil Leave Rules, the maximum permissible addition is two years—

- 1(i) The service for furlough of a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules who, before coming under the rules in this Chapter, was subject to the Leave Rules for the Indian Army or the British Army, shall be calculated in accordance with Article 313 retrospectively from the date of his arrival in India or from the date of his coming under the Indian Army Leave Rules or the British Army Leave Rules, whichever is later, except that service rendered out of India under the British Army Leave Rules shall not be taken into account for the purpose, i.e., he shall be credited with furlough equivalent to one-fourth of his active service, as defined in Article 8 less any period of service rendered outside India under the British Army Leave Rules, reduced by any leave with pay in or out of India actually taken. The provisions of this clause apply to Royal Engineers in Civil employ who, while serving under British Army Leave Rules, either (a) have elected for continuous service in India, whether the election was made before or after their entry into Civil employment, or (b) have completed five years' Indian service and elect to come under Civil Leave Bules.
- An officer of the Royal Engineers who has not elected for continuous service in India remains under British Army Leave Rules till he completes 5 years' Indian service.

Note.—[When a Military Officer becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules, the Acount Officer in charge of his record of pension service will, on application and on being furnished with the date of commencement of active service, furnish to the Audit Officer to whose audit he becomes subject, a memorandum showing the furlough earned, the different kinds of leave taken (distinguishing those which should be deducted from the maximum furlough admissible) and the balance of furlough due under Military Rules.]

- (ii) An officer who, after being subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules, becomes entitled to the rules contained in this Chapter, shall be credited with furlough equivalent to one-sixth of his active service rendered under the former rules less any leave actually taken under such rules which counts as furlough under Article 322.
- Note 1.—[An officer who comes under the rules in this Chapter while he is on leave under the Indian Service Leave Rules may at his option—
 - (a) change his leave allowances to the amount admissible under the European Service Leave Rules and come under them immediately, or
 - (b) postpone his coming under them until his return from leave.]

¹ This amended first sentence of clause (i) of this Article has effect from 12th July 1932.

NOTE 2.—[If an efficer who was at first subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules became prior to 29th July 1920 entitled to the European Service Leave Rules, or if an officer elects under Note 1 to Article 320 to remain under the old Indian Service Leave Rules and subsequently becomes entitled to the Leave Rules in this Chapter, the amount of furlough due to him in respect of his service under the Indian Service Leave Rules shall be calculated under Article 305 as it stood prior to 29th July 1920.]

315. The amount of furlough 'due' to an officer is the amount he has 'earned' diminished by the furlough and special leave with allowances taken under the rules in force prior to 29th July 1920 and by the furlough taken under these rules.

NOTE.—[In calculating the amount of furlough 'due' to a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, special leave taken under the rules in force prior to 29th July 1920 and furlough which was not 'due' granted under Article 302 may be disregarded subject to a maximum of six months in all.]

316. Whether such furlough be 'due' or 'not due,' an officer is entitled during the first two years of each separate period of furlough to a leave allowance equal to half his average salary, subject to the following limits:—

- (a) In the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service-
 - (i) if the leave is spent out of Asia, maximum £111 a month and minimum £55½ a month, or the salary last drawn by him on duty, whichever is less;
 - (ii) if the leave is spent in Asia, maximum Rs. 1,111 a month and minimum Rs. 555 a month, or the salary last drawn by him on duty, whichever is less.
- (b) In the case of a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, the same maxima and minima as in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service: Provided that, during furlough added under Article 314 (i) to the furlough earned under Civil Rules, the minimum shall (in the case of an officer who became subject to the Civil Leave Rules on or after the 1st April 1888) be that prescribed by the Military Rules to which an officer was subject immediately before coming under the Civil Leave Rules, and that in the case of an officer of the Royal Engineers, whose case is also governed by Article 314 (i), the minimum shall be the rate prescribed by the Leave Rules for the Indian Army, according to the length of his service for Indian pension. In the case, however, of an officer of the Royal Engineers, who was serving under British Army Leave Rules immediately before he became subject to the rules in this Chapter, the minimum for so much of the furlough credited under Article 314 (i) as has been earned by service in civil employment shall be at the rate of (1) £554 a month if the leave is spent out of Asia and Rs. 555 a month if the leave is spent in Asia-if he elected for continuous service in India before the 1st February 1898, (2) £55½ a month if the leave is spent out of Asia and Rs. 5555 a month if the leave is spent in Asia or the salary last drawn by him on duty, whichever is less-if he elects to come under the Civil Leave Rules after completing five years' Indian service.

NOTE.—[A Military Officer in Civil employ, who is granted furlough on medical certificate in excess of the amount earned by him both under the Civil and Military rules, may be allowed the Civil minimum rate of leave allowance for the period of leave enjoyed in excess of the amount so earned; but such officer must exhaust all leave that he has so earned before he can be eligible for this concession.]

- (c) In the case of any other officer subject to these rules—
 - (i) if the leave is spent out of Asia, maximum £100 a month; no minimum, except as provided in Article 319;
 - (ii) if the leave is spent in Asia, maximum Rs. 1,000 a month; no minimum, except as provided in Article 319.

Provided always that the allowances of an officer during leave shall in no case exceed his actual salary when he takes leave.

316A. An officer on furlough may be granted by the authority sanctioning the furlough a leave allowance equal to his full average salary, subject to the following conditions:-

(a) Average salary will be granted during furlough for a total period not exceeding I year in an officer's whole service.

NOTE .- [See also Article 348-I(6).]

(b) When an officer has taken furlough on average salary, he will be treated as having taken furlough on half average salary for twice the period actually taken on average salary except for purposes of Articles 2[234 (b) and] 408.

aNone .- [See also Article 348-I(6).]

(c) The maximum period of furlough on average salary in each separate period of leave is 8 months.

3(d) The period during which an officer may draw during furlough average salary in lieu of the allowances ordinarily admissible should be so regulated that at the termination of the period he will still have not less than six months' furlough due to him; but this condition, except in the case of furlough taken on medical certificate, may be relaxed at its discretion by the authority granting the furlough. In the case of furlough taken on medical certificate the grant of furlough on average salary is subject to the further condition that its grant shall not operate to curtail

- (e) The officer's average salary, if paid at the Home treasury of the Government of India or in a Colony where the standard of currency is gold, will be converted into sterling at the same rate of exchange as ordinary furlough allowances (vide Article 868). The average salary is subject to the following maximum limits:—
 - (i) In the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, £222 a month if the leave is spent out of Asia and Rs. 2,222 a month if the leave is spent in Asia.
 - (ii) In the case of any other officer subject to these rules, £200 a month if the leave is spent out of Asia and Rs. 2,000 a month if the leave is spent in Asia.
- (f) Privilege leave to the extent due may be prefixed to furlough on average salary, subject to a maximum of 8 months for the two kinds of leave combined on each occasion of such combination.

Note.—[The maximum limit prescribed in this clause is applicable in cases falling under Article 278, in which furlough on average salary is taken in combination with vacation or vacation and Privilege leave.]

- (g) Furlough on half average salary may be granted in continuation of furlough on average salary or of combined Privilege leave and furlough on average salary.
- 317. After the expiry of the first two years of each separate period of furlough an officer on furlough is entitled—
 - (i) if a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, to subsistence allowance;
 - (ii) if an officer not in the Indian Civil Service or the Army, to £60 a month if the leave is spent out of Asia and Rs. 600 a month if the leave is spent in Asia, or to one-quarter of his average salary, whichever is less. In the case provided for in Article 319, quarter average salary is subject to the minima prescribed in that Article.

Note.—[In the case of officers drawing their leave allowances in India, one Government of India, in exceptional circumstances, may grant leave allowances under Article 316, and not under this Article, for any leave taken which is due under Article 315, even though it be in excess of two years.]

318. Whenever an officer whose appointment is not gazetted takes leave for not more than one month, or whenever such an officer's salary is less than Rs. 300, his pay (not salary) when he gives up office is to be treated as his average salary for the purposes of Articles 316, 316A and 317.

NOTE.—[For the purpose of this Article duty and deputation (duty) allowances are deemed to be included in pay and salary.]

319. The leave allowances of the officers referred to in Articles 316 (c) and 317 (ii) are subject to the following minima:—

321. Leave may, however, be granted under this Chapter to an officer in inferior service so far as it can be done without imposing any cost upon the State. The absentee allowance of the substantive incumbent must not exceed what remains from his 1 ay after provision is made for the efficient discharge of his duties during his absence except when, in the resultant acting arrangements, an officer who has no substantive appointment is given more than half the pay of the appointment in which he acts, in which case the excess over half pay granted to him may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be disregarded altogether in calculating the sum available for the leave allowance of the absence and the acting allowances paid in consequence of his absence.

1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Offices and Departments.

SECTION II.-FURLOUGH.

322. The total amount of furlough admissible to an officer to whom these rules apply is five years. All the rules in this part of the Regulations are subject to this limitation.

1 CHAPTER XIV-A-SPECIAL DISABILITY LEAVE.

348I. (1) Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified the Government of India or a Provincial Government may grant special disability leave to a Government servant who is disabled by injury intentionally inflicted or caused in, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position.

(2) Such leave shall not be granted unless the disability manifested itself within three months of the occurrence to which it is attributed, and the person disabled acted with due promptitude in bringing it to notice. But the Government of India, if they are satisfied as to the cause of the disability, may permit leave to be granted in cases where the disability manifested itself more than three months after the occurrence of its cause.

(3) The period of leave granted shall be such as is certified by a medical board to be necessary. It shall not be extended except on the certificate of a medical board, and shall in no case exceed 24 months.

(4) Such leave may be combined with leave of any other kind.

- (5) Such leave may be granted more than once if the disability is aggravated or reproduced in similar circumstances at a later date, but not more than 24 months of such leave shall be granted in consequence of any one disability.
- (6) Special disability leave will count as service for pension or as 'active service' under Articles 549 (b), 561 and 573 of these Regulations, but it will not count as service for leave. It will not be regarded as interrupting service for leave under the ordinary rules, nor as diminishing the amount of such leave at the Government servant's credit, nor as part of the maximum leave admissible to him, except that leave on average salary taken under clause 7 (b) will be reckoned as furlough on half average salary against the total amount of furlough prescribed in Articles 312 and 322 and as furlough on average salary against the total period of such furlough prescribed in Articles 316-A (a) and 325-A.
- (7) Leave allowances during such leave shall, subject to the maxima and minima prescribed in Articles 316, 316-A, 319, 325-A, 326 and 327, be equal—
 - (a) for the first four months of any period of such leave, including a period of such leave granted under clause (5) of this Article to average salary, and
 - (b) for the remaining period of any such leave to half average salary, or at the Government servant's option, for a period not exceeding the amount of furlough on average salary either by itself or in combination with privilege leave which would otherwise be admissible to him, to average salary.
- (8) In the case of a person to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, applies, the amount of leave allowance payable under this Article shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable under section 4 (I) (d) of the said Act.
- (9) The provisions of this Article apply to a civil servant disabled in consequence of service with a military force, if he is discharged as unfit for further military service, but is not completely and permanently indapacitated for further civil service, and to a civil servant not so discharged who suffers a disability which is certified by a medical board to be directly attributable to his service with a military force; but in either case any period of leave granted to such a person under military rules in respect of that disability shall be reckoned as leave granted under this Article for the purpose of calculating the period admissible.
- 348II. The Government of India may extend the application of the provisions of Article 348-I to a Government servant who is disabled by injury accidentally incurred in, or in consequence of the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position, or by illness incurred in the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of increasing his liability to illness or injury beyond the ordinary risk attaching to the civil post which he holds. The grant of this concession is subject to the further conditions—

- (i) that the disability, if due to disease, must be certified by a medical board to be directly due to the performance of the particular duty; and
- (ii) that, if the Government servant has contracted such disability during service otherwise than with a military force, it must be, in the opinion of the Government of India, so exceptional in character or in the circumstances of its occurrence as to justify such unusual treatment as the grant of this form of leave; and
- (iii) that the period of absence recommended by the medical board may be covered in part by leave under this Article and in part by other leave, and that the amount of special disability leave granted on average salary may be less than four months.
- 348III. (1) A Government servant who has been granted special disability leave under Article 348-I, and whose domicile is elsewhere than in Asia, may be granted by the authority which sanctioned the special disability leave, free passage by sea for himself, his wife, and children, to the United Kingdom, or to any port in Europe or in a British colony, dominion, or possession, and on the conclusion of such leave return passage to India, unless he takes leave other than leave on medical certificate in continuation of special disability leave, in which case return passage shall not be granted save with the special sanction of the Secretary of State in Council: Provided that the cost of any passages granted under this Article shall not exceed the cost of passages between India and the United Kingdom.
- (2) Passages granted under this Article may include travel by land between port of embarkation and port of debarkation, and shall be of such class as the sanctioning authority in each case may determine.
- (3) The Government of India may extend the application of the provisions of clauses (1) and (2) to a Government servant who has been granted special disability leave under Article 348-II, and whose domicile is elsewhere than in Asia, provided that they may, at their discretion, grant free passages to the Government servant only, or to the Government servant and his wife only.

348III]

- (4) For the purpose of this Article-
 - (i) the domicile of a Government servant is his domicile at the time of his appointment to Government service, as determined in accordance with the provisions of clause (2) (a) of Artice 310 and of Article 310-A;
 - (ii) 'child' means a legitimate child (including a step-child) residing with and wholly dependent on the Government servant, who, if a female, is unmarried, or, if a male, is under the age of 16.

(2) The Government of India may include in the list in clause (1) any gazetted services or appointments the duties of which are so important that they cannot be ragarded as subordinate.

Norm.—[An officer who does not hold substantively one of the appointments mentioned above, but who, by rendering officiating service counting as effective service in one of the appointments included in the schedule appended to Article 475A, becomes eligible for an additional pension, is entitled to the benefits of this Article, provided, in the case of officers who were in service on 29th August 1919, they have definitely elected the rules referred to in the preamble of the Article.]

349B. Notwithstanding anything contained in Article 394A, the rules in this Part, subject to the exception noted below, do not apply to officers of the Indian Railway Service of Engineers, or the Provincial Engineering Service, State Railways, who joined their appointments on or after the 17th September 1925.

Exception.—(a) The undermentioned officers who joined their appointments in the Indian Railway Service of Engineers after the 17th September 1925 are subject to the rules in this Part to the same extent as other officers appointed to the Service before that date:—

(i) Mr. R. C. Harvey.

(ii)* Mr. Q. F. Rahman.

(b) Officers in pensionable service who were or may be promoted to the Indian Railway Service of Engineers or the Provincial Engineering Service, State Railways, on or after the 17th September 1925 retain their pensionary privileges after promotion.

- 350. The pensions of all other officers are regulated by the rules in this Part: Provided that it is open to a Local Government to rule that the service of any class of officers serving under it does not qualify for pension.
 - 1. Service in Dak Bungalow and District Garden Establishments does not qualify.
- 2. The service of a Patwari, whether appointed before or after the abolition of the Patwari or Village Officers' Cesses and Funds, does not qualify in any case in which it did not qualify prior to that abolition.

^{*} Inserted by the Governor-General in Council,

351. Future good conduct is an implied condition of every grant of a pension. The Local Government, the Government of India, and the Secretary of State in Council reserve to themselves the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, if the pensioner be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of grave misconduct.

The decision of the Secretary of State in Council on any question of withholding or withdrawing the whole or any part of a pension under this Regulation shall be final and conclusive.

Note.—[This rule is applicable to all the officers enumerated in Article 349 except Judges of the High Courts, Bishops, Army Veterinary Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department and members of the Civil Service appointed before 16th January 1994.]

*351-A. The Governor General in Council reserves to himself the right to order the recovery from the pension of an officer who entered service on or after 23rd February 1939 of any amount on account of losses found in judicial or departmental proceedings to have been caused to Government by the negligence or fraud of such officer during his service:

Provided that—such departmental proceedings, if not instituted while the officer was on duty,—

(i) shall not be instituted save with sanction of the Governor

General in Council;

(ii) shall be instituted before the officer's retirement from service or within a year from the date on which he was last on duty whichever is later;
 (iii) shall be in respect of an event which took place not more than one year before the date on which the officer was last on duty; and

- (iv) shall be conducted by such authority and in such places whether in India or elsewhere, as the Governor General in Council may direct;
- (2) all such departmental proceedings shall be conducted, if the officer concerned so requests in accordance with the procedure applicable to departmental proceedings on which an order of dismissal from service may be made; and
- (3) such judicial proceedings, if not instituted while the officer was on duty, shall have been instituted in accordance with subclauses (ii) and (iii) of clause (1).

SECTION II.—CASES IN WHICH CLAIMS ARE INADMISSIBLE

- 352. In the following cases no claim to pension is admitted:
 - (a) When an officer is appointed for a limited time only, or for a specified duty, on the completion of which he is to be discharged.

^{*} Made by the Governor General in Council and applies to officers who entered service on or after 23rd February 1939.

- (b) When a person is employed temporarily on monthly wages without specified limit of time or duty; but a month's notice of discharge should be given to such a person, and his wages must be paid for any period by which such notice falls short of a month.
- (c) When a person's whole time is not retained for the public service, but he is merely paid for work done for the State.

This clause applies, among others, to the following officers:—Advocate General's Solicitor to Government, Government Pleaders and Law Officers not debarred from private practice, Sheriffs in Presidency towns, Coroners, Roman Catholic Priests.

- (d) When a public servant holds some other pensionable office, he earns no pension in respect of an office of the kind mentioned in clause (c) or in respect of duties paid for by a Local Allowance.
- (e) When an officer serves under a covenant which contains no stipulation regarding pension, unless the Government of India specially authorises an officer to count such service towards pension.

Norz.—[Secretary of State's Despatch No. 255, dated 26th July 1877.—"I have-considered in Council your Financial letter, dated the 4th June last, No. 155, regarding the insertion, in contracts with mechanics and others engaged in England for service in India, of a clause stipulating that their service under covenant shall, if the Government of India think fit to re-engage them, count as service towards leave and pension unider (ordinary) rules.

"Your Government are of opinion that the arrangement should apply to all suchperson engaged under covenant or contract in England for the public service in-India under all circumstances, and for all Departments, and you express a desirethat the covenants should be carefully worded, so as to preserve inviolate the indefeasible right of the Government to modify either Leave or Pension Rules from time to time, at their discretion, so that no claims may arise to the benefits of either Code of Rules as it stood at the date when any particular covenant was executed.

"Governments with mechanics and others engaged for service in India will accordingly in future be prepared containing provisions to the effect recommended by your Government."]

Misconduct or Inefficiency.

353. No pension may be granted to an officer dismissed or removed for misconduct, insolvency or inefficiency; but to officers so dismissed or removed compassionate allowances may be granted when they are deserving of special consideration; provided that the allowance granted to any offices shall not exceed two-thirds of the pension which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on medical certificate.

² Provided further that no allowance shall be granted to an officer under the rule-making control of the Secretary of State for India in Council without his sanction.

Norm.—Cancelled [with effect from the 18th June 1935].

Unfitness for Further Advancement.

353A. When an officer, belonging to one of the following services, who is proved to be unfit for further advancement, is removed from service by the Secretary of State on the recommendation of the Local Government and the Government of India, he may, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, be granted a pension not usually exceeding, and not necessarily so great as, that which would have been admissible to the officer if he had been invalided on medical certificate. In making their recommendations in such cases, the Government of India and the Local Government will be guided by the circumstances of each case and are not debarred from proposing, if the circumstances justify it, a pension lower or (in exceptional cases) higher in amount than that which would be admissible to the officer if he was invalided on medical certificate:—

(a) The Indian Civil Service

(b) The Indian Political Department.

(c) The Indian Finance Department (General List, including the Public Works List).

(d) The Indian Police.

(e) The Imperial Customs Service.

(f) The Post Office of India and the Indian Telegraph Department.

(g) The Geological Survey of India.

(h) The Engineer establishment of the Indian Public Works and State Railway Departments.

Note 1,—[In the case of the military officers belonging to the Indian Political Department the pension recommended will be based on the amount of retiring pension which an officer might have earned at the time under the Army Regulations.]

Norm 2.—[In the case of officers belonging to a class which is neither wholly nor partly recruited by the Secretary of State, the removing authority will be the Government of India.]

NOTE 3.—[In the case of Royal Engineer officers of the Public Works and State Railway Departments the enforcement of the rule will take the form of requiring the officers to vacute their civil appointments and revert to military duty.]

Claims of Widow.

354. (a) It being the duty of every Government officer himself to provide for his family, the Government recognises no claim by a widow on account of the services of her husband, and is almost invariably under the painful necessity of rejecting recommendations made in contravention of this rule.

(b) The submission of such recommendations, save under very extraordinary circumstances, is disapproved, as calculated only to give rise to hopes which cannot be fulfilled.

Nors 1.—(In a Despatch No. 36, dated 17th November 1841, regarding the establishment of the Bengal Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund, the Court of Directors observed:—'In referring to the causes which may have operated to keep back subscribers, the Directors advert to a reliance supposed to be placed on the special exercise of our bounty in favour of the families of decessed servants. Whether or not such reliance have any effect in discouraging subscriptions to the Fund, it is most important to the interest of the families of our Uncovenanted Servants that it should not be indulged. In our Despatch, dated the 16th October 1839, No. 31, we called your attention to the fact that the rules restricted the grant of pension to the family, or any member of the family, of a decessed servant, to case where the servant shall have been killed in the exercise of his public duty, or shall have died in consequence of wounds or accidents sustained therein, except in special cases justifying extraordinary indulgence, and which are of very rare occurrence. The belief, therefore, that the fact of the person dying in our service gives his family a claim to pensionary provision (if such belief exist), is a delusion which may be productive of very painful consequences, and which, for this reason, we fet it an imperative duty to endeavour to dispel. We observe that the Committee of the Fund have taken some pains to make our views on the point generally known; and in thus acting, they have contributed not only to promote the interest of the Fund, but to render valuable service to their brethren by disabusing their minds of a dangerous error."]

Nore 2.—[In a Despatch No. 52, dated 8th February 1870, the Secretary of Stateremarked that "grave objections exist to the grant of special pensions to the families of Uncovenanted Servants, every such grant forming a precedent which is quoted in support of subsequent applications, with less claims to consideration."]

Limitations.

- 355. (a) An officer cannot earn two pensions in the same office at the same time, or by the same continuous service.
- (b) Two officers may not simultaneously count service in respect of the same office.

Military Service.

- 356. (a) Service rendered by an employee belonging to one of the classes mentioned in Note 2 below, after attaining the age of 20 years, which is pensionable under military rules but which terminates before a pension has been earned in respect of it, may, at the discretion of the Government of India or of the Provincial and Minor Local Governments specified in Parts I and II of Appendix I to these Regulations, be allowed to count, when followed by service qualifying for pension under civil rules, as part of such service, provided that any bonus or gratuity received in lieu of pension on, or since, discharge from military service shall be refunded in such number of monthly instalments, not normally exceeding 36 and beginning from such date, as in each case the Government of India, Provincial Government or Minor Local Government, as the case may be, may decide. - (b) Service pensionable under military rules which does not terminate before a pension has been earned in respect of it shall not be allowed to count for pension under civil rules without the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council.

Note 1.—[An officer, ex-soldier or ex-airman will not be brought under the operation of this Article as a matter of course. Each case will be decided on its merits, e.g., there may be cases in which it may be open to a claimant for pension to add military service during the Great War to former non-pensionable service in the Army in order to claim the benefit of a military pension. In such cases it may be to the advantage of the claimant that he should not be brought under the operation of this Article. The bearing of paragraph 574 of the Pay and Allowance Regulations of the Army in India, Part II, on the position of soldiers of the Indian Army who re-entered during the Great War, deserves consideration in this connection.

Note 2 .- [This Article applies to Indian commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Indian Army, 1(and of the Frontier Constabulary and Militias) and to non-combatant departmental and regimental employees and followers of the supplemental services. Norm 4—[Employees in the Military Police have the option of counting service under any other rules in these Regulations which would give them a similar or more liberal concession. l

Note 5.- Employees who were in service in an appointment pensionable under civil rules on the 22nd February 1921 are eligible to count service under the rules which were in force before that date, where these rules are more advantageous to them.]

* Nore 6.-[A person permanently appointed to the Civil Police force or to a post in the Jails Department of an administration subordinate to the Governor General in Council who before such appointment has served in the reserve of the Indian Army, may, if his military service, whether or not including service with the colours in addition to service in the reserve, was pensionable under military rules but terminated before he had qualified for pension, be permitted, at the discretion of the head of the administration, and subject to the provisions contained in this Article to count for civil pension the whole of his service with the colours, if any, and half his service in the reserve. 7

Doubtful cases should be referred to the Government of India who enjoy full powers in the matter.

357-A. but any Government servant who may be entitled to theconcessions admissible under the latter Articles and to theconcession in this Article, will be allowed to select whichever is more favourable.

Chapter XVI.—Conditions of Qualifying Service.

SECTION I.—DEFINITION OF QUALIFYING SERVICE.

Beginning of Service.

358. (a) Except for Compensation gratuity, an officer's service does not in the case of Superior service qualify till he has completed twenty years of age.

(b) In other cases, unless it be otherwise provided by special rule or contract, the service of every officer begins when he takes charge of the office to which he is first appointed.

Nome.—[In every covenant with an officer appointed in England by the Secretary of State not being a member of the Indian Civil Service (or Indian Police)! or a Civil Engineer or Telegraph Officer educated at the Royal Engineering College, Coopers Hills 1(or a Forest Officer), a clause is inserted to the effect that service for leave and pension begins only from the date on which the officer joins his first appointment in India 1(In the case of an officer of the Indian Forest Service appointed in England by the Secretary of State service for pension begins from the date from which he draws pay).]

359. The following exceptions are admitted to the twenty years' rule :-

(1) All officers appointed in England by the Secretary of State; "Indian College Engineers" [see Article 627 (d)]; and Police probationers appointed in India under the orders contained in the Despatch of the Secretary of State, No. 14 (Judicial), dated 15th March 1894.

(2) Signallers in the Indian and Indo-European Telegraph Department may count towards pension service rendered by them after they attain the age of eighteen years.

(3) Sub-assistant surgeons count service from the date they pass their final examination.

Norz.—[Pupils of the Civil Hospital Assistant class in Medical Colleges, who are granted leave under Article 52 (c), count service from the date on which the leave begins.]

360. In the case of Inferior service, service counts after the age of sixteen years.

Conditions of Qualification.

361. The service of an officer does not qualify for pension unless it conforms to the following three conditions:—

First.—The service must be under Government.

Second.—The employment must be substantive and permanent. Third.—The service must be paid by Government.

Third.—The service must be paid by Government.

These three conditions are fully explained in the following Section.

361A. The Government of India may, however, in the case of service paid from General Revenues, even though either or both of conditions (1) and (2) are not fulfilled,—

(1) declare that any specified kind of service rendered in a non-gazetted capacity shall qualify for pension;

I The words in brackets occurring in the Note to Art. 358 (b) have been inserted by the Secretary of State; and the words 'or a Forest officer' occurring in this Note have been deleted by the same authority.

(2) in individual cases, and subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose in each case, allow service rendered by an officer to count for pension.

Subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, the Government of India may delegate its powers under this Article to Provincial Governments, Minor Local Governments and Heads of Departments.

Norm.—[(a) Provincial Governments exercise the powers of the Government of India under clauses (1) and (2) of this Article in respect to officers serving under the fit the pension does not exceed fifty rupees a month. In individual cases where the pension exceeds fifty rupees a month, they may allow half the actual non-qualifying service paid from General Revenues to count for pension subject to a maximum of twelve months in all.

(b) Minor Local Governments exercise the powers of the Government of India under clause (2) of this Article in respect of officers serving under them if the pension does not exceed ten rupees a month.]

SECTION II.—FIRST CONDITION.

- 362. The service of an officer does not qualify unless he is appointed and his duties and pay are regulated by the Government, or under conditions determined by the Government. The following are examples of officers excluded from pension by this Article:—
 - (1) A Marine Officer paid by fees fixed by the Board of Trade:
 - (2) Officers of a Municipality;
 - (3) Officers of Grant-in-aid Schools and Institutions (e.g., the Asiatic Society and Canning College at Lucknow);
 - (4) Subordinates appointed by Treasurers on their own responsibility, e.g., Tahvildars in the Province of Agra and in the Central Provinces; and Potdars (money-testers) in Bengal.
- 363. As an exception to the preceding Article, the services of Sub-ordinates of Treasurers in the Punjab, including Tahvildars and Potadars (money-testers), who were in employ on the 23rd August 1886, qualify, provided that they were—
 - (i) appointed by District Officers;
 - (ii) discharging duties and receiving pay regulated under conditions laid down by Government; and
 - (iii) other than mere servants of Treasurers liable to be removed whenever a change might take place in the incumbency of the office of a Treasurer.
- 364. The service of a Native Accountant appointed to a Silladar Regiment in the Bombay Presidency on or after the 6th February 1875 does not qualify.

Service paid from Contract Allowances.

365. Service on an establishment paid from a Contract Establishment allowance, with the detailed distribution of which the Government does not interfere, does not qualify, whether such contract allowance is a fixed amount or consists of fees.

Norm.—[The maximum Establishment allowance for Registration offices in Bengal is not a Contract allowance within the meaning of this Article.]

366. Service on an establishment paid from the Household allowance of the Vicerov, or of a Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor does not qualify.

1. If an officer has served partly (in a capacity which would have given him claim to pension if the service had been paid from the General Revenues) on the Household establishment of the Viceroy, and partly on establishments paid from the General Revenues, he is entitled from the General Revenues to a share of any pension to which he would have been entitled if his whole service had been paid from the General Revenues, proportionate to the length of the service which has been so paid.

Example.—4 B, a Messenger on pay of Rs. 8 a month, has served altogether thirty-two years, of which sixteen years were passed on the Household establishment of the Viceroy. If A. B's whole service had been paid from the General Revenues, he would have been entitled under the rules for Inferior service to a maximum pension of Rs. 4 a month. A B will receive from the General Revenues a maximum pension of Rs. 2 a month.

2. The Governor of Bombay is authorised to grant pensions and gratuities at his discretion to the domestic servants in the Government House establishment retiring from the service, or to the families of such domestic servants after their decease, provided that the amount of such pensions and gratuities paid in any one year ending 31st March shall not exceed Rs. 1,320.

Service under an Employer other than Government.

367. In the following cases service under an employer to whose position Government has succeeded qualifies:-

- (a) Service rendered to an Indian State, and continued to the British Government on the lapse or annexation of the State, when old age or infirmity renders the officer a fit object for pension.
- (b) Service in the establishment employed in the Khelat territory for the assessment and collection of water-rate on lands watered by the Sind Canal which was paid in part by the Khan of Khelat prior to the levy of a local cess to meet the charge.

SECTION III.—SECOND CONDITION.

General Principles.

368. Service does not qualify unless the officer holds a substantive office on a permanent establishment.

- 369. An establishment, the duties of which are not continuous, but a temporary establishment. Service in such an establishment, including the period during which the establishment is not employed, qualifies; but the concession of counting as service the period during which the establishment is not employed, qualifies; but the concession of counting as service the period during which the establishment is not employed does not apply to an officer who was not on actual duty when the establishment was discharged, after completion of its work, or to an officer who was not on actual duty on the first day on which the establishment was again re-employed.
- 370. An officer transferred from a temporary to a permanent appointment can count his service in the temporary office, if, though at first created experimentally or temporarily, it eventually becomes permanent.
- 371. An officer without a substantive appointment officiating in an office which is vacant, or the permanent incumbent of which does not draw any part of the pay or count service, may, if he is confirmed without interruption in his service, count his officiating service.

Apprentices and Probationers.

372. Service as an apprentice does not qualify, except in the following cases:—

Engineer or Examiner Apprentices.

Qualified students of the Thomason College under practical training who passed out prior to the ear 1924.

Unthe Public Works and Railway Departments.

Assistant Superintendent Apprentices in the Indian Telegraph Department.

- 373. The service of a probationer who holds a substantive office and draws substantive pay qualifies. So does that of an officer who is on probation for a substantive office, if he is employed in a vacancy reserved for him pending probation, and in which no other officer simultaneously counts service.
- 374. Police probationers and temporary and officiating Assistant Superintendents of Police in all Provinces count their service as follows:—
 - *(1) If recruited in England—from the date from which they draw pay.
 - (2) If recruited in India under the orders in Secretary of State's despatch No. 14, dated the 15th March 1894—from the date of assuming charge of their appointments.
 - (3) If recruited in India before the date of the orders of 1894 mentioned in (2) above—from the date either of attaining the age of 20 years or of assuming charge of their appointments, whichever is later, provided that the service has been continuous.

375. The service of:

 Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Magistrate-Collectors and Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam.

^{*} Applies to officers under the rule-making control of the Secretary of State.

- (2) Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Collectors in the United Provinces.
- (3) Probationary, officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Punjab and Assam, and
- (4) Officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Central Provinces.

counts for pension from the date on which all the three following conditions are fulfilled, namely :-

- (a) Two years' continuous probationary or officiating service as such has been rendered;
- (b) Departmental examinations have been fully passed; and
- (c) The age of twenty years has been attained.

NOTE 1 .- [The above conditions do not apply to Deputy Collectors and Sub-Deputy Collectors who began service in the Settlement Department on a temporary footing and were promoted to be probationary or officiating Deputy Collectors or Sub-Deputy Collectors in the provincial and subordinate civil services. Such officers are allowed to count the whole of their continuous service for pension from the date of their first appointment in the Settlement Department.]

Note 2.- Condition (b) does not apply to Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal and Bihar and Orissa who were appointed before the 4th July 1892, and exempted from the operation of the rules for Departmental Examinations laid down in Resolution No. 5111-A of the Government of Bengal, dated the 4th July 1892.

Note 3 .- [Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal and Bihar and Orissa who were appointed before the 4th July 1892, and were brought under the operation of the rules for Departmental Examinations laid down in Resolution No. 3111-A of the Government of Bengal, dated the 4th July 1992, shall be held to have passed their Departmental Examinations at a date calculated by taking the period of time between the 4th July 1892 and the actual date of passing the examinations as the time taken to pass after first appointment as an officiating Sub-Deputy Collector.]

Permanent Officer deputed.

376. An officer on a permanent establishment detached on temporary duty, on the understanding that, when the temporary duty ceases, he will return to the permanent establishment, counts his detached service.

377. The preceding Article permits the temporary suspension of the second condition of qualifying service which forms the subject of this Section; it does not authorise any relaxation of the first condition (Section II), or the third condition (Section IV), and, in particular, must not be understood to countenance any modification of the rules in Part VII, which apply to an officer on Foreign Service.

378. Service as Private Secretary to the Governor-General, a Governor or a Lieutenant-Governor, qualifies, provided that the officer belonged, before his appointment as Private Secretary, to the Civil Service of Government, whether the Indian Civil Service or not.

Substantive Office abolished.

379. If the substantive office of an officer is abolished within the meaning of Article 426, but the officer is, at the time, on special duty, or is, on abolition of his office, deputed on special duty, his service on special duty qualifies, but the duty must be special; mere employment, in continuation of permanent employment, in a temporary appointment which happens at the time to be vacant, does not qualify.

 The service of an officer of the Marine Service continues to qualify when, upon the abolition of his appointment, he is retained on subsistence allowance or in an acting appointment.

Pie ce-work.

- 380. A Press servant, who is paid for piece-work, is treated as having held a substantive office. if—
 - (i) he is employed, not casually, but as a member of a fixed establishment; and
 - (ii) during the last seventy-two months of his actual employment he has been attached to one office uninterruptedly for twenty-four months, or it has not been through his own choice or misconduct that he has not been so attached.

Surveys and Settlements.

381. (a) The service of an officer not merely temporarily engaged in the undermentioned Settlement and Survey Departments which are (or were) on a quasi-permanent footing qualifies:—

The Settlement Departments in Madras, Burma, the Punjab and the Central Provinces and Berax. The Revenue Survey Departments in Bengal, Madras and Bombay. The establishments of the Inam Commissioners of Madras and Bombay. The Alienation Settlement Department in Bombay. The Malabar Escheat Establishment, Madras.

- (b) Except in the regular Departments and to the extent above specified, Settlement and Survey service does not count unless it is followed, without interruption, by qualifying Service. Settlement Service followed, without interruption, by pensionable service paid from a Patwari Fund also qualifies.
- (c) Service as measurers employed in the record-of-rights work in Berar counts when such service is followed, without interruption, by qualifying service.

NOTE 1.—[From the dates mentioned, the following posts have been declared to be on a quasi-permanent footing:—

(a) In a Settlement Office in the United Provinces from 1st October 1899— Head and Second Clerk.

Sadr Munsarim.

Settlement Officer's Reader.

Nazir and Record-keeper.

- (b) In the Settlement Establishment in Baluchistan from 1st September 1904-
 - Superintendent (pay Rs. 150), 1 Deputy Superintendent (pay Rs. 90), 1

 Rs. 40), 1 Nazir (pay Rs. 30), 1 Sarishtadar to Settlement Superintendent (pay Rs. 40), 1 Nazir to Settlement Superintendent (pay

Service in these posts qualifies from the dates mentioned or from any previous date from which the incumbents on 1st October 1899 or 1st September 1904 (as the case may be) may have been serving substantively and without interruption in one or other of them.]

Note 2.—[Continuous service as Inspector, Surveyor, Holding Marker, Draughtsman, Computor and Clerk belonging to Special and Revision Survey parties in Burma qualifies.

382. Deputy Collectors and similar gazetted officers, when not especially employed for temporary work, are not affected by the preceding article, as they count service independently of the particular department to which they happen for the time to be attached.

Exception.

383. A Medical Officer in charge of a Government vessel may count his service afloat, if he is transferred, without interruption of his service, to the Civil Medical Service.

384. Officers transferred from the Extra or Contingent List of the Customs Preventive Service in Burna or in Calcutta count their service on that list, provided the Collector declares that the transfer is made on the ground of good service rendered.

SECTION IV.—THIRD CONDITION.

Sources of Remuneration.

(a) Paid from the General Revenues.

(c) Paid from Funds in respect to which the Government holds the position of Trustee.

The fact that arrangements are made for the recovery, on the part of the Government, of the whole, or part, of the cost of an establishment or officer, does not affect the operation of this principle: Provided that the establishment or officer is appointed, controlled, and paid by the Government.

Note.—[In making arrangements for the recovery of cost of establishments, it should not be forgotten that Government has to bear not only the immediate cost, but also that of leave allowances and pensions .- (See Article 783.)]

- Examples.—(a) The Shipping Master and Deputy Shipping Master, and their establishments at Bombay and Deputy Shipping Master in Calcutte, the cost of which offices is provided for by shipping fees.

- 387. The service of members of office establishments in the Railway Police in Bombay, who are wholly paid by the Railway Companies, qualifies.
- 388. Service which was paid wholly or partly from the Revenues of Berar before 1st October 1902 qualifies for pension from General Revenues.
- 389. (a) In the case of officers who, having no status in the service of the British Government, apart from their particular employment in Mysore, were employed in Mysore and transferred to the British service proper before 1st October 1882, the pensions granted are charged according to the Rule of Proportions.

Local Funds and Trust Funds.

390. Service paid from a Local Fund qualifies, or does not qualify, according to the rules laid down in Chapter XLII.

391. Service paid from Funds which Government hold only as a Trustee such as under a Court of Wards or in an Attached Estate, does not qualify.

Fees and Commission.

392. Except when fees or commission are drawn in addition to pay from the General Revenues, service in an office paid only by fees, whether levied by law or under the authority of Government, or by a commission, does not qualify.

1. Service as Official Assigned does not qualify.

Service as a Thugyi (local collector of revenue paid by commission) in Lower Burma qualifies, but this concession does not extend to Upper Burma.

Tenures in Lands, etc.

393. Service paid by the grant, in accordance with law or custom, of a tenure in land, or of any other source of income, or right to collect money, does not qualify.

394. As an exception to the preceding Article, Watandars (hereditary District Officers) and their deputies in the Kaira Collectorate and in the following talukas of the Panch Mahals, namely:—Godra, Kalol and Dohad, and the Petás of Hálol and Jhalod, if transferred to qualifying service, count their previous services.

SECTION V.—DISTINCTION BETWEEN SUPERIOR AND INFERIOR SERVICE.

395. Qualifying service is divided into Superior and Inferior.

396. Appendix 7A, Part I, contains a list of appointments specially classed as inferior and Part II a list of appointments specially classed as superior. All service on pay exceeding Rs. 10 in an appointment not mentioned in Appendix 7A is superior and service (in such an appointment) on pay not exceeding Rs. 10 is inferior.

 A Local Government may transfer any appointment or a class of appointments on pay exceeding Rs. 15 a month from the inferior to the superior class unless the appointment falls under one or other of the following entries in Appendix 7A, Part I:—

Menials and inferior servants,

Messengers, orderlies, peons and other petty officers.

NOTE.—[If the pay of the appointment is progressive the maximum pay is the criterion for the purpose of the above rule.]

2. The Government of India may also transfer individual appointments irrespective of pay from the inferior to the superior category. 397. Cancelled.

Service partly Inferior and partly Superior.

- 398. An officer whose service has been for some time Inferior and for some time Superior may either count—
 - (a) the whole as Inferior towards pension or gratuity on the Inferior scale, or
 - (b) the Superior portion towards pension or gratuity on the Superior scale, and the Inferior portion towards gratuity on the Inferior scale.
- Under (a) the pension or gratuity is calculated on the pay (whether in Superior or Inferior service) which the officer drew immediately before his retirement.
- Under (b) the pension or gratuity on the Superior scale is calculated upon the average emoluments or emoluments respectively which the officer drew when last in Superior service, and the gratuity on the Inferior scale upon the pay which he drew when last in Inferior service; provided that the total gratuity or gratuity plus pension granted under this clause shall not exceed what would have been admissible, if the whole service had been Superior.

If an officer has been reduced from the Superior to the Inferior class for misconduct, he cannot have the benefit of this Article, without the special permission of the Local Government.

399. The claims of an officer, promoted from an Inferior to a Superior grade as a regard for meritorious service, will be specially considered by the Government of India or by the Local Government under whom the officer is serving. This rule is to be strictly interpreted and a claim under it can be founded only on exceptional promotion made out of the ordinary course.

Exceptional Cases.

- 400. If an officer holds two or more offices, each of which is Inferior by reason of its pay not exceeding Rs. 10, he cannot count service as Superior on the ground that his aggregate pay exceeds Rs. 10 unless the offices were arranged and their pay determined with the intention that they should be held by one individual.
- 401. The service of a postman or village postman, whatever his pay, is Superior service.
- 402. (a) When the regular duties of an officer whose pay exceeds Rs. 10 but who bears an Inferior designation, are really such as are ordinarily performed by a Superior servant, his claim to pension should be specially referred to the Local Government.

Nora.—[It is not intended by this Article that an Inferior servant should count service as Superior in virtue of his voluntarily assisting in Superior work. It provides for the case of a person who is engaged under due authority to do Superior work, though with an Inferior designation.]

(b) On the other hand, an officer whose real duties are those of an Inferior servant, even though his pay exceeds Rs. 10, is not entitled to pension on the Superior scale merely because he draws pay under a Superior designation.

Examples.—Accountants in the Province of Agra who served under the designation of "Potdars." A Lithographic Pressman designated as a "Copying Clerk".

403. Cancelled.

404. Cancelled.

404-A. For officers mentinged in Article 349A, the concession of adding to qualifying service is as follows:—

This concession will not be granted to individual officers appointed at an age exceeding twenty-five years to Departments or appointments other than those included above. No officer can claim the benefit of this Article unless his actual qualifying service at the time he quits Government service is not less than ten years.

NOTE .- [The extra years conceded in this Article count towards the limit of 28 years' qualifying service prescribed in Article 475A.]

1. The provisions of this Article apply to members of the Bar directly appointed before the 23rd February 1937 to judicial posts ordinarily reserved for members of the Indian Civil Service, but, in their case, the maximum period to be added will be ten years.

2. The provisions of this article do not apply to an officer recruited on or after and holders of the appointments mentioned therein, who are under the rule making control of the Governor General in Council and are recruited on or after the 8th July 1937.

405. Omitted.

406. Omitted.

SECTION II.—PERIODS OF LEAVE.

Superior Service.

407. Except as provided in Article 408, time passed on leave other than Privilege leave, or Subsidiary leave taken under the rules in force prior to 29th July 1920, does not count as Superior service.

408. Time passed on leave with allowances counts as service as

If the total service of the	He counts as service a	He counts as service a period
Officer is not less	period of leave out of India	of leave in India not

¹ The words 'Vice Principal' occurring in Art. 404A take effect from 1st October 1931.

Note 1.—[The periods in columns 2 and 3 are not cumulative, that is, an officer may not count two years' leave in 15 years' service or more than four years' leave in thirty years' service. The maximum amount of leave both in and out of India which may be counted is that shown in column 2.]

Note 2.—[Total service in this Article means total service reckoning from the date of commencement of service qualifying for pension and includes periods of leave.]

Note 3.—[For the purposes of this Article, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements are not held to be "out of India."]

409. Time passed on Departmental leave by subordinates in the Survey of India, in the Bengal and Bihar and Orissa Survey Departments and in the Traverse Survey Party of the Central Provinces whose service is superior counts, provided they return to duty when required by their superior officers.

Note.—[Departmental leave granted to Tindals and others under clause (ii) of Article 295 and to inferior servants in the Bengal and Bihar and Orissa Survey Departments employed purely on field work is treated as service qualifying for pension.]

- 410. Time passed on leave obtained to be present at an examination which be passed before an officer is eligible for higher subordinate appointments, such as Deputy Magistracies, counts—(see Article 285).
- 411. The Government of India may at its discretion decide in the case of an officer (including a person in training for, but not actually appointed to, Government service) who is selected to undergo a course of training, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for pension. A Local Government exercises similar powers in respect of officers serving under it.

Note 1.—[The Government of India and Local Governments may delegate their power under this Article to Heads of Departments as regards officers serving under them.]

Note 2.—[The Government of India or a Local Government may issue general orders under this Article in regard to any specified class of officers under training.]

Deputation out of India.

412. When an officer is deputed out of India on duty, the whole period of his absence from India counts. When an officer on leave out of India is employed, or is detained after the termination of his leave, on duty, the period of such employment or detention counts.

Recall to Duty.

413. Time spent on the voyage to India by an officer who is recalled to duty before the expiry of any recognised leave out of India counts, provided his return to duty is compulsory (see Article 199).

Inferior Service.

414. An Inferior servant counts leave with and without allowances not exceeding in the aggregate that which might be given with allowances under the rules in Chapters XII and XIV.

415. Cancelled.

SECTION III.—SUSPENSIONS, RESIGNATIONS, BREAKS, AND DEFICIENCIES IN SERVICE.

Periods of Suspension.

- 416. Time passed under suspension pending enquiry into conduct counts, if the suspension is immediately followed by reinstatement, but time passed under suspension adjudged as a specific penalty does not count.
- 417. If an officer, who has been suspended, pending enquiry into his conduct, is reinsteated, but with forfeiture of any part of his allowances for the period of suspension, this period does not count (save with the special sanction of the Head of the Department), unless the authority who reinstates the officer expressly declares at the time that it shall count.

Resignations and Dismissals.

- 418. (a) Resignation of the public service, ¹(or dismissal) or removal from it for misconduct, insolvency, inefficiency not due to age, or failure to pass a prescribed examination entails forfeiture of past service.
- (b) Resignation of an appointment to take up another appointment, service in which counts, is not a resignation of the public service.
- 419. Any authority who, on revision or appeal, reverses an order dismissing '(or removing) an officer, may declare that the officer's past service counts.

Interruptions.

- 420. An interruption in the service of an officer entails forfeiture of his past service, except in the following cases:—
 - (a) Authorised leave of absence.
 - (b) Unauthorised absence in continuation of authorised leave of absence so long as the office of the absentee is not substantively filled; if his office is substantively filled, the past service of the absentee is forfeited.
 - (c) Suspension immediately followed by reinstatement, which need not be to the same office.

¹ The words in brackets occurring in Articles 418 and 419 take effect from 18th June 1935.

- (d) Abolition of office or loss of appointment owing to reduction of establishment
- (e) Transfer to non-qualifying service in an establishment under Government control. The transfer must be made by competent authority; an officer who voluntarily resigns qualifying service cannot claim the benefit of this exception. Transfer to a grant-in-aid school entails forfeiture. [But see Example (c) of Article 386.]
- (f) Transfer to service on the Household establishment of the Viceroy.
- (g) Time occupied in transit from one appointment to another, provided that the officer is transferred under the orders of competent authority, or, if he is a non-gazetted officer. with the consent of the head of his old office.
- 421. The authority who sanctions the pension may commute retrospectively periods of absence without leave into leave without allowances

Condonation of Interruptions and Deficiencies.

422. Upon such conditions as it may think fit in each case to impose the authority competent to fill the appointment held by an officer at the time condonation is applied for, were he to vacate that appointment may condone all interruptions in his service.

NOTE.-[The powers under this Article shall be exercised subject to any rules which the Government of India may deem fit to prescribe.]

- 423. (1) Upon any conditions which it may think fit to impose the authority competent to sanction the pension of an officer may condone a deficiency of three months in his qualifying service.
- (2) The Government of India and Provincial Governments may similarly condone a deficiency not exceeding twelve months.
- (3) If an officer claiming superior service has also rendered inferior service, the Government of India or the Provincial Government under whom he is serving may condone a deficiency in his qualifying service for pension on the superior scale not exceeding one half his inferior service, subject to a maximum of twelve months in all.

423A. Cancelled.

Chapter XVIII.—Conditions of Grant of Pension.

SECTION I.—CLASSIFICATION OF PENSIONS.

- 424. Pensions for "Superior service" are divided into four classes, the rules for which are prescribed in the following Sections of this Chapter :-
 - (a) Compensation pensions (see Section II).

- (b) Invalid pensions (see Section III).
- (c) Superannuation pensions (see Section IV).
- (d) Retiring pensions (see Section V).
- 425. Pensions for "Inferior service" are regulated by Articles 481 to 485.

SECTION II.—COMPENSATION PENSION.

- 1426. If an officer is selected for discharge owing to the abolition of his permanent post, he shall, unless he is appointed to another post the conditions of which are deemed to be at least equal to those of his own, have the option-
 - (a) of taking any compensation pension or gratuity to which he may be entitled for the service he has rendered, or
 - (b) of accepting another appointment on such pay as may be offered, and continuing to count his previous service for pension.
- 2426. If an officer is selected for discharge owing to the abolition of a permanent post, he shall, unless he is appointed to another post the conditions of which are deemed by authority competent to discharge him to be at least equal to those of his own, have the option-
 - (a) of taking any compensation pension or gratuity to which he may be entitled for the service he has already rendered, or
 - (b) of accepting another appointment or transfer to another establishment even on a lower pay, if offered, and continuing to count his previous service for pension.
 - 427. Cancelled. [with effect from 9th June 1937.]

Selection for Discharge.

- 428. The selection of the officers to be discharged upon the reduction of an establishment should prima facie be so made that the least charge for Compensation pension will be incurred.
- 429. The discharge of one officer to make room for another better qualified is not the abolition of an appointment within the meaning of Article 426; the abolition must produce a real saving to Government. Particulars of the saving effected should be fully set forth in every application for Compensation pension. The saving should always exceed the cost of the pension; otherwise it may perhaps be better to and takes effect from the 9th June 1937.

This applies to officers under the rule-making control of the Central Government and takes effect from the 9th June 1937.

postpone the reduction of establishment or abolition of appointment. (See orders printed as Appendix 8.)

Note.—(The relaxation of the condition laid down in this Article requires the spatial of the Provincial Government in respect of appointments which it is competent to abolish, and otherwise of the Government of India.]

Restrictions.

- 430. A Deputy Collector, Munsiff, or similar officer who belongs to the public service apart from his particular local appointments cannot obtain a compensation pension on the abolition of a particular appointment,
- 431. No pension is admissible to an officer for the loss of an appointment on discharge after the completion of a specified term of service.
- 432. No pension may be awarded for the loss of a duty or local allowance.
- 433. Schoolmasters or other officers who, in addition to their other duties, are employed in any capacity in the Postal Department, are not entitled to Compensation pension on being relieved of such duties.

Special Cases.

- 434. If it is necessary to discharge an officer in consequence of a change in the nature of the duties of his office, the case should be referred to the Local Government, who will deal with it in accordance with the rules laid down in this Section as to notice of discharge and compensation pension or gratuity.
- 435. If of two appointments held by one officer only one is abolished and it is desired to give him an immediate pension in respect of the abolished post, the case should be specially referred for the orders of the Government of India or of the Provincial Government competent to abolish the appointment.

Notice of Discharge.

- 436. Reasonable notice should be given to an officer in permanent employ before his services are dispensed with on the abolition of his office. If, in any case, notice of at least three months is not given, and the officer has not been provided with other employment on the date on which his services are dispensed with, then, with the sanction of the authority competent to dispense with the officer's services, a gratuity not exceeding his emoluments for the period by which the notice actually given to him falls short of three months, may be paid to him, in addition to the pension to which he may be entitled under Articles 474 to 481; but the pension shall not be payable for the period in respect of which he receives a gratuity in lieu of notice.
- 1. The gratuity prescribed in this Article is not granted as compensation for loss of employment but only in lieu of notice of discharge, with a view to mitigate the hardship caused to an officer by the sudden loss of employment. When, therefore, an officer discharged without notice is provided with some other employment on the date on which his services are dispensed with whether that employment be in qualifying or non-qualifying service, he is not entitled to any

2. Unless it contains an express statement to the contrary, an order for the abolition of an office or appointment shall not be brought into operation till the expiry of three months after notice has been given to the officers whose services are to be dispensed with on such abolition. The immediate head of the office or the department will be held responsible that there is no unnecessary delay in giving soun notice. In the case of an officer on leave, the order shall not be brought into operation until the leave expires.

Note. -["Emoluments" in this rule means the emoluments or leave allowances (or partly the one, partly the other) which the officer would be receiving during the period in question had the notice not been given him.]

436A. Whenever it is found necessary to determine the service of an officer serving under a contract within the period of his agreement, a specific intimation of the determination of the agreement and of the grounds on which it has been determined shall be furnished to the officer in writing.

Offer of Re-employment.

437. Cancelled. [With effect from the 9th June 1937.]

438. The rule in Articles 511 and 512, requiring the refund of a Compensation gratuity on re-employment, applies to a gratuity awarded under Article 436, if the officer is permanently re-employed within three months from the date of notice. But the officer need not refund that proportion of his gratuity under this rule which the interval of his non-employment bears to the whole period for which the gratuity is given. If the officer is re-employed only temporarily, he need refund no part of his gratuity; but if such temporary employment is foreseen, the gratuity should be proportionately reduced.

439. Cancelled. [With effect from the 9th June 1937.]

Acceptance of new Appointment.

440. If an officer who is entitled to Compensation pension accepts instead another appointment in the public service, and subsequently becomes again entitled to receive a pension of any class, the amount of such pension shall not be less than he could have claimed if he had not accepted the appointment.

SECTION III.—INVALID PENSION

441. An Invalid pension is awarded, on his retirement from the public service, to an officer who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated for the public service, or for the particular branch of it to which he belongs.

Rules regarding Medical Certificates.

- 442. If an officer applying for an Invalid pension is sixty years old or upwards, no certificate by a Medical Officer is necessary; it suffices for the head of the office to certify to the incapacity of the applicant. Otherwise incapacity for service must be established by a medical certificate attested as follows:—
- (a) If the officer submitting it is on leave in England—by the Medical Board at the India Office.
- (b) If he is serving at or near the capital town of a Province—by the Administrative Medical Officer of the Province, or by a Medical Committee over which the Administrative Medical Officer should, when practicable, preside.
- (c) If he is an officer in Superior service, and is serving in the interior of the country under such circumstances that, in the opinion of the authority which sanctions the pension, he can be conveniently required to appear before a Medical Invaliding Committee—by such Committee.
- (d) In other cases, the authority which sanctions the pension may either accept a certificate given by a single Commissioned Medical Officer or Medical Officer in charge of a civil station, or assemble a special Invaliding Committee at a convenient civil station.
- (e) If the pension applied for exceeds Rs. 100 a month, a certificate by a single Medical Officer should not be accepted as sufficient, if it is possibe, without undue inconvenience, to assemble an Invaliding Committee or to cause the applicant to appear before the Director-General, Indian Medical Department, or the Standing Medical Committee at the Fresidency.
- (f) Except in the case of an officer on leave in England, no medical certificate of incapacity for service may be granted unless the applicant produces a letter to show that the head of his office or department is aware of his intention to appear before the Medical Officer. The Medical Officer shall also be supplied by the head of the office or department in which the applicant is employed, with a statement of what appears from official records to be the applicant's age. Where the applicant has a service book, the age there recorded should be reported.
- (g) In the case of civilians in the various administrative services and departments of the Indian Army including the Military Accounts Department who, under an agreement, are liable for field service, incapacity for service must be established by a military medical board the members of which will attest the medical certificate.
- 443. (a) A succinct statement of the medical case, and of the treatment adopted, should, if possible, be appended.

- (b) If the Examining Medical Officer, although unable to discover any specific disease in the officer, considers him incapacitated for further service by general debility while still under the age of fifty-five years, he should give detailed reasons for his opinion, and, if possible, a second medical opinion should always in such a case be obtained.
- (c) In a case of this kind, special explanation will be expected from the head of the office or department of the grounds on which it is proposed to invalid the officer.
- 444. A simple certificate that inefficiency is due to old age or natural decay from advancing years, is not sufficient in the case of an officer whose recorded age is less than fifty-five years, but a Medical Officer is at liberty, when certifying that the officer is incapacitated for further service by general debility, to state his reasons for believing the age to be understated.

Form of Medical Certificate in England.

445. The form of the medical certificate given by the Medical Board attached to the India Office, respecting an officer applying for pension in England is as follows:—

"We have carefully examined Mr.

- Taking into account all the facts of the case as well as his present condition, we consider that he is incapable of discharging the duties of his situation, and that such incapability is likely to be permanent. We therefore recommend that he be permitted to retire from the service of Government on the pension or gratuity for which he may be eligible."
- 446. If any doubt arises regarding the validity of a certificate by the Medical Board attached to the India Office, the Audit Officer must not of his own motion reject the certificate as invalid, but must submit the matter for the decision of the Local Government.

Note,—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

Form of Medical Certificate in India.

447. (a) The form of the certificate to be given respecting an officer applying for pension in India is as follows:—

incapacitated for further service of any kind [or in the Department to which he belongs] in consequence of (here state disease or cause). His incapacity does not appear to me (us) to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Note.—[If the incapacity is obviously the result of intemperance, substitute for the last sentence: "In my (our) opinion, his incapacity is the result of irregular or intemperate habits,"]

- (If the incapacity does not appear to be complete and permanent, the certificate should be modified accordingly and the following addition should be made:) I am (we are) of opinion that A B, is fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing [or may, after resting for——months, be fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing.]
- (b) The object of the alternative certificate (of partial incapacity) is that an officer should, if possible, be employed even on lower pay, so that the expense of pensioning him may be avoided. If there be no means of empolying him even on lower pay, then he may be admitted to pension: but it should be considered whether, in view of his capacity for partially earning a living, it is necessary to grant to him the full pension admissible under rule. [The principle of Article 427 must always be carefully borne in mind.]
- 447A. (a) In the case of civilians in the various administrative services and departments of the Indian Army including the Military Accounts Department who, under an agreement, are liable for field service, and whose continuous and pensionable service is not more than 20 years, the medical certificate will take the following form if the officer is incapacitated from permanent physical unfitness to fulfil his field service obligations but is not completely incapacitated for ordinary service:—

is not a condition of employment. His incapacity does not appear to me (us) to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Note.—[If the incapacity is obviously the result of intemperance, the following will be substituted for the last sentence: "In my (our) opinion his incapacity is the result of irregular or intemperate habits."]

(b) The above certificate does not give an officer any right of transfer to any other Government service or department; and an officer invalided on a certificate in this form will receive either full pension admissible under rule or such smaller amount as may be decided by the authority empowered to sanction the pension.

Signallers in the Telegraph Department.

- 443. (a) In the case of Signallers in the Indian and Indo-European Telegraph Departments the medical certificate prescribed by Article 447 may, if it is found after medical examination that it cannot be granted, be dispensed with in special cases when inefficiency is not the result of misconduct, and instead of it two certificates—
 - (i) one in form A signed by two superior officers of the Telegraph Department; and
 - (ii) the other in form B signed by the Director-General of Telegraphs—may be substituted.

FORM A. "We certify that, after a perusal of the records of A B's service and of the report of his immediate superior during the last twelve months of his service, we are satisfied that he is permanently incapacitated for the duties of a Signaller in the Telegraph Department."

FORM B. "After a careful consideration of A B's case, I concur with Messrs. C and D in thinking that he is permanently incapacitated for the duties of a Signaller in the Telegraph Department and accordingly recommend that he may be permitted to retire on the pension or gratuity for which he may be found eligible."

(b) The practice enjoined in Article 447 (b) [and 453]¹ of re-employing pensioners should be carefully followed as far as practicable in these cases.

(c) Officers permitted to retire under this Article may be granted a pension or gratuity of only four-fifths of the amount that would be admissible for a man permanently unfit for any duty.

Note.—[This Article applies only to men who are "Signallers," including in that term Telegraph Masters who are members of the signalling staff, when they retire.]

 $^{1\,\}mathrm{The}$ words in brackets occurring in Article 448 (b) do not apply to officers under the rule-making control of the Central Government.

Special Precautions in the Police.

- 449. District Superintendents of Police should be on their guard against endeavours to retire on Invalid pension by officers who are capable of serving longer.
- 450. Medical Officers should confine themselves to recommending leave to such policemen as are not likely to benefit by a further stay in hospital and should not certify that a policeman is incapacitated for further service unless they are officially requested to report upon his incapacity for further service.
- 451. Medical Officers should be specially searching in their examination of the physical unfitness of every applicant for pension, and, whenever the number of applicants for pensions is large, the examination should, if possible, be conducted by two Medical Officers.

Restrictions.

452. An officer discharged on other grounds has no claim under Article 441, even although he can produce medical evidence of incapacity for service.

453. Cancelled.

454. If the incapacity is directly due to irregular or intemperate habits, no pension can be granted. If it has not been directly caused by such habits, but has been accelerated or aggravated by them, it will be for the authority by which the pension is grantable to decide what reduction should be made on this account.

Applicant to be discharged.

455. An officer who has submitted under Article 442 a medical certificate of incapacity for further service, must not (except for special reasons to be reported to the Local Government) be retained in active service pending a decision on his application for pension, nor can he obtain leave of absence.

Without the special orders of the authority which has power to sanction the pension, service after the date of such medical certificate does not count for pension.

- 456. The object of Article 455 is to discourage tentative applications; but an inferior servant (including in that term a Police officer whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20) who, in the opinion of the head of his office, is fit for light work may be retained in employment till his pension is sanctioned, provided that his place is not filled up till he retires, and that his service counts only to the date of his medical certificate.
- 457. Article 455 refers only to the retention in active service of an officer who has furnished a medical certificate in support of an application for Invalid pension or gratuity while in India. The retirement of an officer who is absent on leave other than Privilege leave, when such certificate is submitted, may have effect from the termination of his leave, and the officer may continue to draw leave allowance to the end of his leave.

SECTION IV.—SUPERANNUATION PENSION.

- 458. A Superannuation pension is granted to an officer in superior service entitled or compelled, by rule, to retire at a particular age.
- 459. (a) Ministerial officers who have attained the age of 55 may be required to retire, but should ordinarily be retained in service so long as they remain efficient until they come under the provisions of clause (c).
- (b) Officers, other than ministerial, who have attained the age of 55, should ordinarily be required to retire, and should not be retained in service except where unquestionable public grounds for retention exist which must be recorded in writing, and there is no doubt as to the physical fitness of the officer.
- (e) Each officer's case should be taken up when he is approaching the age of 55 and before the expiry of each extension of service. Extensions may not be granted for any period exceeding one year at one time.
- (d) The powers given by the preceding clauses may be exercised by the authority competent to fill the appointment (if vacant) of the officer who is required to retire or retained in service.
- (e) An officer who has attained the age of 60 cannot be retained in the service of Government save in very exceptional circumstances, and with the sanction of the Local Government.
- (f) No claim to compensation from an officer who is required to retire under the provisions of this Article will be entertained.

Note.—[The provisions of this Article do not apply to officers referred to in the Note under Article 550.1

460. An officer, who is compelled to retire under the preceding Article, or who retires voluntarily under Article 464, and part of whose service has been Inferior, is entitled to pension on the same conditions as if he had been invalided under Article 481, and to the option allowed by Article 398.

461 and 462. Cancelled.

Procedure.

463. With a view to the issue of necessary orders as to retention or otherwise of officers to whom Article 459 (b) applies (i.e., officers other than ministerial), the Audit Officer should on or about the 1st of September in each year submit to the authorities concerned a list of those who will attain the age of 55, or complete the term for which extension has been allowed, during the next official year. The Audit Officer should similarly submit to the authorities concerned on or about the 1st of September in each year a list of ministerial officers who will attain the age of 60 during the next official year, should the Local Government or the Head of an Imperial Department so direct.

Optional Retirement at Fifty-five.

464. An officer in Superior service who has attained the age of 55 years may, at his option, retire on a Superannuation pension.

SECTION V.—RETIRING PENSION.

- 465. A retiring pension is granted to an officer who is permitted to retire after completing qualifying Superior service for thirty years or such less time as may for any special class of officers be prescribed.
- 465A. For officers mentioned in Article 349-A, the rule for the grant of retiring pension is as follows:
 - (1) An officer is entitled, on his resignation being accepted, to a retiring pension after completing qualifying service of not less than 25 years or in the case of officers of Imperial Services of the Forest, Geological Survey, Public Works, Railway and Telegraph Departments and any others covered by Article 635 who entered the service before the 6th day of December, 1932, not less than twenty years.
 - (2) A retiring pension is also granted to an officer who is required by Government to retire after completing twenty-five years' qualifying service or more.

Note 1.—[Government retains an absolute right to retire any officer after he has completed twenty-five years' qualifying service without giving any reasons, and no claim to special compensation on this account will be entertained. This right will not be exercised except when it is in the public interest to dispense with the further services of an officer.]

Note 2.—[In the case of an officer who was in the service on or before the 15th November 1919 and who fulfils the conditions of clause (1) of this Article, acceptance of his resignation will in no circumstances be deferred beyond a period of six months from the date on which his application to resign was submitted.]

466. (See Article 509-A.)

Combined Appointments.

467. An officer holding two or more separate appointments may not, save with the express sanction of the Government of India in the Finance Department, or if pensions are a Provincial charge, of the Provincial Government, resign one or more of such appointments on a pension, without retiring from the public service altogether. There is no objection to his being relieved from one or more of such appointments at any time, without being compelled to leave the service altogether; but in such case, any pension admissible to him for service in the office or offices from which he is relieved, will be deferred until he finally retires.

Note.—(The Government of India may delegate its power under this Article to Minor Local Governments and Heads of Departments. A Provincial Government also may delegate its power to Heads of Departments.)

Chapter XIX.—Amount of Pensions.

SECTION I.—GENERAL RULES.

463. The amount of pension that may be granted is determined by length of service as set forth in Articles 474 to 485. Fractions of a year are not taken into account in the calculation of any pension admissible to an officer under this part of these Regulations.

468A. Pensions fixed in rupees should be calculated to the nearest anna, that is, where the exact amount works out to six pies or more, it should be taken to the next higher anna, amounts below six pies being disregarded.

Note.—[This rule applies to all pensions granted under these Regulations.]

Currency.

469. A pension is fixed in rupees, and not in sterling money, even though it is to be paid in England.

Award of Full Pension.

470. (a) The full pension admissible under the rules is not to be given as a matter of course, or unless the service rendered has been really approved. (See Appendix 9.)

(b) If the service has not been thoroughly satisfactory, the authority sanctioning the pension should make such reduction in the amount as it thinks proper.

Limitations.

471. An officer entitled to pension may not take a gratuity instead of pension.

Note.—[See Note 2 under Article 807.]

- 472. In the case of an officer who has any service under the Imperial (British) Government, pension from Indian Revenues should not be fixed until it has been ascertained whether any pension is payable from Imperial funds in respect of the service under the British Government.
- 473. An officer, not being a Military officer or a member of the Indian Civil Service, transferred to service under the Government of a Dominion, Crown Colony, Protectorate or a Territory mandated to the British Government, on final retirement from such service on pension or compensation allowance, may be granted from revenues a pension equal to the pension which would have been admissible if he had been invalided from the service at the date of his transfer, or, if no such pension would have been admissible, a pension of one sixtieth of his average emoluments for each completed year of qualifying service, such average emoluments to be calculated for the last three years or, if the whole service in India is less than three years, for the whole period of service.

NOTE.—The sanction of the Government of India is required to the transfer of an officer to any service of the description mentioned in this Article.

SECTION II.—AMOUNT OF SUPERIOR PENSION.

Norn.—[The rules in this Section are to be read as superseded by Rules 13 and 14 of the Superior Civil Services (Revision of Pay, Passage and Pension) Rules, 1924, to the extent indicated in those rules.]

474. The amount of a pension is regulated as follows:-

(a) After a service of less than ten years, a gratuity not exceeding (except in special cases, and under the orders of the Government of India, up to a maximum of 12 months' emoluments) one month's emoluments for each completed year of service. If the emoluments of the officer have been reduced during the last three years of his service, otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments may, at the discretion of the authority which has power to sanction the gratuity, he substituted for emoluments.

(b) After a service of not less than ten years a pension not exceeding the following amounts:-

Officers holding any of the appointments enumerated below and belonging to what was formerly termed the Uncovenanted Service, may be allowed by the Local Government an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year, provided that they have rendered not less than three years of effective service (that is, service of the same nature as that which, under the provisions of Article 644, counts for the special pensions admissible under Article 642) in such appointment, provided also that in each case during such service the officer has shown such special energy and efficiency as may be considered deserving of the concession. In the case of officers entering Government service after the 31st December 1909, the grant of the additional pension is subject to the further condition that they must, in the event of voluntary retirement, have completed twenty-eight years of qualifying service. The same rule applies to officers of the Forest Department who entered Government service on or before the 31st December 1909 (including those who were appointed on probation on or before that date), with the exception of those who have, at the time of their retirement, rendered three years' active service on not less than the maximum pay of a Conservator. 482. If the pay of an officer has been reduced during the last three years of his service otherwise than as a penalty, his gratuity or pension under this Section may, at the discretion of the authority which has power to sanction it, be calculated upon the average of his pay during the last three years of his service.

Premature Invaliding.

483. An officer should not, without urgent necessity, be invalided when he has nearly completed thirty years' service: the Government cannot undertake to overlook a deficiency of service resulting from an efficer being prematurely invalided. The principle of this rule applies to all analogous cases.

Military Artificers.

484. A Military Artificer whose qualifying service, on pay exceeding ten rupees, excluding interruptions of, and absence from, duty of every kind, amounts to not less than twenty-five years, may be granted a Compensation or Invalid pension not exceeding three-fourths of the pension to which he would be entitled if his service on pay exceeding ten rupees were reckoned as Superior.

Telegraph Messengers.

485. A telegraph messenger paid on the task-work system shall, for the purposes of calculating pension or gratuity, be regarded as if he drew a monthly pay equal to the average pay drawn by him during the last six months of his service. The word "pay" used in this Article means subsistence allowance plus task-work earnings.

SECTION IV.-ALLOWANCES RECKONED FOR PENSION.

Emoluments and Average Emoluments.

- 486. The term "Emoluments," when used in this Part of the Regulations, means the emoluments which the officer was receiving immediately before his retirement and includes—
 - (a) Pay;
 - (b) Personal allowance continues to reckon as part of "Emoluments" even when it is wholly or partly absorbed in acting allowance not so reckoning;
 - (c) Fees or commission, if they are the authorised emoluments of an appointment, and are in addition to pay. In this case "Emoluments" means the average earnings for the last six months of service:

- (d) Charge allowance to Telegraphists in the Indian Telegraph Department and to Signallers, Inspectors and Charge Clerks in the Indo-European Telegraph Department;
- (e) Commission in the case of a Thugyi in Lower Burma. "Emoluments" in this case being held to mean the average of his monthly receipts in commission during the three years' actual service previous to retirement—but see example (3) under Article 489;
- (f) Bullock Train allowance in the Post Office Department;
- (g) Allowance attached to a Professorship or Lecturership in a Government Institution;
- (h) Acting allowances of an officer without a substantive appointment if the acting service counts under Article 371, and allowances drawn by an officer appointed provisionally under Article 89, or appointed substantively pro tempore under Article 90 or in an officiating capacity under the rules in Section I of Chapter VI to an office which is substantively vacant and on which no officer has a lien or to an office temporarily vacant in consequence of the absence of the permanent incumbent on leave without allowances or on transfer to foreign service.
- (i) Deputation (duty) allowances.
- (j) Duty allowances.
- 1. In the case of Section-writers whose service has been allowed to count for pension under special orders of the Government of India, and of Press servants whose service qualifies under Article 380 "Emoluments" means the average earnings of the last six months of service. For calculating gratuity on the Superior scale, "Emoluments" means the average earnings of the last six months in Superior service, and for calculating pension on the Inferior scale, Pay means the average earnings of the last six months in Inferior service.
- *2. In the case of an officer with a substantive appointment who officiates in another appointment or holds a temporary appointment, "Emoluments" means—
 - (a) the emoluments which would be taken into account under this Article in respect of the appointment in which he officiates or of the temporary appointment, as the case may be, or
 - (b) the emoluments which would have been taken into account under this Article had he remained in his substantive appointment, whichever are more favourable to him.
- 487. The term "Average Emoluments" means the average calculated upon the last three years of service.
- 1. If, during the last three years of his service, at officer has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, or having been suspended, has been reinstated without forfeiture of service, his Emoluments, for the purpose of ascertaining the average, should be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty or suspended: Provided always (a) that his pension must not be increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and (b) that an officer will not during leave be allowed to count as emoluments the sub. pro tem, allowances which he would have been entitled to so count under Article 486 (h) had he remaned on duty, if another officer has been appointed sub pro tem. to the same appointment during the period of such leave. But if his absence on Departmental or Recess leave is reckoned as service under Article 409, only the allowances, if any actually received during such leave should be taken into account.

2. If, during the last three years of his service, an officer has been absent from duty on leave without allowances (not counting for pension), or in inferior service, or suspended under such circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the periods so passed should be disregarded in the calculation of the average, an equal period before the three years being included.

2-A.* In the case of a military officer, departmental officer, warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier who was in civil employ on 7th June 1937 and was or may be granted a pension under military rules on or after the 50th May 1935 and whose pay has been reduced under Clause (b) of Article 526, emoluments for the purpose of ascertaining the average shall be taken at what they would have been had the pay not been reduced.

3. Excepting as provided in !frules 1, 2 and 2.A] only emoluments actually received can be included in the calculation. For example, when an officer is allowed to-count time retrospectively towards increase of pay, but does not receive retrospectively the intermediate periodical increments, these intermediate increments are not reckoned in the calculations.

4. In the case of Section-writers whose service has been allowed to count for pension under special orders of the Government of India, and of Press servants whose service qualifies under Article 580, "Average Emoluments" means the average earnings of the last seventy-two months in Superior service.

NOTE 1.—[This rule applies in the case of a Press servant remunerated by a fixed rate of pay if his pay is met from the grant for piece-work.]

Note 2.—[Overtime earnings of Press servants paid at piece-work rates may be taken into account in calculating Average Emoluments under this rule; but such earnings must be excluded in reckoning the Average Emoluments of Press employés who draw pay at fixed rates.]

Note 3.—[If during the last 72 months of service a Press servant has been for some period on fixed pay and for other periods a piece-work employé, overtime armings may be taken into account in calculating pension only for the periods during which he was remunerated at piece-work rates.]

Allowances which do not count.

- 488. An officer cannot count the following allowances:-
 - (1) Local allowances and deputation (local) allowances:
 - (2) Messing allowances, Working allowances, and Provision allowances to officers in the Marine Department:
 - (3) House-rent allowance, or estimated value of free quarters;
 - (4) Tour and other allowances (to officers who accompany the Viceroy or any Government);
 - (5) Compensation for dearness of provisions.

Net Emoluments taken.

489. Any part of an officer's pay or emoluments, which is specially intended to provide for expenses incidental to his duty, must be excluded.

^{*}Rule 2-A under Article 487 takes effect from 30th May 1935.

1 [] Substituted for the words "rules 1 and 2", with effect from the 30th May 1935.

The following are examples of the operation of this Article:-

- (1) When an officer's pay is intended partly to cover the expense of his providing or keeping a horse, his pay must be taken only at what it would be if it was not intended to cover such expense. When a water-carrier's pay includes provision for a bullock, his pay must be taken at what it would be if he were not required to keep a bullock.
- (2) When a consolidated pay specially includes tentage, travelling allowance, or house allowance, these must be deducted.
- (3) The commission paid to a Thugyi in Lower Burma goes in part to pay expenses incidental to his office. In calculating "Emoluments" or "Average Emoluments" for pension purposes, 2½ per cent. on a Thugyi's commission, if the average commission of the last three years of his service exceeds Rs. 600 a year, is deducted, as representing the expenses of his office; and pension is computed upon the remainder. No deduction is made if the average commission of a Thugyi for the last three years of service does not exceed Rs. 600 a year; in such cases the pension is computed upon the total amount of such average commission.
- (4) When an officer's pay is fixed at two rates, a smaller rate during stationary duty and a higher rate during periods passed on tour or travelling, the former rate alone should be the basis of the calculation.
- 490. When service on temporary duty counts for pension under Article 376, the pay of the permanent appointment held by the officer, and not that drawn in respect of the temporary duty, is taken into consideration in determining the amount of pension, unless the officer draws a deputation (duty) allowance under the provisions of Article 76C or Article 81.
- 491. The preceding Article does not apply to an officer deputed temporarily to service in the Income Tax Department. or to an officer deputed on abolition of his appointment to special duty (Article 397), or to an officer who, when his appointment was abolished, was on special duty. In these cases the full allowances are counted.

Combination of Appointments.

492. If an officer has held more than one appointment, in respect of each of which, if he had held it separately and alone, pension would have been admissible to him, the pension admissible to him is the sum of the several pensions which would have been admissible to him if he had held each office separately and alone. The consolidated pension thus admissible is subject to the limitations prescribed in Articles 474 to 480 and 481.

493. An officer is not entitled, for service in an office conjointly with another office, to any pension which would not have been admissible to him if he had held the office separately and alone.

Under this rule the service of an officer in the Bombay and Calcutta City Police before the establishment of the Superannuation Fund counts towards pension under the rules of the funds if he pays up his subscriptions for the whole period of his service in the Police Force.

1. This privilege applies only to Police officers whose pensions are determined according to the rules of the Superantunation Fund of the Bombay or Calcutta City Police, and not to any officer whose pension is granted in accordance with the rules prescribed in Chapters XVIII and XIX for the calculation of pensions for Superior service.

- 1. As the rules of the Superannuation Fund did not always provide for Compensation pension, the following orders were issued with reference to the reductions directed in 1869:—
 - (1) Compensation pension should be awarded at the same rate as the Superannuation Fund Rules provide for Invalid pensions.
 - (2) But if a gratuity thus awardable is less than the amount (without interest) of the officer's subscription to the Fund, the difference should be made up.

Scale B.—According to the rules prescribed in Chapters XVII to XIX for the calculation of pensions for Superior service; except that all service in the Police after the age of eighteen years qualifies.

Norm.—[Policemen in the lower ranks of the Madras City Police, on salaries not exceeding Rs. 20 a month, who enlisted after the 19th July 1871, may retire on pension without medical certificate after twenty-five years' service.]

- 504. (a) The pension of an officer of the Town Police of Calcutta who was in the Force before the 27th December 1905, and of an officer of the Town Police of Bombay who was in the Force before the 1st April 1886, is regulated by Scale A.
- (b) The pension of an officer of the Town Police of Bombay, if he was enlisted or re-enlisted on or after 1st April 1886, is regulated by Scale B.
- 505. The pension of an officer of any other Force is regulated as follows:—
 - (a) If he was in the Police before the 19th July 1871 and has served continuously since that date, by Scale A or Scale B according to his election.
 - (b) If he was enlisted or re-enlisted on or after the 19th July 1871, by Scale B.
 - (c) The pension of an officer enlisted in the Calcutta or Suburban Police Force on or after 27th December 1905 is regulated by Scale B. The pension of an officer who was enlisted before 27th December 1905 and subscribed to the Police Superannuation Fund, and whose pay at the date of discharge does not exceed Rs. 20, is, on his being invalided, regulated by Scale A, provided he pays up his subscriptions from the 27th December 1905 to the date of his retirement. Failing such payments his pension or gratuity is regulated by Scale B.

Officers on pay exceeding Rs. 20.

- 506. The pension admissible to an officer whose pay at date of discharge or resignation exceeds twenty rupees, is determined by the rules which apply to ordinary service, except that service rendered after the completion of twenty years of age, and declared by this Chapter to be qualifying, is treated as Superior service.
- When a Police officer, by promotion to a pay exceeding twenty rupees, loses any benefit as to pension which he would have enjoyed had his pay remained unchanged, his pension may be regulated as if he had not received the promotion.
- 2. Men of the Bombay City Police count as Superior their service in the Force in Inferior grades before the establishment of the Superannuation Fund.

Previous Inferior Service.

- 507. If part of an officer's continuous service qualifies for pension under the general rules, but does not qualify under the rules in this Chapter, he may elect to receive, in lieu of the pension admissible under this Chapter, such pension as is admissible to him under Articles 398 and 481 to 483 for the whole of his service, both Inferior and Superior (see Article 460).
- 508. An officer who, under Article 505, has elected to abide by Scale B, will, if he takes gratuity under the preceding Article, obtain, in lieu of the scale prescribed in Article 481, one month's pay for every complete two years of service, but not more than twelve months' pay in all.

Calculation of Pension.

509. Except in the case of officers of the Town Police of Calcutta, and of officers of the Town Police of Bombay who were in the Force before the 1st April 1886 (Article 504), pension is to be calculated upon the net pay, i.e., the pay actually received by the officer, and not upon the gross pay, i.e., the pay from which were deducted the subscription to the Superannuation Funds [see concluding sentence of Note 1 to Article 499]. But this rule shall not, unless he be either promoted to higher pay or degraded for misconduct to lower pay, be applied to any officer who, on the 19th July 1871, was entitled, by the rules of the Superannuation Fund, to have his pension calculated on his gross pay.

Chapter XXI.—Re-employment of Pensioners.

SECTION I.—GENERAL,

- 509A. No officer, Civil or Military, may retire with the view of being re-employed, and drawing pension in addition to pay, whether in the general service or in the service of any Local Fund.
- 510. When a person who was formerly in the civil or military employment of any Government in India obtains re-employment, whether temporarily or permanently, in Government service or in the service of a local Fund, it shall be incumbent on him to declare to the appointing authority the amount of any gratuity, bonus or pension granted to him in respect of the previous employment. The authority re-appointing him shall specifically state in the order of re-appointment whether any deduction is to be made from pension or salary as required by the rules of this Chapter and shall communicate a copy of the order to the Audit Officer.

Note.—[The principle of this article applies in the case of continued employment on retirement from Government service. The amount of the pension to be declared is that sanctioned originally, i.e., it shall be inclusive of any amount that may have been commuted (vide Articles 524B and 524C).]

- 510-A. The attention of every officer who is re-employed should be specially called to the provisions of this Chapter by the authority re-employing him, and, whenever he becomes aware of such an appointment, by the Audit Officer; but the failure of such authority to do this will not be admitted as a ground for condoning any breach of the regulations contained in this Chapter.
- 510B. Notwithstanding anything contained in the rules in this chapter, a wound or other extraordinary pension sanctioned under Chapter XXXVIII of these Regulations and a wound or injury or disability pension or a disability addition to pension awarded under the military rules shall continue to be drawn by a retired Government servant, civil or military, during re-employment or continued employment, and shall be subject only to the conditions of its award. The amount of such pension or addition to pension shall not be taken into account when fixing the pay during re-employment or continued employment.

NOTE.—[Where the military pension is consolidated and service and disability elements are not explicitly differentiated, the total pension may be split up in the following manner. The service portion of the pension will be represented by the service pension earned or, if no service pension bas been earned, by the proportionate service pension calculated with reference to the minimum ordinary pension admissible for the rank and the actual length of service rendered. In calculating this service element, an amount of 8 annas and over chall be taken as a whole rupee, amounts of less than 8 annas being ignored. The disability portion of the pension will be the balance.]

SECTION II.—CIVIL PENSIONERS.

Re-employment after Compensation Gratuity.

- 511. An officer who has obtained a Compensation gratuity, if reemployed in qualifying service, may either retain his gratuity, in which case his former service will not count for future pension, or refund it and count his former service.
- 512. The intention to refund must be stated immediately on reemployment; but the refund may be made by monthly instalments of not less than one-third of the officer's salary, and also not less than the whole gratuity divided by the number of months which have elapsed since the end of the service for which the gratuity was given. The right to count previous service does not revive till the whole amount is refunded.

Nors.—[The equity of this rule is based upon the consideration that so long as the refund of the gratuity is postponed, the officer avoids the risks and the State loses to possibility of the gratuity lapsing absolutely to the public treasury by the death or dismissal of the officer. A subsequent refund of a gratuity, even with compound interest, does not compensate the State for the loss of this possibility meanwhile.]

513. (See Article 510-A.)

After Compensation Pension.

- 514. (a) An officer who obtained a compensation pension, if reemployed, may retain his pension in addition to his pay, provided that if he is re-employed in a post paid from general revenues, the pension shall remain wholly or partly in abeyance if the sum of the pension and the initial pay on re-employment exceeds his substantive pay at the time of his discharge that is, an officer can draw so much of pension only as will make his initial pay plus pension equal to his substantive pay at the time of his discharge. Once the amount of pension has been fixed in conformity with the above condition the officer shall be entitled to receive the benefits of increments in his new scale or promotion to another scale or post without a further corresponding reduction in pension nor shall the amount of pension so fixed be varied during leave. In the case, however, of a pensioner re-employed in either a permanent or a temporary appointment, for bona fide temporary duty lasting for not more than a year, the Local Government may allow the pension to be drawn in whole or in part even though the sum total of pay and pension exceeds his substantive pay at the time of his discharge.

the initial pay on re-employment exceeds his substantive pay at the time of his discharge, that is, an officer can draw so much of pension only as will make his initial pay plus pension equal to his substantive pay at the time of his discharge. Once the amount of the pension has been fixed in conformity with the above condition the officer shall be entitled to receive the benefits of increments in his new scale or promotion to another scale or post without a further corresponding reduction in pension, nor shall the amount of pension so fixed be varied during leave. In the case, however, of a pensioner re-employed in either a permanent or a temporary appointment, for bona fide temporary duty lasting for not more than a year, the Local Government or, m cases where the pension does not exceed Rs. 10 a month, the officer who controls the establishment on which the pensioner is to be employed, may allow the pension to be drawn in whole or in part even though the sum total of pay and pension exceeds his substantive pay at the time of his discharge.

Note 1.—[This rule applies to the re-employment on all establishments paid from the General Revenues, whether paid by fixed salary or by fluctuating monthly allowances; but it does not apply to pensioners employed on work as coolies and paid daily hire.]

NOTE 2.—[In the case of re-employment under a Local Fund, no deduction is made from a compensation pension.]

Note 3.—[The Government of India may permit an officer who has obtained a compensation pension and is afterwards re-employed in a permanent or temporary appointment duly sanctioned by competent authority, to draw his full pension in addition to the pay and allowances of the appointment, irrespective of the period of such re-employment.]

Note 4.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments in respect of pensioners whose re-employment they are authorised to order.]

Note 5.—[The restrictions in this Article do not apply to ex-policemen whose pension does not exceed Rs. 10 a month or to ex-inferior servants.]

(b) If his re-employment is in qualifying service, he may either retain his pension (subject to the proviso above stated), in which case his former service will not count for future pension, or cease to draw any part of his pension and count his previous service. Pension intermediately drawn need not be refunded.

NOTE.—[An officer counts his previous service under clause (b) if on re-employment his pension remains wholly in abeyance under the provise to clause (a).]

515. In the case of a Section-writer whose service has been allowed to qualify for pension under special orders of the Government of India, or of a press servant (see Article 380) re-employed, ¹[the substantive pay at the time of discharge] is taken at the average earnings of the last six months of employment.

516. If an officer does not, within three months from the date of his re-employment, exercise the option conceded by Article 514, of ceasing to draw pension and counting his former service, he may not thereafter do so without the permission of the Local Government.

517. Cancelled. [with effect from the 9th June 1937].

518. Cancelled.

After Invalid Pension.

519. There is no bar to the re-employment of an officer who has regained health after obtaining Invalid pension, or if an officer is invalided as being incapacitated for employment in a particular branch of the service, to his re-employment in some other branch of the Service. The rules in such a case as to refunding gratuity, drawing pension, and counting service, the the same as in the case of re-employment after Compensation pension.

After Superannuation or Retiring Pension.

- 520. An officer who is in receipt of a superannuation or retiring pension shall not be re-employed or continue to be employed in service paid from general revenues or from a local fund, except on public grounds. Sanction to re-employment or extension of the term of employment may be given as follows:—
 - (i) By the Government of India in the Administrative Department concerned, when the pensioner served before retirement in a gazetted appointment directly under the Government of India or belonged to an Imperial Service or Imperial Branch of any Service, or was ²[an officer] who, before retirement, held a post usually filled by officers of an Imperial Service or Branch;
 - (ii) In other cases, by the Local Government under whose administration the pensioner is re-employed;
 - (iii) By any authority subordinate to a Local Government to whom the Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article in respect of pensioners re-employed in establishments under the control of such authority.

NOTE.—[A Local Government may declare that the restrictions contained in this Article shall not apply to any particular local fund or to local funds of any particular class in its territories, or that they shall apply subject to such modifications as it may direct.]

¹ [] The words within brackets apply to officers under the rule-making control of the Central Government and take effect from the 9th June 1937.

²[] The words "an officer" were substituted for the words "a Statutory Civilian or other officer" by the Governor-General in Council.

521. The authority competent to fix the pay and allowances of the appointment in which the pensioner is employed shall determine whether his pension shall be held wholly or partly in abeyance. If the pension is drawn wholly or in part, such authority shall take the fact into account in fixing the pay to be allowed to him; provided that (i) where a Local Government has delegated its power under clause (iii) of Article 520 to the Head of a Department, the latter may not allow the pensioner to draw full pension in addition to the full pay of the post except when the re-employment or continued employment is for bona fide temporary duty lasting for not more than a year or the pension does not exceed Rs. 10 a month, and (ii) where the Local Government has delegated its power to any other authority subordinate to itself, such authority may not allow the pensioner to draw in full a pension of more than Rs. 10 a month in addition to the full pay of the post.

Nors 1.—[Where the employment is in service paid from a local fund, the authority determining whether the pension shall be wholly or partly held in abeyance shall be either—

- (i) the authority administering the local fund, if so empowered by the Local Government by special or general orders in this behalf; or,
- (ii) in any other case, the Local Government or such other authority as the Local Government may prescribe.]

Note 2.—[The restrictions in this Article do not apply to ex-policemen whose pension does not exceed Rs. 10 a month, or to ex-inferior servants.]

Exceptions.

522. The foregoing rules do not apply to pensioners re-employed under the Court of Wards.

523. A pensioner of any class may be employed as an Extra Departmental Agent in the Post Office, or as a Sub-Registrar under the law for the registration of documents remunerated by fees only.

524. Cancelled.

Employment on the Railway Board.

524A. When an officer who is in receipt of a pension from Indian revenues is appointed President or Member of the Railway Board, he shall be allowed to draw his pension in addition to salary. If, however, an officer still in active service is so appointed, he will be ineligible for admission to pension during his tenure of office on the Board.

In Case of Commutation of Pension.

524B. In the case of a pensioner who is re-employed in Government service or in the service of a Local Fund and who commutes a portion of his pension after such re-employment, the amount of pension which the pensioner is entitled to draw under the rules in this Section shall be the amount to which he would have been entitled had there been no commutation, less the amount commuted.

524C. In the case of a pensioner a portion of whose pension has been cemmuted before re-employment, the original amount of the pension should be taken into consideration in fixing the total receipts during re-employment or continued employment and not merely the uncommuted pension.

SECTION III .- MILITARY PENSIONERS.

525. Except where it is otherwise expressly provided, the rules in section II of this chapter do not apply to a military officer, departmental officer, warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier who is taken into or allowed to continue in civil employ '[after he has been granted a pension under military rules]. The claims of such an officer to salary in the Civil Department are governed by Articles 526 to 528. His pension for service in the Civil Department will not be affected by his military pension.

526. (a) When a person formerly in military service obtains employment in the civil department after having been granted a military pension, he shall continue to draw his military pension, but the authority competent to fix the pay and allowances of the post in which he is re-employed shall have, in fixing his pay and allowances in the post in which he is re-employed, the power to take into account the amount of mension, including such portion of it as may have been commuted.

²(b) A military officer, departmental officer, warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier who is granted a pension under military rules while he is in civil employ, shall draw such pension while he is in civil employ, but the authority competent to fix the pay and allowances of the post in civil employ, may, with effect from the date from which the pension is granted, reduce such pay and allowances with reference to such officer or soldier by any amount not exceeding the amount of such rension.

Note.—[If the military pension of a person does not exceed Rs. 9 a month it shall not be taken into account in fixing his pay and allowances in the Civil Department.]

527, 528 and 528-A. Cancelled.

528B. The pension the heir of an Indian Military officer or Non-commissioned officer or soldier, or the heir of a Medical subordinate, will, during employment in any Civil Department, merge in his salary.

 $^{^1\,[\,\,]}$ Substituted for the words "after he has earned a pension under military rules" with effect from the 30th May 1933.

² This revised clause takes effect from the 30th May 1933.

 $^{^3\,\}mathrm{This}$ applies to officer under the rule-making control of the Governor-General in Council.

SECTION IV.—PENSION FOR NEW SERVICE.

- 529. Except as provided in Articles 525 to 528B, an officer who, having been discharged with a pension, is subsequently re-employed, may not count his new service for a separate pension. Pension (if any) is admissible only for the new service combined with the old, the whole being counted as one service.
- 530. If an officer who has obtained a Compensation or Invalid pension is re-employed in pensionable service and retains the pension (see Article 514), the pension or gratuity admissible for his subsequent service is subject to the following limitation, namely, that the gratuity or the capital value of the pension shall not be greater than the difference between the value of the pension that would be admissible at the time of the officer's final retirement, if the two periods of service were combined, and the value of the pension already granted for the previous service.
- 531. (a) If a gratuity received for the earlier service has not been refunded, gratuity or pension (as the case may be) may be allowed for the subsequent service, on condition that the amount of such gratuity or the present value of such pension plus the amount of the previous gratuity shall not exceed the amount of gratuity or the present value of the pension that would have been admissible had the gratuity received for the earlier service been refunded.
- (b) If the amount of such gratuity or the present value of such pension, plus the amount of the previous gratuity, exceed the amount of gratuity or the present value of the pension that would have been admissible if the gratuity received for the earlier service had been refunded, the excess must be disallowed.
- 531A. For the purposes of Articles 530 and 531, the capital or present value of a pension shall be calculated in accordance with the table prescribed by the Governor-General in Council under the "Civil Pensions (Commutation) Rules."

SECTION I.—EXISTING PENSIONS HOW AFFECTED.

532. The following is the Statute Law applicable to the Governor-General, Governors, Lieutenant-Governors and Ordinary Members of the Executive Council of the Governor-General and Members of the Executive Councils of Governors who hold or enjoy pensions:—

"Provided—if any person to whom this section applies holds or enjoys any pension or salary or any office of profit under the Crown or under any public office, his salary under this section shall be reduced by the amount of the pension, salary or profits of office so held or enjoyed by him."—[5 and 6 Geo. 5, Cap. 61, s. 85, (2) (b)].

Note 1.—[The provisions of this Article apply to Members of the Executive Council of a Lieutenant-Governor (vide the Secretary of State's Public Despatch No. 50, dated the 22nd May 1919).]

NOTE 2.—[A good service pension enjoyed by a Military Officer comes within the meaning of pension under the Act cited above.]

Note 3.—[The audit officer concerned, should, in each case, obtain from each of the officials mentioned in the above rule, when he assumes charge of his post, a statement as to whether he is in receipt of any pension, or other payment, on account of which his salary is required to be reduced under this Article.]

533. Cancelled.

SECTION II.—LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORS.

Leave Rules.

- 534. (a) Leave on Medical Certificate for not more than six months may be granted to a Lieutenant-Governor. On resuming his duties after such leave, a Lieutenant-Governor is entitled to half his salary for the period of his absence. If he is prevented from resuming his duties, he is entitled to no absentee allowances.
 - (b) A Lieutenant-Governor is not entitled to any other leave.

NOTE 1.—[Service as a Lieutenant-Governor does not qualify for any leave under the ordinary rules, but does not interrupt any leave previously earned.]

Norz 2.—(The provisions of Article 215 do not apply to a member of the Indian Civil Service who on resigning the office of Lieutenant-Governor takes furlough under the ordinary rules. If he had previously samed Privilege leave and is not debarred from taking it by reason of his having completed 35 years' service, he may avail himself of it on the pay of, but without a lieu upon, the last appointment he held, other than that of a Lieutenant-Governor, Member of Council or Chief Commissioner.

Note 5.—[A Lieutenant-Governor who is granted leave during the term of his office is required to conform to the rule—Article 224 of these Regulations—as obtaining a certificate of fitness to return to duty.]

Acting Lieutenant-Governor.

535. The salary of person appointed to officiate as Lieutenant-Governor is regulated in the same way as the salary of a person appointed to the temporary Member of Council (See Article 539).

SECTION III.—MEMBERS OF COUNCIL.

Tenure of Office.

536. The tenure by a Member of Council of his office begins from the date on which he first takes upon himself the execution of his office whether as a temporary Member appointed in India, or after the issue of His Majesty's warrant of appointment; and the resignation of his office, by a Member of Council whose successor has not entered upon his office, takes effect from the day following that of his embarkation at any port in India, excluding Aden, or from the expiry of his five years' tenure of office, whichever date is earlier. Any time during which a Member of Council (not being himself granted leave) draws less than full pay shall not be computed as part of his five years' tenure of office.

Leave Rules.

537. The leave admissible to an Ordinary Member of the Executive Council of the Governor-General or of the Governor of Madras or Bombay or Bengal or of the Lieutenant-Governor of any Province is regulated by Statute 5 and 6 Geo. 5, Cap. 61, s. 86, as amended by 6 and 7 Geo. 5, Cap. 37, s. 7 (1), as follows:—

"(1) The Governor-General in Council may grant to any of the ordinary members of his executive council and a Governor in Council and a Lieutenant-Geovernor in Council may grant to any member of his executive council leave of absence under medical certificate for a period not exceeding six months.

(2) Where a member of council obtains leave of absence in pursuance of this section, he shall retain his office during his absence, and shall on his return and resumption of his duties be entitled to receive half his salary for the period of his absence; but if his absence exceeds six minths his office shall become vacant."

NOTE 1.—[Service as a Member of Council does not qualify for any leave under the ordinary rules, but does not interrupt any leave previously earned.]

537-539]

Norm 2.—(The provisions of Article 215 do not apply to a member of the Indian Civil Service who on resigning the office of Member of Council takes furlough under the ordinary rules. If he had previously earned Privilege leave and is not debarred from taking it by reason of his having completed 35 years' service, he may avail himself of it on the pay of, but without a lien upon, the last appointment he held, other than that of a Lieutenant-Governor, Member of Council or Chief Commissioner. Leave taken during his tenure of office does not forfeit leave previously earned.)

Norz 3.—[A Member of Council who is granted leave during the term of his office is required to conform to the rule—Article 224 of these Regulations—as regards obtaining a certificate of fitness to return to duty.]

538. Subject to any special orders by the Government of India to the contrary, leave of absence granted to an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor-General (if taken out of India) commences on the day after such Member embarks at any port in India, excluding Aden, and ends on the day before he disembarks at any port in India, excluding Aden: Provided always that such Member has not been relieved of the charge of his office until he embarks, and that he resumes charge immediately upon his disembarkation.

Temporary Member.

539. The salary and the appointment of a temporary Member of the Executive Council of the Governor-General or of the Governor of Madras or Bombay or Bengal. is regulated by Statute 5 and 6 Geo. 5, Cap. 61, s. 92, as amended by 6 and 7 Geo. 5, Cap. 37, s. 7 (1), as follows:—

NOTE 1.—[The headings which are introduced to facilitate reference are not a part of the Statute.]

In case of vacancy.

"(1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of an Ordinary Member of the Executive Council of the Governor-General or any Member of the Executive Council of a Governor, and there is no conditional or other successor present on the spot, the Governor-General in Council or Governor in Council, as the case may be, shall supply the vacancy by appointing a temporary Member of Council.

(2) Until a successor arrives the person so appointed shall hold and execute the office to which he has been appointed, and shall have and may exercise all the rights and powers thereof, and shall be calculated to receive the emoluments and advantages appertaining to the office, foregoing all emoluments and advantages to which he was entitled at the time of his being appointed to that office.

In case of absence.

(3) If any Ordinary Member of the Executive Council of the Governor-General or any Member of the Executive Council of a Governor is, by infirmity or otherwise, rendered incapable of acting or of attending to act as such, or is absent on leave or special duty, then, if any person has been conditionally appointed to succeed to his office and is on the spot, the place of that member shall be supplied by that person, and, if no person conditionally appointed to succeed to the office is on the spot, the Governor-General in Council or Governor in Council, as the case may be, shall appoint some person to be a temporary Member of Council.

(4) Until the return to duty of the member so incapable or absent, the person conditionally or temporarily appointed shall hold and execute the office to which he has been appointed, and shall have and may exercise all the rights and powers thereof, and shall be entitled to receive half the salary of the Member of Council whose place he fills, and also half the salary of any other office which he may hold, if he holds any such office, the remaining half of such last named salary being at the disposal of the Governor-General in Council or Governor in Council, as the case may be.

Proviso.

(5) Provided as follows :-

- (a) no person may be appointed a temporary Member of Council who might not have been appointed under this Act to fill the vacancy supplied by the temporary appointment; and
- (b) if the Secretary of State informs the Governor-General that it is not the intention of His Majesty to fill a vacancy in the Governor-General's Executive Council, no temporary appointment may be made under this section to fill the vacancy, and if any such temporary appointment has been made before the date of receipt of the information by the Governor-General, the tenure of the person temporarily appointed shall cease from that date."

NOTE 2.—[The rules in this Article apply to temporary Members of the Executive Council of a Lieutenant-Governor (vide the Secretary of State's Public Despatch No. 34, dated 25rd February 1912).]

- 540. A Good Service pension comes within the "emoluments and advantages" which a provisional Member of Council appointed on a vacancy occurring in the office of an Ordinary Member must forego.
- 541. An officer so seconded must either return to his regiment at the end of five years, or be struck off its strength on retention in a department for any period beyond that term.—[Indian Army Circulars, Military Department, No. 1451, dated 20th October 1880).

governed by the rules in Articles 104 to 108, and the leave of Military Officers subject to the Civil Leave Rules is granted under the European Service Leave Rules in Chapter XIII.

605. The Local Government may grant Furlough or leave under Military Rules, or Special leave under Article 316 as it stood prior to 29th July 1920, to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules.

Exception.—A Local Government cannot grant furlough or leave under the Military Leave Rules to a Military Officer, who has no substantive appointment in the Civil Department but is holding only a temporary or officiating appointment in that Department, unless it is prepared to re-employ him immediately on the expiry of his furlough or leave.

Norm I.—(The grant of furlough other than on medical certificate to a Military Officer in Civil employ is subject to the condition that a period of not less than eighteen months has elapsed since his last return from Privilege leave of over six weeks' duration. This condition may, however, be relaxed by the Government of India and Provincial Governments in cases in which its enforcement would, in their opinion, cause special hardship to the officer concerned individually or be of material disadvantage to the State.]

Note 2.—[The grant of furlough or leave, other than Privilege leave, out of India to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules carries with it the grant of subsidiary leave under the provisions of Article 322 as it stood prior to 29th July 1920.]

606. A Local Government may also grant Short Leave (under Civil or Military rules, as the case may be) to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules.

Note I.—[This Article also applies to officers of the British Service employed in a Civil Department in India.]

Nors 2.—[Privilege leave in combination with other leave is admissible to a Military Officer in Civil employ under the conditions and limitations in Article 233, as it stood prior to 29th July 1920, but not under the military rules promulgated with India Army Order No. 64, dated 1st February 1904.]

Nors 3.—[A Military Officer employed in the Army Department Secretariat of the Government of India, or as Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor, or as an A.-D.-C. appointed from Military employment, is not entitled to privilege leave under Chapter XII of these Regulations.]

Note 4.—[This Article also applies to Non-Commissioned officers.]

607. No other leave of absence may be granted under the Regulations in Part III to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules.

1. An officer proceeding on furlough or leave under Military Leave Rules forfeits, ipro facto, his lien on any acting appointment. Consequently, a Military Officer in Civil employ, with no substantive appointment in the Civil Department, loses, on proceeding on such furlough or leave, his lien on any temporary or officiating appointment in the Civil Department that he may have held if he has to revert to Military employ in order to obtain the leave.

- 2. An officer does not lose his lien during subsidiary leave preparatory to furlough taken under Military Leave Rules.
- 608. No leave can be granted, under the rules in Part III, to a Departmental Officer or Warrant Officer, except under Article 606.
- 609. The allowances of a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules during subsidiary leave are regulated as if he were subject to the rules relating to Long Leave contained in Fart III as it stood prior to 29th July 1920: Provided that-
 - (i) if under the action of the Leave rules such an officer has lost his lien on his appointment, he draws under Military Leave Rules during his Subsidiary leave;
 - (ii) his allowances on Subsidiary leave must not be less than his allowances during the Furlough to which the leave is subsidiary.

Note .- The subsistence allowance of a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules is that prescribed in Article 68 B (b).]

- 610. Subsidiary leave preparatory to his retirement from the service may be granted to a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules, provided such leave does not vitiate his claim to retire on the date fixed.
- 611. Whenever the Furlough of a Military Officer subject to the Military Leave Rules begins before embarkation or ends after disembarkation, the Audit Officer should inform the Government of India in the Army Department and the account officer in charge of the officer's record of pension service of the date on which it begins or ends

SECTION II.—COMPULSORY RETIREMENT FROM CIVIL EMPLOY.

Ordinary Rules.

612. (a) A Military or Naval Officer in Civil employ, after attaining the age of fifty-five years, shall not, except for special reasons, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, retain his office or be appointed to any new office: Provided that, if such an officer has held his office for less than five years, he may, for special reasons, with the sanction of the Government of India, be permitted to retain his office until he has held it for five years. The term "office" in this Article includes an officiating appointment, and the currency of the period of five years is not interrupted by any subsequent temporary promotion to a higher appointment.

Noze.—[When the sanction of the Secretary of State is required to the extension of the term of service of a Military Officer in Civil employ after attaining the age of 55 years, it should be obtained previous to the event. Sufficient notice must therefore always be given to the Government of India in such cases to admit of a timely reference being made to the Secretary of State.]

(b) The period of five years begins from the date on which the officer first takes up the office, whether substantively or temporarily: Provided that if temporary, he is confirmed without reverting to his substantive appointment; but the currency of the period is not interrupted by any subsequent temporary promotion to a higher appointment.

Exception.—Medical Officers of the administrative grades—namely, Surgeon-Generals and Colonels—are not compelled to retire from the service, until they attain the age of 60 years.

- 613. The undermentioned officers cease to be in Civil employ on attaining the age of 55 years:—
 - (a) Military Officers in the Survey of India, unless specially permitted by the Secretary of State, in the interests of the public service, to remain in the department for a further definite period;
 - (b) Officers of the Indian Medical Service below the rank of Colonel, except Lieutenant-Colonels who are granted extensions of service beyond the age of 55 years until they complete 30 years' service;
 - (c) Departmental Officers and Warrant Officers.
- 614. On succession to the Colonel's allowance, a Military Officer (not holding an appointment the tenure of which is limited to five years) must vacate any Civil appointment which he then holds. But, with the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, he is eligible for re-appointment or for employment in the same or any other appointment, at the discretion of the Government of India in the Army Department. In such a case, his Civil pay will be reduced by the amount of his Colonel's allowance, which will be included in, and not given in addition to, his consolidated salary.

Public Works Department.

- 615. The compulsory retirement of military officers in the Public Works Department or in the Engineering Department of State Railways, who are proved to be unfit for further advancement is regulated by Article 353-A. and Note 3 thereunder. But any such officer, who on reaching the age of 50 years has not attained the rank of Superintending Engineer, will be liable to be called upon to vacate his appointment by the Government of India.
- 616. Military Officers in the Public Works, Railway and Telegraph Departments cease to be in Civil employ on attaining the age of 55 years.
- 617. A Military Officer serving in the Public Works or Railway Department must vacate absolutely any appointment he may hold in that Department on succession to the Colonel's allowance.

618. Omitted.

- 619. (a) Article 616 applies to officers of Royal Engineers serving in the Public Works and Railway Departments.
- (b) Officers of the Royal Engineers, who have attained or hereinafter may attain the rank of General Officers, must vacate their appointments in the Public Works and Railway Departments. But if an officer at the time of so vacating office is a Chief Engineer. 1st class, or holds a post carrying that rank, he may be continued in the position which he had been required to vacate, for the remainder of the term of five years referred to in clause (c), unless in the meantime he must vacate office by some other Regulations. Officers of the Royal Engineers holding rank below that of Chief Engineer, 1st class. vacating office under this rule are not ordinarily eligible for reappointment to the Public Works or Railway Department, but exceptions to this rule may, at the discretion of the Government of India. be made in the case of officers who, on account of specially accelerated Military promotion for distinguished service in the field, have reached the rank of Major-General without attaining the departmental rank of Chief Engineer, 1st class.
- (c) No Chief Engineer of the Corps of Royal Engineers shall, without re-appointment, hold the same post for more than five years.
- (d) The foregoing rules are applicable to officers of Royal Engineers who hold the post of Secretary or of Deputy Secretary to the Government of India in the Public Works Department.

Norm.—(The period of five years referred to in clause (c) begins to run from the date on which the officer first becomes entitled to draw the full pay of the appointment whether holding the appointment substantively or only in an officiating capacity: provided that, if officiating, he is confirmed in the appointment without a break of service.]

Leave after Completion of Period of Civil Employ.

620. (a) No leave but privilege leave may be granted to a Military Officer in Civil employ, whether subject to the Civil or Military Leave Rules or to any Naval Officer who is more than 55 years old. Any leave, other than privilege leave, granted in the Civil Department to a Military or Naval Officer in Civil employ before he is 55 years old ceases to have effect on his fifty-fifth birthday, on which date he reverts to Military employ. The absentee allowances of a Military Officer in Civil employ on leave other than privilege leave becomes a Military charge, and he becomes subject to Military Rules on his fifty-fifth birthday, whether his leave was granted in the Military or the Civil Department.

NOTE.—[In the case of a Military or Naval Officer in Civil employ, who reverts to Military employ under the operation of the rules in this Section, privilege leave cannot be granted at the end of the service in the Civil Department for any period which will expire within the three months previous to his reversion.]

(b) In applying clause (a) to Medical Officers of the administrative grades, namely, Surgeon-Generals and Colonels, "sixty" or "sixtieth," as the case may be should be substituted for "fifty-five" or fifty-fifth."

Chapter XXIX .- Civil Veterinary Department.

Norm.—[The rules contained in this Chapter apply only to those officers of the Civil Veterinary Department who were transferred to it from the Army Veterinary Department.]

Acting Allowance and Leave Rules.

- 621. Officers officiating in the Department draw the pay of their Military rank plus half the Civil allowance attached to that rank.
- 622. The leave and leave allowances of Civil Veterinary Officers are regulated by the rules in Chapter XIII applicable to Military Officers subject to the Civil Leave Rules, with the following special conditions:—
 - (a) While on furlough during which half average salary is admissible under the rules in Chapter XIII, Civil Veterinary Officers draw half the pay of their military rank plus half their civil allowances, subject to the limits laid down in Article 316 for Military Officers subject to the Civil Leave Rules.
 - (b) Civil Veterinary Officers are treated, in applying the rules mentioned, as if they had, before entering the Civil Department, been subject to the leave rules for the Indian Army (1886) from the date of their arrival in India.

Note 1.—[For the purposes of this rule, the date of arrival in India must be held to be the date of arrival on the last tour of service.]

Note 2.—[An officer must be substantively appointed to the Department or have officiated continuously in it for three years, before he can become subject to the Civil Leave Rules; but an officer subject to Civil Leave Rules at the time of joining the Department counts all service rendered under those rules as service for Civil furlough.]

Note 3.—[Previous service in an appointment which has been absorbed into the Civil Veterinary Department counts, for the purpose of these rules, as service (substantive or officiating, as the case may be) in that Department.]

Pension Rules.

- 623. The pension rules of the Civil Veterinary Department are as follows:—
 - (a) No officer becomes qualified for pension under the scale fixed for the Department until he has rendered ten years' service in it.

(b) Pensions are granted at the rates prescribed for the Army Veterinary Department by the Army Regulations in force for the time being plus an addition made on the following scale:—

After 10 years service in the Civil Veterinary Department . . . 72 a year.

After 15 years service in the Civil Veterinary Department . . . 96 ,,

After 20 years service in the Civil Veterinary Department . . . 120 ,

- (c) Leave, apart from privilege leave, counts as service qualifying towards pension to the extent of two months for every year of actual service.
- (d) Retirement is optional after twenty years' service and allowed on medical certificate after fifteen years' service. An officer, who resigns the Civil Veterinary Department before retirement, forfeits all claims to pension under the scale fixed for the Department.

Officers retiring before having completed ten years' service in Civil employ are dealt with under Military rules for pension or gratuity. In the case of an officer invalided before completing ten years' service in the Civil Veterinary Department, the gratuity or pension earned by him under Military rules is increased in the same proportion as the total Civil allowances bear to the total Military allowances earned by him during his period of service in India.

Note 1.—[Previous service in an appointment absorbed in the Civil Veterinary Department counts as service rendered in that Department for the purposes of this rule.]

Note 2.—[This Article does not apply to officers of and above the rank of Deputy Superintendent who come under Article 349-A.]

624. The rules in Chapter XXVIII relating to the retirement of Military Officers in Civil employ upon attaining the age of 55 years apply to Army Veterinary Officers in the Civil Veterinary Department.

- 629. If a Coopers Hill Engineer is, after completing his three years' residence at College required to go through a course of practical engineering in England under a Civil or Mechanical Engineer, his service, unless another date should be specified in his letter of appointment, will reckon from the commencement of the practical course, or from such later date as will be consistent with the regulation that he may count as service towards pension the time spent on such practical course to the extent of one year only.
- 630. The service of a Coopers Hill Engineer, whose case is not provided for in Article 628 or 629, and who does not land in India by the 1st December, and that of any other Civil Engineer appointed by the Sceretary of State counts from the date on which he lands in India.

Cases of purely temporary deputation may be dealt with under Article 376 of these Regulations if the conditions of that Article are fulfilled.]

Norm 2.—(A pensionable servant transferred in the interests of the public service and by competent authority, from one Railway to another, in the same capacity, or on analogous work in the same Department of the Railway Establishments, and on a salary which does not exceed by more than 25 per cent. his pay in the pensionable appointment, retains his pensionable status.]

- (d) An officer on furlough is entitled to half the substantive pay of his appointment, excluding all allowances except personal allowances.

Norg.—[An officer compelled to take furlough, or leave on medical certificate, out of India owing to ill-health is entitled to the henefits of Article 342 as it stood prior to 29th July 1920. In applying that Article the term "pay" should be substituted for "salary."

(e) The service towards first or subsequent furlough is not cancelled by the grant of sick leave; but an interval of three years of service must elapse between the return of an officer from sick leave lasting more than sixty days and the grant of any furlough that may be due to him.

Note.—[The Government of India may relax the condition requiring an interval of 3 years to elapse since last return from sick leave, before furlough can be granted under this Article, in cases in which its enforcement would, in their opinion, cause special hardship to the officer concerned individually or be of material disadvantage to the State. 7

(f) When an officer has earned either first or subsequent furlough, if from any cause it may be found inconvenient to grant him the whole of the furlough earned, an instalment may be granted, leaving the balance at his credit to be taken when convenient, subject, however, to the maximum limit of eighteen months prescribed above.

Leave in consequence of Accidents.

665. To all non-pensionable servants other than gazetted officers, leave in India on full pay may be granted by Agents of State Railways in addition to any leave otherwise admissible for the period during which they may be absent from duty for medical treatment, in consequence of accidents met with in the execution of duty, subject to a limit of six months and to record in the minutes of official meetings. The period of absence is treated entirely as duty and does not interrupt privilege leave or deprive the absentee of any allowance of the character of salary or local allowance.

Note.—[Heads of Departments of State Railways may grant leave under this Article to non-pensionable subordinates on salaries not exceeding Rs. 250 a month.]

Labourers.

- 666. Labourers in State Railway workshops employed upon daily wages when temporarily absent from work in consequence of injuries sustained while on duty in workshops, etc., may, under authority of the Agent of the State Railway concerned, be granted full pay up to a maximum of 6 months. Heads of Departments of State Railways may, in similar circumstances, sanction the grant of allowances not exceeding—
 - (i) fifty rupees (ii) one month's pay, (iii) in cases where the absence is less than a month, the pay which the absentee would have earned during the period of leave if he were present on duty.

Recovery of Advances.

- 667. (a) Advances whether made in India (see Articles 64 to 66) or by the Home Government should be recovered by monthly instalments of one-third salary except in the case of Covenanted Mechanics, Boiler Makers, etc., from whom the recoveries shall be in monthly instalments of one-sixth salary.

The services of all clerks appointed after the 31st January 1889 to all Consulting Engineers' and Fort Storekeepers' Offices, and of all Accountants and clerks appointed after the 16th July 1889 to any of the Offices of Government Examiners of Railway Accounts, do not qualify for pension unless transferred from a permanent pensionable post.

Pension.

- 726. The following rules regulate the pensions of members of the Burma Military Folice mentioned in Article 714 (a):—
- (a) Soldiers joining the Police may elect to remain under military rules for pension. In that case no deductions from pay will be made on account of pension, and the pensions are regulated as if the soldiers held Army rank as shown below:—
 - 1. Native Officers in receipt of Rs. 100 to Rs. 150
 . as Subadars.

 2. ,, ,, Rs. 50 to Rs. 65
 . as Jamadars.

 3. Native Non-Commissioned Officers as Havildars.
- (b) If on joining the Police they do not elect to remain under Military Pension Rules, a deduction from pay of one-half anna in the rupee shall be made: the previous service in the Army qualifies for pension under the Civil Service Regulations, and the pensions admissible are determined by rules of those Regulations applicable to policemen. If the soldier returns to the Army from the Police, the amounts deducted are refunded and the Police service counts towards Army pension.
- (c) In the case of policemen who elect for Military Rules, the claims of heirs to pension are regulated by Military Rules, and in the case of those who elect the rules of the Civil Service Regulations, heirs can claim pension only in the special cases provided for in Chapter XXXVIII.
- (d) Men who joined the Force, otherwise than from the Army, are only entitled to such pensions and on such conditions as the Civil Pension Rules for Policemen permit.

- (e) Service in Burma is held to be "Foreign Service" within the meaning of Article 1062 of the Army Regulations, India, Volume I, in case of all men of the Native Army not being Natives of Burma, and is, therefore, so considered in the case of all men of the Upper Burma Military Police subject to the Military Pension Rules of the Native Army.
- 727. (a) In the case of members of the Burma Military Police mentioned in clauses (b) to (g) of Article 714, the rules in the Civil Service Regulations apply as regards pensions, except Salutris and Armourers who joined the Upper Burma Military Police from the Army before the 1st January 1889 who are subject as regards pensions to Article 726, clauses (a) to (c).
- (b) Pension under the Civil Rules for the period of their past Military as well as their Police service is granted to the Native Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of the Burma Military Police referred to in clause (a) who have been or may be recruited direct from the Army after 1888, when volunteering was closed, on the condition that they complete 10 years' qualifying service in the Burma Military Police in addition to their service in the Army; but those who retire with less than 10 years' qualifying service in the Burma Military Police will be granted pension on the military scale according to their rank for the whole period of their service, that in the Police being included. This concession applies only to those men whose services were obtained from the Army on special application.

Chapter XXXVIII.—Wound and other Extraordinary Pensions.

SECTION I.—GENERAL RULES.

- 728. (a) Subject to the provisions of Article 729, the rules in this Chapter apply to all persons in civil employ (and to all persons employed in a civil capacity under the Army Department) whether their employment is permanent, temporary or casual and whether remunerated by fixed pay or by piece-work rates: Provided that, in the case of a person to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, applies,—
 - (1) an award shall be paid under the provisions of this Chapter only if the authority competent to sanction it considers that the compensation payable under the Act is, in the particular case, inadequate; and
 - (2) the amount of an award paid to any such person shall not exceed the difference between the amount otherwise admissible under these rules and the amount of compensation payable under the Act.
- (b) In the case of persons remunerated by piece-work rates pay for the purposes of this Chapter means the average earnings of the last six months of service immediately preceding death or the receipt of injury.
 - 729. The rules in this chapter do not apply to-
 - (a) persons paid from the Defence Services Estimates (except Class II followers and religious teachers of Indian Units) who in the matter of service pensions or gratuities are governed by the rules in pension Regulations for the Army in India.
 - (b) Non-combatant departmental and regimental civilian employees holding regular appointments and remunerated by pay or salary from the Defence Services Estimates (including those employed in the Military Accounts Department), in receipt of pay less than Rs. 200 per mensem, if they were recruited before the 18th October 1932.

The claims of these men and of their dependants to wound and other extraordinary pensions and gratuities should be dealt with under Pension Regulations for the Army in India.

730. Government do not bind themselves to grant a pension or gratuity in every case, or, if they grant a pension, to grant it for life.

731. Every grant of pension under this Chapter is subject to the provisions of Article 351.

. 732. In cases where considerable delay has occurred in applying for an extraordinary pension, the grant, if any, will take effect only from the date of the report by the medical board, or, in the case of a family pension, from such date as the sanctioning authority may decide. Otherwise the grant may be made with effect from the date of wound, injury, or death; except that, when it is made under Army Regulations, it has effect from the date therein prescribed.

733. In cases falling clearly and strictly within the letter of the rules in this Chapter, the Local Government may exercise, in relation to Government servants under its administrative control, all powers conferred by the rules upon the Government of India other than the powers conferred by Articles 739, 741-A, 743, 746-D, 746-E and by the Notes under Articles 740 and 746-B.

734. All awards involving expenditure chargeable to British revenues should be reported without delay to the Secretary of State.

735. When a grant under these rules is made in India to an European officer, the authority sanctioning the grant shall inform the Secretary of State in order that a grant of a like nature may not be made by any authority in the United Kingdom in respect of the same casualty.

736. When it is necessary to convert sterling pensions or gratuities awarded under the rules in this Chapter into rupees, or rupee pensions or gratuities into sterling, the conversion shall be effected at the rate of exchange fixed for the conversion of ordinary civil pensions.

737. Subject to the provisions of the 'Civil Pensions (Commutation) Rules,' the recipient of a pension awarded under the rules in this Chapter may be allowed to commute a portion of it.

738. (a) If an officer is incapacitated for further civil service in consequence of a wound, injury or disability, in respect of which an extraordinary gratuity or pension is awarded to him under the provisions of this Chapter, he will be eligible to receive, in addition to such extraordinary gratuity or pension, any ordinary civil pension or gratuity for which he may be eligible under the Civil Service Regulations.

(b) In the event of his total qualifying service for civil pension rendering him eligible for invalid gratuity only, as distinguished from pension, be may notwithstanding, be granted at his option a pension calculated as follows in lieu of the gratuity:—

- (i) If he is a member of the Indian Civil Service, at the rate of £30 a year for each completed year of active service, including any period passed with a military force in the circumstances described in Article 739.
- (ii) In other cases, at the rate of one-sixtieth of his average emoluments or each completed year of service for pension, including any period passed with a military force in the circumstances described in Article 739.

Note.—[For the purpose of calculating ordinary civil pension or gratuity in the case of an officer who has been serving in a military capacity with a military force (see Article 744), his "emoluments" during the period of such service shall be taken to be those which he would have drawn if he had remained in civil employ, the calculation being made according to the "next below" rule where applicable.]

SECTION II.—WOUNDS, INJURIES, OR OTHER DISABILITIES SUSTAINED BY A CIVIL OFFICER WHILE SERVING WITH A MILITARY FORCE.

739. The rules in this Section apply to officers serving in circumstances justifying their presence with a military force if the connection of the officer with the force can reasonably be held to be due wholly or in part to the fact that he was at the time a civil officer of the Government of India or a Local Government. This may be assumed without question in the case of any officer ealled out for actual service as a member of the Indian Army Reserve of Officers or of the Auxiliary Force, India, or the Indian Territorial Force, or attached to an Indian unit or to a force under the orders of the Government of India or operating in a country continguous to India. If in any other case doubt arises as to the applicability or otherwise of the rules in this Section, the decision will rest with the Government of India, subject if they think it desirable, to reference to the Secretary of State for India in Council.

742. A civil officer in receipt of pay of less than Rs. 200 a month, who may be serving in a civil capacity with a military force, may be granted by the Government of India a wound or injury pension or gratuity, and the family of such an officer, if he is killed on such service or dies of an illness or injury due to such service, may granted a family pension, under the following rules :-

- (a) the scale of wound and injury pensions and gratuities which would be applicable, under Article 742, in his case,
- (b) the severity and probable permanence of the disability, and
- (c) the extent to which the disability may be merely an aggravation of one previously existing.

B .-- CIVIL OFFICERS SERVING IN A MILITARY CAPACITY WITH A MILITARY FORCE.

744. If a civil officer of Government who is a member of the Auxiliary Force, India, or the Indian Territorial Force, is called out on actual military service, or if a civil officer is otherwise serving in a military capacity with a military force in circumstances justifying his presence, he may elect, if wounded, injured or otherwise disabled as a direct result of such service, to be treated either under the conditions laid down in Articles 740-743 for a civil officer who is serving in a civil capacity with a military force, or under the military regulations governing his employment on military service. In the latter case, the award will be governed by his actual military rank. The election may be made at any time during the service or after it.

Note.—[If a civil officer serving in a military capacity with a military force elects to be treated under the conditions laid down in Articles 740—745, his pay, for the purpose of those Articles, shall be taken to be that which he would have drawn if he had remained in civil employ, the calculation being made according to the "next-below" rule where applicable.]

745. The family of a civil officer who loses his life through service in a military capacity with a military force will be treated according to the rules, civil or military, which the officer may have elected for himself, or, if no such election has been made, the family will be given the benefit of the rules most favourable to them.

SECTION III.—WOUNDS, INJURIES, OR OTHER DISABILITIES SUSTAINED OTHERWISE THAN ON SERVICE WITH A MILITARY FORCE.

746. (1) The rules in this Section provide for the grant of a pension or a gratuity to an officer who is injured, and to the family of such an officer who is killed or dies of injuries received, in the execution of public duty in circumstances other than those specified in Section II.

Note.—[Military personnel who receive wounds or injuries in the discharge of civil duties, and the families of those officers who die of such wounds or injuries, have no claim to injury gratuities and pensions under military rules and will be dealt with under the rules in this Section.]

- (2) No gratuity or pension shall be sanctioned under this Section except after the necessary medical report and the report of the audit officer have been obtained, provided that if the officer lost his life in circumstances which render it impossible to procure a medical report, reliable evidence of the actual occurrence of death may be accepted in lieu thereof.
- 746-A. (a) When a claim for an extraordinary pension or grauity under this Section arises, the head of the department or of the office in which the deceased or injured officer was employed will hold a formal inquiry, taking evidence as to—
 - (i) the circumstances in which the injury was received or the life lost;
 - (ii) in the case of a death, the relationship and the pecuniary circumstances of the claimants.
- (b) He will then submit the case, with a statement of the circumstances, through the usual channel to the Local Government or the Government of India, as the case may be. The application should be in Forms Nos. 25 and 26 in the case of an officer injured, and in Form No. 22 in the case of a deceased officer.
- 746-B. Except as provided below, grants under this Section may be made only when injury or death is met in the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of increasing the officer's liability to injury or death beyond the ordinary risk of the civil appointment held by him. No claims shall be admitted on account of loss of life or bodily injury resulting form an accident to which an officer may be liable under the ordinary conditions of civil life or in connection with the ordinary discharge of his duty.

Note.—(The object of this rule is to limit the grant of a pension or gratuity under this Section strictly to the cases for which it is intended. It is obviously inexpedient for the Government to dispense charity in individual cases, or to do anything which might weaken the inducement to officers to secure proper provision for their families. All doubtful cases should be referred for the orders of the Government of India, who have been authorised to decide in such cases whether the conditions of this rule have been fulfilled with due regard to the principles laid down in it.

It has been decided by the Secretary of State that the performance of operations on venereal or septicemic patients, or the attendance by nurses or medical subordinates on such patients may be treated as duty involving extraordinary bodily risk. Any grant in accordance with this decision requires the sanction of the Government of India.]

746-BB. Where a police officer is injured or killed whilst in the actual performance of, or in consequence of, his duty, a gratuity or pension may, if the injury or death was intentionally inflicted or caused, be granted to him or to his family, as the case may be, on the scale prescribed in Article 746-C.

746-C. If, in the circumstances described in Article 746-B, it be decided to award a gratuity or pension to a civil officer or his family, and the injury or death in respect of which the grant is to be made has been caused otherwise than on service with a military force, the amount and conditions of the award shall be those prescribed in Subsection A of Section II above, except that the award shall be made without reference to the military rank which might under rule have been assigned to the officer in the field if he had been serving with a military force, or to his actual military rank if he is a Military officer in civil employ.

748-D. The Government of India have discretionary power to award extraordinary pensions or gratuities in special cases where the conditions of Article 746-B are not strictly fulfilled, as, for instance, when a officer is killed or injured in, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duties, or because of his official position. Any case in which it appears to the Government of India that the claim to an extraordinary pension or gratuity is doubtful should be referred for the decision of the Secretary of State.

746-E. If, in the circumstances described in Article 746-D, it be decided to award a pension or gratuity to a civil officer or his family. the amount of the award shall be fixed by the Government of India with reference to the character and service of the officer, the nature of the risk undergone and his conduct in accepting it, and the pecuniary circumstances and propects of the claimant, the maximum award being that which would be admissible in a corresponding case falling under Article 746-B. The form and conditions of the award shall ordinarily be the same as those prescribed for a corresponding case under that Article, but the Government of India may modify these at their discretion, e.g., they may award an equivalent gratuity in lieu of pension, or vice versa, if they think that this would be to the benefit of the recipient or desirable on grounds of administrative convenience.

747. Subject only to such conditions as they may impose, the Government of India may grant to an officer who has been severely injured or has contracted a serious disease in the execution of public duty, or to the family of an officer who has died from the effects of such injury or disease, an extraordinary pension not exceeding Rs. 25 a month, or a gratuity not exceeding the equivalent of that amount or Rs. 1,000, whichever may be greater.

Note 1.-[The power of the Government of India under this Article may be exercised by the Railway Board in respect of railway servants.]

Note 2.—[A gratuity or pension may be granted under this Article to a village watchman (including a municipal chaukidar in the United Provinces) or his family, even though he receives no pay from the State.]

Norm 3.—[Superintending Engineers in the Public Works Department may be authorised by a Local Government to grant a gratuity under this Article read with Article 735, not exceeding Rs. 20 or two months' pay, whichever is less, to a day labourers or mechanic injured, or to his representatives if he is killed, in the execution of duty by causes beyond his control.]

- 747-A. State Railway Servants.—The following special rules apply in the case of State Railway servants who are injured, or the dependents of such servants who are killed, in the discharge of their duties, in accidents caused by the working of trains or railway engines, otherwise than through their own negligence or wilful action:—
 - An employé permanently disabled while on duty may be awarded a gratuity not exceeding 24 months' emoluments, or, if his service is under 24 months, 12 months' emoluments.
 - (2) The widow or dependents of a railway employé killed or dying of injuries received while on duty may be awarded a gratuity not exceeding 24 months' emoluments, or, if his service is under 24 months, 12 months' emoluments.
 - (3) An employé who sustains partial disablement as the result of a railway accident rendering him unfit for reversion to his former occupation, and for whom no other suitable employment can be found, may be awarded a gratuity not exceeding 12 months' emoluments.
 - (4) For the purposes, of rules, (1), (2) and (3), "emoluments" shall be taken at (i) the average amount for the last 12 months' service of the employé if his service is not less than 12 months and (ii) the average amount drawn during his whole service if it is less than 12 months.

- (5) The gratuity admissible in any case is subject to a maximum of Rs. 15.000.
- Note 1.—[Gratuities within the maximum limits mentioned in this Article may be sanctioned by the Railway Board in all cases. Agents of State Railways are authorised to sanction gratuities under this Article, provided that the grant in any single case shall not exceed Rs. 6,000.]
- Note 2.—[Officials of the Railway Mail Service are eligible in the same way as State Railway servants under this Article for the grant of gratuities to those who may be injured, or to the representatives of those who may be killed, in railway accidents. For the purpose of this rule, the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs exercises powers similar to those exercised by Agents of State Railways in respect of State Railway servants.]

Note 3.—[This Article applies to servants of railway companies working State lines. It does not apply to State Railway servants or companies' servants injured or killed in railway accidents otherwise than in the discharge of their duties. In their case, as well as that of other Government servants injured or killed in railway accidents while travelling on civil duty, compensation is payable under the rules applicable to ordinary passengers.]

Part VII.—FOREIGN SERVICE; REGULAR ESTABLISHMENTS THE COST OF WHICH IS RECOVERED BY GOVERNMENT; SERVICE UNDER LOCAL FUNDS.

Chapter XXXIX.—Foreign Service.

Extent of Application.

749-A. The revised rules in this Part will apply only to cases in which officers are transferred to Foreign Service after the 1st August 1913. In the case of officers transferred to Foreign Service before this date, the old rules contained in the original fifth edition of these Regulations should continue to be applied.

749-B. It is to understood that, unless the Local Government is expressly given authority to make exceptions, all deviations from the Foreign Service Rules require the sanction of the Government of India, whose powers in this respect remain unaltered.

Definition.

750. Foreign Service is of two kinds, viz. :-

First.—The service of an officer transferred to service under an employer who is not under the orders of Government and is allowed while in such service to maintain his claim to pension or to leave and pension in the same way as if he were still in the service of Government.

Examples.—Officers lent to Egypt, to an Indian State, a Railway Company, a Port Trust, a Municipality, a District Board or other Local Fund.

Second.—The service of an officer employed in connection with the management by Government of estates or funds which they have taken under their control or received in trust, and paid from the revenues of such estates or from such funds. The service must be strictly connected with the management by Government and appointments existing apart from, or continuing after relinquishment of, Government control can be made only under the conditions of foreign service of the first kind.

 $\it Examples.-$ Administrators of Indian States under direct management, Managers of Courts of Wards' Estates.

General Conditions applicable to Foreign Service.

751. An officer transferred to foreign service remains subject to the general and disciplinary rules which would have applied to him as a servant of Government had he not been so transferred.

752. An officer who belongs to a graded service is allowed the substantive promotion which he would have received had he not been transferred. One who does not belong to a graded service shall not be given substantive promotion in Government service without the specific sanction of the authority who would have been competent to grant the promotion if he had remained in Government service. Nor shall he at the time of his reversion be promoted to a higher appointment than he held at the time of his transfer without the specific sanction of the authority who would have been competent to promote him to that appointment had he continued in Government service. And such promotion shall not be given unless the nature of the officer's duties and the manner in which he has discharged them qualify him for it. An officer whose appointment under Government is one on progressive or a time-scale of pay counts time spent in foreign service for increments.

Note.—[An officer who belongs to a graded service may also be allowed officiating or temporary promotion, which he would have received had he not been transferred, which counts towards additional pension under Articles 644 (b) and 475, (livil Service Regulations.]

- 753. An officer in foreign service may not elect to withhold contribution and forfeit the right to count as Government service the time spent in foreign employ. The contribution paid by or for him maintains his claim to pension or, if contribution is paid for leave allowance also, to pension and leave allowance in accordance with the rules of the service to which he belongs. Neither he, nor anybody which has paid contribution on his behalf, has any right of property in such contribution nor can any claim for refund be entertained.
- 754. An officer of Government, who is lent on foreign service conditions, may not, except with the sanction of the Government of India, accept a pension or gratuity from his foreign employer in respect of such service.
- 755. (a) An officer retains while on foreign service a lien upon a substantive office under Government, and when he reverts to Government service either temporarily or permanently, he resumes substantively the position in his service or establishment which he held when he was transferred, or to which he may have attained in accordance with the rule in Article 752.
- (b) If an officer proceeds on leave from his foreign service appointment he shall not ordinarily be considered to revert to Government service unless and until he rejoins his appointment in British service.

Where, however, the foreign service is under the control of the Local Government, to service under which an officer reverts on relinquishing such foreign service, that Government may determine the date on which the officer may be treated as reverting to British service.

Where the foreign service is under the control of the Government of India, the officer shall be held to revert to Government service from the date on which his services are replaced at the service of the Local Government or Imperial Department to which he belongs.

756. The salary of an officer appointed to act in a sanctioned appointment in foreign service and the joining time and transit pay of an officer proceeding to, or returning from, foreign service, are regulated in accordance with the rules in Part II of these Regulations.

Note.—[The Local Government may, in special circumstances, allow an officer salary in excess of the limits prescribed in this Article but not exceeding the full pay of the appointment, provided that the pay of the appointment does not exceed the limits up to which the Local Government can sanction transfers to foreign service, i.e., Rs. 2,500 or Rs. 1,250 a month, according as the officiating officer does or does not belong to an Imperial service.]

757. An officer in foreign service who is appointed to act in an appointment under Government draws as salary the pay of his appointment under Government on which he has a lien and acting allowance on the pay of the appointment in which he acts. His pay in foreign service is not taken into account in fixing his salary in a Government appointment.

758. When an officer is transferred to foreign service he draws salary from his foreign employer, and contribution is paid to Government, either by or for him, from the date on which he relinquishes charge of his appointment under Government. An officer reverting to duty under Government ceases to draw pay from the foreign employer and contribution is discontinued from the date on which he resumes charge of his appointment under Government. The travelling allowances of an officer both when proceeding on transfer to foreign service and when reverting to duty under Government shall be borne by the foreign employer.

759. An officer lent on foreign service conditions to an Indian State or Local fund will not be allowed to retire voluntarily from the British service on pension while remaining in that of the Indian State or Local fund.

Note.—[For the purpose of this Article, retirement may be assumed to be voluntary unless under the rules in Parts IV and V of these Regulations, an officer (1) retires on medical certificate, or (2) is discharged on the abolition of his appointment in British service, or (3) is required to retire on attaining a certain age or on completing a certain period of service, or (4) in cases where he is not so required to retire compulsorily, retires on reaching the age of 55 years.]

760. When any officer lent on foreign service conditions retires from British service (see Article 759) without, at the same time, retiring from the service of his foreign employer, the audit officer shall communicate to the foreign employer through the usual authorities a statement showing the date of retirement and the amount of pension drawn from the British Government with a view of enabling the roreign employer, if so inclined, to revise the existing terms of employment.

- 761. (a) An officer who during leave desires to take up employment in India must obtain the previous sanction of competent authority thereto. If the post is one which should in the opinion of such authority be filled by a servant of Government he must be transferred in accordance with the rules of this Chapter.
- (b) An officer who during leave out of India desires to enter foreign service out of India must obtain the previous sanction of the Secretary of State who will decide whether the officer shall be transferred to foreign service and, if so, will prescribe the terms of salary and contribution.
- (c) From the date on which an officer enters foreign service he ceases to be on leave and to draw leave allowances from Government.

Note 1.—[The authority referred to in clause (a) of this Article is, in the case of a non-gazetted officer, the officer empowered to appoint such officer, and, in the case of a gazetted officer, the Local Government.]

NOTE 2.—[If it be decided to allow the officer to take up employment without entering foreign service he shall be permitted to draw his leave allowances in addition to any emoluments paid to him by the employer.]

Sanction to Transfer to, and Pay in, Foreign Service.

- 762. Transfer to foreign service is not permissible—
 - (i) unless the transfer is in the public interest, that is, the service is such as should, for public reasons, be rendered by a servant of Government;
 - (ii) unless the officer holds, when his transfer is effected, an appointment in qualifying service on an establishment paid from General Revenues.

Norz.—[Service under a laudholder who retains the management of his own estate or under such a body as the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, or under societies for the encouragement of agricultural or veterinary development, has at times been sanctioned on foreign service conditions. Service of this character, however, is properly private employment; the loan of a Government officer for such purposes should be wholly exceptional and should not be allowed unless in the opinion of the Local Government a public advantage is secured which would otherwise be unattainable.]

- 763. Transfers and appointments may be sanctioned by the Local Government under which the officer is serving, provided (a) the transfer is to foreign service in India, (b) the officer's pay in foreign service does not exceed Rs. 2,500 a month if he belongs to an Imperial service (Article 29-B), and in other cases Rs. 1,250 a month, and (c) the officer has rendered five years' service qualifying for pension. Condition (c) may be relaxed by the Local Government* under which the officer is serving at the time of the transfer; it does not apply to the following officers:—
 - (i) Officers subject to the leave rules in Chapter XIII and officers of the Army and the Royal Indian Marine.

- (ii) Employés in the Survey, Forest, Medical, Veterinary and Agricultural Departments with technical qualifications.
- (iii) Officers transferred to foreign service of the second kind.
- (iv) Officers transferred to temporary appointments.

NOTE.—[Local Governments should be on their guard against endeavours to use the service of Government merely as a means of entrance with pensionable status into foreign service.]

- Temporary appointments are those which last not more than six months. In judging whether an appointment falls within this class, the duration of the appointment should be considered, not the duration of the particular officer's employment.
 - 2. The Local Government may by general or special order-
 - (a) delegate to any authority subordinate to it power to transfer to foreign service within the province any officer whom such authority can, without reference to higher authority, appoint or transfer in the ordinary course of administration,
 - (b) delegate power to sanction transfers to temporary appointments outside the province.
- The Government of Madras is empowered to transfer to service in Ceylon without a reference to the Government of India any officer not belonging to an Imperial service.
- 764. Pay and allowances in foreign service in India may be fixed within the limits specified in Article 763 by the authority sanctioning the transfer. The latter should in doing so be guided_by the following general principles which should only be departed from for very special reasons, to be duly recorded:—
 - I.—The pay of an officer transferred to a post, the duties of which are similar to those of the appointment which he held when transferred, should be fixed at a sum which does not exceed by more than 25 per cent. his last pay in British service, or, if he is acting in a grade or appointment from which he is unlikely to revert, his last salary.
 - II.—An officer transferred to an unusually responsible or difficult post or to one the duties of which differ from those of his appointment under Government, should receive pay specially fixed with reference to his status and pay in the service of Government, and the nature of the work for which he is transferred.
 - III.—When the transfer is to an Indian State, the Local Government may allow the officer concessions not exceeding those specified in Rule II of Appendix 31.

 This rule is absolute and Local Governments are not empowered to allow greater concessions. In other cases, officers may be allowed travelling and conveyance allowance on such scale as the Local Government considers adequate; no other kind of allowances should ordinarily be sanctioned as they should be allowed for in fixing the pay of the officers in foreign service. In special cases in which the Local Government considers them necessary, exchange compensation and local allowances may be sanctioned, subject in the former case to the provisions of Article 41-G. of the Civil Accounts Code, as also the payment of leave and pension contributions by the foreign employer, the value of these concessions being taken into account in fixing the pay of the officers in foreign service.

IV.-Increases of pay should be regulated as follows:-

(a) An officer, whose pay is fixed under rule I and who belongs to a graded service or who is on progressive pay or in a service in which pay is regulated by a time-scale, may on the occasion of each substantive promotion on his departmental list, or accrual of a periodical increment, be granted an increase equal to that which such promotion or increment would have given him in British service plus a sum not exceeding 20 per cent. thereon.

Note.—[When an officer in foreign service would have obtained, had he remained in British service, acting promotion from which he would not have been likely to revert, his salary may be raised, with the consent of the foreign employer, to the amount which he would have drawn if he had remained in Government employ.]

- (b) In all other cases in which pay is fixed under rule I, and in all cases in which it is fixed under rule II, no increase should ordinarily be allowed until the officer has been for three years in foreign service. After that period, and subsequently at intervals of not less than three years, increments of not more than 20 per cent. of the original pay may be allowed, if proposed by the foreign employer and if, in the opinion of the authority by whom the transfer was sanctioned, they are justified with reference to the work of the officer and the nature of his duties.
- (c) In the event of a material change in the nature of the duties of an officer in foreign service his pay may be revised within the limits of its powers of sanction by the authority who sanctioned the transfer.

Contributions required for Leave and Pension.

- 765. (a) An officer transferred to foreign service in India contributes for both leave allowance and pension; if the transfer be to service out of India. contribution is made for pension only.
- (b) Contribution is payable during leave on account of an officer who contributes for pension only. When contribution is paid for both pension and leave allowances it is payable during privilege leave taken in foreign service but not during other kinds of leave.

766. In the case of an officer in foreign service of the first kind contributions for leave allowance and pension are levied on an assumed pay, in return for which the Government accepts the charge for the officer's leave allowances of all kinds and pension (or, in the case of foreign service out of India, pension only), calculated on such pay. (As regards privilege leave allowances. see Article 779 below.)

767. In the case of an officer of any of the classes mentioned in Article 763 (i) pay is assumed to be as follows whatever the actual pay and allowances drawn by him in foreign service may be:—

(a) If the officer is on a time-scale of pay, the pay which he would have drawn from time to time had he remained in British service.

(b) For officers who are not on a time-scale of pay:—

(ii) For eve	ery subsequent year	100	50

Assumed pay whether calculated according to clause (a) or (b) of this Article is subject to the following maxima; Rs. 2,500 a month in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service, or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules; Rs. 1,750 in the case of a Military officer subject to the Indian Army Leave Rules, and Rs. 2,000 a month in the case of any other officer subject to the rules in Chapter XIII: provided that except in the case of members of the Indian Civil Service, Military officers, any other officers whose pensions are fixed in sterling, and officers who may become eligible for a special additional pension under Articles 475, 642, and 643, assumed pay shall not exceed Rs. 1,500 a month.

Exception.—In the case of an officer promoted from a subordinate grade to service which is subject to the leave rules in Chapter XIII assumed pay is the pay he would draw from time to time on the Government list to which he belongs.

Note.—[In the case of Royal Engineer officers, the date to be taken for purposes of calculating assumed pay under this Article as the date of arrival in India, will be the date following the completion of two years from date of first commission. In making the calculation, service, both at home and abroad, is to be taken into account.

768. In the case of officers other than those mentioned in Article 763 (i) assumed pay is either the pay last drawn in Government service, or, if the officer belongs to a graded service, or is on a progressive or time-scale of pay, that to which he has attained or been promoted in accordance with the rule in Article 752, up to a maximum of Rs. 1,250 a month.

769. In the case of an officer in foreign service of the second kind contributions for leave allowance and pension are levied on actual sanctioned salary [including a duty allowance or deputation (duty) allowance], subject to the maxima prescribed in the case of assumed pay in Articles 767 and 768. In return for these contributions the Government accepts the charge for the officer's leave allowances of all kinds and for his pension calculated on sanctioned salary [includ-

Note 1.—[Percentage deductions (e.g., Civil Fund in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service) are calculated upon "assumed pay" in foreign service of the first kind and upon actual sanctioned salary in foreign service of the second kind.]

Note 2.—[In the case of a Military officer the contribution covers the liability of Indian Revenues for temporary balf-pay or half-pay pension when an officer loses his health during foreign service out of India before becoming entitled to ordinary so-called full pay pension.]

Nore 3.—[The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Bombay Port Trust and the Chairman, City of Bombay Improvement Trust, contribute for pension only at the rate of the for summed pay, their leave allowances for such leave as has been earned in its service being paid by the Trust.]

Note 4.—[The Government of India pay no leave allowances to inferior servants transferred to foreign service.]

Nore 5.—[Contributions in respect of Indian troops, warrant and non-commissioned officers and men of the Army departments, etc., lent for service out of India are regulated by separate orders.]

771. Cancelled.

Remission of, and Exemption from, Contribution.

- 772. (a) The Local Government may remit contribution for any period for which an officer in foreign service is temporarily employed under Government, on duties additional to or distinct from his duties in foreign service.
- (b) The following classes of officers are exempted from the payment of contribution under the above rules, and their pensions [and, in cases (ii) to (v) leave allowances] are calculated according to the rules applicable to Government servants:—
 - (i) Officers lent to His Majesty's Government or to British Colonies Protectorates, etc. In such cases, if the loan is to the War Office, a share of the pension ultimately granted to the officer is paid by the War Office under separate arrangements, but if it is to a British Colony or Frotectorate, pension contribution is paid during the period of the loan by the employing Government either to the Government of India, or to the India Office. When, however, an officer is allowed to take up duties under the War Office, he may in certain circumstances be required to pay a pension contribution in respect of the period of the loan.

- (ii) Subordinates in the Revenue Survey temporarily lent to Municipalities for duty which, though paid for by them, also promotes Imperial interests.
- (iii) Medical officers lent to charitable dispensaries or hospitals in British India. In any province, however, in which the changes in the conditions of service of Assistant Surgeons authorised by the orders in Home Department Resolution No. 1148-50, dated 22nd August 1898, have been brought into operation, contribution must be paid under the ordinary rules.
- (iv) Officers of the Royal Indian Marine lent to Port Trusts.
- (v) Any other officer or class of officer, who, by the specific orders of the Government of India, has been exempted from the payment of contribution.

Procedure for Payment of Contribution.

773. A copy of the orders sanctioning an officer's transfer to foreign service must always be communicated to the Account Officer (referred to in Article 774) by the authority by whom the transfer is sanctioned. The officer himself should, without delay, communicate a copy to the officer who audits his pay, and take his instructions as to the officer to whom he is to account for the contribution; report to the latter officer the time and date of all transfers of charge to which he is a party when proceeding on, while in, and on return from, foreign service; and furnish from time to time particulars regarding his salary in foreign service, leave taken by him, his postal address and any other information which that officer may require.

- 774. (a) In the case of foreign service out of India, the "Account Officer" is the * Comptroller, India Treasuries.
 - (b) In the case of foreign service in India—
 - if salary in foreign service is paid from a Government Treasury, and is subject to audit by an audit officer of Government, the Account Officer is such audit officer;

^{*} Now styled Accountant-General, Central Revenues.

- (2) otherwise, the Account Officer is the Accountant-General of the Province in which the Municipality, Port Trust or other body concerned is situated, or in the case of service under an Indian State, the Accountant-General of the Government under whose administration the State is.
- 775. Ordinarily, contribution is payable directly to Government by the transferred officer himself. Government does not enter into arrangement with foreign employers or make direct demands upon them. Exceptions to this rule are:—
 - (a) Cases in which officers are lent to His Majesty's Government or to British Colonies, Protectorates, etc., and in which the contribution is payable by the borrowing Government. [see Article 772 (b) (i)];
 - (b) Cases in which salary is payable at a Government treasury under the orders of the Accountant-General, and contribution is deducted from salary;
 - (c) Cases of members of clerical establishments in foreign service of the second kind, in which responsibility for payment of contributions and compliance with the rules rests with the officer who controls the fund or administers the trust;
 - (d) Cases in which, by special order or arrangement, contribution is recovered collectively on account of several officers employed under one foreign employer through an agent or officer who represents the employer.
- 776. Not later than 15 days after the end of each quarter for which salary in foreign service is earned, the officer must remit, in such manner as may be arranged with the Account Officer, the contribution payable by him for the quarter.

In any case in which contribution falls into arrear, the Account Officer should bring the fact to the officer's notice and claim interest at the rate of 4 pies a day per 100 rupees upon the amount due, from the date of expiry of the 15 days to the date on which contribution is paid up.

If any amount due, including interest, is not paid within 12 months of its accrual, the Account Officer should intimate to the officer the amount due up to date, and inform him that in consequence of the default he has forfeited his claim to pension or pension and leave allowance, as the case may be. In order to revive his claim the officer must at once pay the amount due and represent his case to the Local Government who will deal finally with it.

Interest on overdue contributions should not be remitted save in exceptional circumstances. The Local Government may remit amount not exceeding Rs. 10. The remission of amounts exceeding Rs. 10 requires the sanction of the Government of India.

Rules regarding Leave, and the Grant of Leave.

- 777. An officer holding an appointment in foreign service in India may not take leave or obtain leave allowances from Government unless he actually quits duty and proceeds on leave.
- 778. An officer on foreign service in India may not be granted leave otherwise than in accordance with the rules of the Government service to which he belongs. If such leave is granted to an officer the Account Officer shall on the fact coming to his notice require the leave so granted to be commuted to the leave for which the officer is eligible under rule, and call upon him to refund any allowances in excess of the amount admissible. The officer himself is personally responsible for the observance of the rule contained in this Article; by accepting leave to which he is not entitled under the rules he renders himself liable to refund allowances irregularly drawn, and in the event of his refusing to refund, to forfeit his previous service under Government, and to cease to have any claim on Government in respect of either pension or leave allowances.
- 779. An officer in foreign service of the first kind in India draws leave allowances calculated on assumed pay, save that in the case of privilege leave he is entitled to his actual pay in foreign service, the difference between such pay and assumed pay being paid by the foreign employer. In the case of foreign service of the second kind all leave allowances are calculated on actual sanctioned salary and paid in full by Government.
- 780. (a) Privilege leave which is certified by the Account Officer (Article 774) to be admissible may, when taken by itself, be granted to an officer in foreign service in India by his employer.
- (b) Leave other than privilege leave taken by itself, may, in cases where the transfer has been sanctioned by the Government of India or a Local Government, be granted to an officer in foreign service in India by the Local Government under whom he was serving before his transfer; in other cases it may be granted by the authority who sanctioned the transfer.
- (c) An officer who is in foreign service in India should submit all applications for leave, other than privilege leave taken by itself, with the report of the Account Officer, through his employer or to the authority competent to sanction the leave.
- 781. To an officer who is in foreign service out of India leave in respect of his foreign service may, unless special arrangements as to leave have been made on his behalf by the Government of India or the Secretary of State, be granted by his employer on such conditions as to leave and absentee allowances as the employer may determine. The officer should make himself acquainted with the rules or arrangements which are to regulate his leave before accepting foreign employment, and the Account Officer will be responsible for obtaining from him at the time of transfer a declaration showing that he has read and understood this rule. Time spent by the officer in foreign service out of India, though not constituting an interruption of service for leave under the Civil Service Regulations, does not count for such leave. Leave earned in respect of service under Government before transfer cannot ordinarily be granted to such an officer so long as he continues to be on foreign service.

Special Cases.

782. An officer of the Education Department, who is transferred by the Local Government in the public interest to a non-departmental College or School managed by a Board on which the Local Government is represented, or which is administered under a constitution and regulations approved, and of which the scale of superior appointments is sanctioned by Government may contribute for leave allowances and pension under these Regulations.

CHAPTER XL—cancelled-

CHAPTER XLI.

Regular Establishments the cost of which is recovered by Government.

- 783. When an addition is made to a regular establishment on the condition that the cost shall be recovered from the persons for whose benefit the establishment is created, recoveries should be made under the following rules:—
 - I.—The amount to be recovered should be the gross sanctioned cost of the service, and should not vary with the actual expenditure of any month.
 - II.—The cost of the service should include the amounts required ander Articles 769, 770 to provide for pension and leave allowances; these amounts being calculated on the sanctioned rates of pay [including duty and deputation (duty) allowances] of the members of the establishment. The remission of recovery on this account requires the sanction of the Government of India if the cost of the service exceeds Rs. 250 per month.
 - III.—If for any period the expenditure incurred, or to be incurred, should be considerably less than the sanctioned cost, the Local Government may reduce the amount of the recovery, the reduction being roughly proportionate to the difference

Note 1.—[In the case of permanent establishments (as also temporary establish ments which are filled by men already in permanent Government employ), a part of the cost of which is recovered from persons or bodies benefited by their service, a demand for leave and pension contributions should be made in respect of the portion of the cost paid by the persons benefited, the limit of Rs. 250 a month prescribed in clause II above applying only to such portion.]

Norm 2.—[Recovery of contribution has been remitted in the case of the following class of officers: Native Superintendents of Vaccination and Vaccinators in the Bombay Presidency enrolled as officers of Government before 27th November 1906 and employed in Cantonments or under Municipalities or paid from Local Funds.]

Norm 3.—[The contributions for pension and leave allowances referred to in clause II above should be levied at the rates prescribed in Articles 769 and 770 only in the case of establishments sanctioned after the 1st August 1913, the rates in the old rules contained in the original fifth edition of these Regulations continuing to apply in the case of establishments that existed before that date even though the incumbents may change or additions be made to these establishments.]

784 to 795. - Omitted.

CHAPTER XLII—Service under Local Funds.

SECTION I.—PENSIONS.

796. Apart from any special provisions made under the following rule, service paid for from a Local Fund does not qualify for pension.

797. In the case of the Local Funds which up to the 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated, the Local Government may, subject to any provisions of law applicable to the case, allow the Trustees, Committee, or Managers to treat the service as qualifying, and may itself do so in the case of Funds under its own direct administration.

798. The same procedure should be observed in the calculation, grant and payment of pensions for service treated as qualifying under Article 797, as is prescribed for pensions payable from General Revenues, but the pensions must be paid from and charged against the Local Fund.

Note, -[See the Notes under Article 807.]

- 799. When part of the pensionable service of an officer qualifies for pension from the General Revenues and part from the Local Funds which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated, his pension is paid and charged according to the Rule of Proportions: it is not admissible to disregard the pensionable Local Fund service, and award a pension only for the service paid from General Revenues: Provided that if, under this rule, less than one-fourth of the pension would be payable from either source, no distribution shall be made; in such case the other source shall bear the whole charge.
- 800. In the case of other Local Funds, the rule that service does not qualify does not prohibit the grant and payment of pensions in conformity with the general terms of the pension rules by the authorised administrators of the funds. But Government is in no way responsible for the sanction or continuance of such pensions, and no standing order for their payment may be issued to or received by, any Government Treasury, and the procedure rules in Part X do not apply to them.

Note.—[The restrictions as to the payment of such pensions do not apply topensions chargeable to the Calcutta Fire Brigade Fund.]

- 801. Service in the following establishments paid from Local Funds is treated as qualifying, provided that pension for service under the Fund is paid from the Fund, the Rule of Proportions being applied in the case of service paid partly from the Fund and partly from other sources:—
  - (i) Establishments paid from Port Funds managed by Government.

Note.—[The rule regarding officers of the Royal Indian Marine lent to Port Trust is given in Article 772 (b) (iv).]

(ii) Members of the establishment of the Fire Brigade, Calcutta, whose pay at date of discharge exceeds Rs. 20 a month.

Nore.—(The pension of a member of the Fire Brigade who was enlisted on or after 27th December 1905 and whose pay at date of discharge does not exceed Rs. 20, is regulated by Scale B in Article 505 and is paid from the Fire Brigade Fund or from the Fire Brigade Fund and the General Revenues according to the Rule or fronctions as provided above for officers on pay exceeding Rs. 20. The pension of a member of the Fire Brigade who was enlisted before 27th December 1905 and subscribed to Police Superannuation Fund, and whose pay at date of discharge does not exceed Rs. 20 is, on his being invalided, regulated by Scale A in Article 305 and paid from General Revenues, provided he pays up his subscriptions from 27th December 1905 to the date of his retirement. Failing such payments, his pension or gratuity is regulated by Scale B in Article 505 and paid from the Fire Brigade Fund or from a provided above for officers on pay exceeding Rs. 20.]

as provided above for oncers on pay exceeding as .co.].

1. The transfer of Government servants to service under Local Funds should ordinarily be dealt with under the rules regarding Foreign Service. The application of the Rule of Proportions to service partly under a Local Fund (other than those mentioned in this Article and in Article 789) requires the special sanction of the Local Government who before giving such sanction should satisfy itself that the fund in question is not of a merely temporary character that it is solvent and able to bear the charge, and that the pension can legally be charged to it.

Pensions from the General Revenues.

802. The administrators of a Local Fund may, with the permission of the Local Government, make a permanent arrangement for contributing for pensions from the general revenues for its permanent employés or for any specified classes of them by paying to Government a contribution of one-ninth of the sanctioned salaries of the several appointments: provided that—

(a) the contribution must be paid in full at the beginning of each month by cash or cheque to the nearest Government treasury. Any default in the payment of the contribution entails forfeiture of the claim against Government;

(b) the bills for establishment charges must be subject to audit by Government with a view to ensuring that health certificates have been obtained for new entrants, that the contributions are recovered in respect of the whole establishment sanctioned, and that no employé in any month draws more than the amount sanctioned for the appointment held by him.

Arrear contributions in respect either of individual officers or classes of officers, proposed with a view to render past service qualifying, cannot be accepted.

- 1. The Municipal Corporation of the City of Bombay may make a similar arrangement for contribution to pensions from the general revenues for teachers employed in municipal schools, without enforcement of the condition of the audit by the Accountant General, provided the Accountant General is furnished with—
  - (1) an annual list of the Establishment of teachers in Civil Account Code Form No. 3 with accompaniment in Form No. 4;
  - (2) health certificates of all new employés;
  - (3) last-pay certificates of all teachers transferred from other schools.
- 2. (a) Teachers employed in schools maintained from Local or Municipal Funds in Bombay—
  - (i) who were appointed to Local (not Municipal) Fund service before the 26th June 1882 and on whose behalf contributions were made from Local Funds to the Local Fund Pension Fund; or
  - (ii) who were appointed or transferred from Government service after the 25th June 1882 (the date of the Local Fund Pension Fund was closed to new entrants) and before the 7th January 1889, the date of the new Foreign Service rules, and on whose behalf contributions were specially permitted by the Local Government to be paid to secure a title to pension from General Revenues under the rules in force before 7th January 1889 (see "Note" below), continue to be in pensionable service when they are transferred, together with the schools in which they are employed, from Local to Municipal service, and vice vered.
- (b) Also teachers, fulfilling either of the conditions (i) and (ii) above, who are transferred under orders of the Local Government and in the interests of the public service, and not for private reasons, between Local Fund and Municipal schools, continue to render service pensionable from the General Revenues: Provided that contributions are paid in all cases under the rules in this Chapter.

(c) In case (i) any pension granted is charged to the Local Fund Pension Fund and to the General Revenues according to the Rule of Proportions.

Note.—(Under the rules in force prior to January 1899, an officer paid from a Local Fund was allowed on first appointment with the permission of the Local Government, and upon production of the health certificate prescribed in Article 49, to subscribe for a pension from the General Revenues, the contribution being calculated at one-deventh of the gross salary received from his foreign employers subject to a maximum of Rs. 100 a month. This permission, in so far as it relates to individual officers (apart from the regular system of contribution under the above article,) is with drawn, but officers who have already been permitted to subscribe may continue to do so subject to the conditions prescribed in Article 756 (a) of the Old Foreign Service Rules. These Regulations will then apply to such officers so long as they continue to subscribe for pension as if they were paid from the General Revenues.]

803. An officer who is in qualifying service under Government may be transferred by the Local Government to service under a Local Fund under the same limitations and conditions as are applicable to transfers to Foreign Service. If the establishments are fixed and controlled by Government in the same way as Government establishments, the limitations and conditions are those applicable to Foreign Service of the second kind; otherwise they are those of Foreign Service of the first kind.

804. Teachers and other members of the pensionable establishments of Government Schools, who are transferred with the schools to which they belong to service under Local Boards, continue to render service qualifying for pension from the General Revenues, and are entitled to the concession even though they may be moved from the school with which they are transferred to another school which was formerly under Government management.

Teachers appointed to schools transferred to the management of Local Boards are entitled to pension from the General Revenues if the Local Government makes a part of its contribution to the school in the form of free pensions.

- 805. If an officer, whose service is reckoned as pensionable under the provisions of Article 802, is transferred to the similarly pensionable establishment of another Local Fund, the transfer will not interrupt the continuity of service for pension. Transfers may also be made between such service under Local Funds and service in Government establishments.
- 806. Article 755 (a) does not apply to an officer transferred to service under a Local Fund under the conditions and limitations of Foreign Service of the second kind otherwise than as a merely temporary arrangement; but it does refer to transfers to service under a Local Fund under the conditions and limitations of Foreign Service of the first kind.

Pensions payable partly by Government and partly by a Local Fund.

807. When a pension is payable partly by Government and partly by a Local Fund, the Local Fund concerned may pay the capitalised value (calculated on the basis of the Table of commutation values for pensions applicable to the pensioner, increased by 10 per cent.) of its share of the pension to Government which will thereupon accept liability for the payment of the entire pension.

Nore I.—[When a pension is payable partly by Government and partly by a Local Fund, the Local Fund concerned may pay the capitalised value (calculated according to the Post Office Annuity Table) of its share of the pension into the Government Treasury instead of purchasing an annuity from the Post Office.]

Note 2.—[A District Board or Municipality may, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner of the Division (in Madras of the Local Government), grant a gratuity as such, to any of its servants in lieu of the annuity purchaseable under this Article, if the gratuity proposed is not large enough to purchase an annuity of Rs. 2 a month or more.]

Local Fund Pension Funds.

808. The Government does not guarantee the solvency of Funds formed by the subscriptions of Local Fund officers, and established to provide pensions for the subscribers thereto.

Exceptional Cases.

- 809. In the following cases, service paid from Local Funds qualifies:—
  - (a) Service paid from the Cotton Frauds Improvement Fund which qualified for pension payable from that Fund prior to its exhaustion;
  - (b) Second writers and daroghas on Jail establishments in the Bombay Presidency formerly paid from a Jail Labour Fund;
  - (c) Muharirs attached to the Court of any Honorary Magistrate in the Central Provinces and paid from Municipal Funds;
  - (d) Officers in the United Provinces transferred in connection with the introduction of the Local Self-Government scheme before the 1st April 1885 to service under Local Committees constituted under Acts III and IV of 1878;
  - (e) Officers in Assam transferred after the 10 May 1882, and before the 12th May 1884, to service under Local or District Committees constituted by the Assam Local Rates, Regulation (1879);
  - (f) Officers in the Punjab transferred before the 1st July 1886 to service under District Boards constituted under Act XX of 1883;
  - (g) Service paid from the "Quetta Revenue Fund" before the 1st April 1883, from which date the charges previously paid from the Fund became charges on the General Revenues.

SECTION II.—LEAVE, ACTING AND TRAVELLING ALLOW-ANCE RULES.

- 810. Service under the Local Funds which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated may qualify for leave under Part III; but the allowances given during such leave must be disbursed from the Local Funds and General Revenues according to the Rule of Proportions: Provided that, if less than one-fourth of the said allowances would be payable from either source, the whole of the allowances shall be charged to the other source.
- 811. Except in the case of employés of Local Funds which under legal enactment, or under rules framed under such enactment, have special rules regulating all or any of such matters, no leave, or allowances during leave, or acting allowances to an officer paid from a Local Fund, or from any other sources under the control of a Government officer, shall, without the express sanction of the Local Government.

exceed what would be admissible under the rules which apply to an officer paid from General Revenues.

Note.—[A Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

- 812. The salary of an officer whose substantive office is paid from a Local Fund appointed to act in an office paid from the General Revenues is calculated as it would be if his substantive office also were paid from the General Revenues.
- 813. Applications for leave are ordinarily made to the Managers of the Local Fund concerned; but when the officer contributes for pension and leave, or pension only, Article 780 should be complied with.
- 814. The travelling allowance rules in Part XI do not apply to officers paid from a Local Fund or from any sources other than General Revenues under the control of any Government officer; but the travelling allowance paid to such officers shall not, without the express sanction of the Local Government, exceed what would be admissible to similar officers under Part XI.

Note.—[A Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to Heads of Departments.]

PART VIII -- RECORD OF SERVICE.

Chapter XLIII .- Record of Service.

SECTION I.—GAZETTED OFFICERS.

- 815. (a) A record of the service of gazetted officers and of Myooks and Junior Assistant Registrars in the Co-operative Department in Burma is maintained by the Audit Officer under arrangements which differ in different departments. The general arrangement to be observed is that the Service Registers should be kept by the Audit Officer who audits the salaries, and that, when an officer passes from one audit circle to another, a record of his past service should be passed on from the Audit Officer whose circle he leaves to the Audit Officer to whose circle he is transferred.
- (b) In the case of Chaplains, the record is kept by (i) the Accountants General of the Provinces in which the Chaplains serve, and (ii) the *Comptroller, India Treasuries, for the Archdeacon of Calcutta and the Presidency Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, Bengal.
- (c) When a Chaplain of the Church of Scotland is posted to or relieved from the charge of a regiment, the Army Department should inform the Accountant-General concerned.
- 1. When a gazetted officer is transferred to Foreign Service, a copy of his Service Register will be sent by the Audit Officer whose duty it was to keep it, to the Accountant-General who will account for the contribution and the latter will return the register (or an extract from it), duly written up to date, when the officer is re-transferred to British Service.
- 2. Government Examiners of Railway Accounts and the Examiner of Accounts, Military Works Services, will keep the Service Registers and Service Books of officers and subordinates of the Railway Department and the Military Works Services as the case may be, transferred to Foreign Service, and will sense their last-pay certificates, all contributions paid into the Treasuries on account of these officers being reported to the Audit Officers by the Accountant-General.

SECTION II.—NON-GAZETTED OFFICERS.

- 816. With the exceptions noted below, a service book (Form 23) should be kept for every non-gazetted officer holding a substantive appointment on a permanent establishment, in which every step in his official life should be recorded, each entry being attested by the head of his office. If the officer is himself the head of an office (e.g., a Postmaster or a Sub-Inspector of Police), the attestation should be made by his immediate superior. The following are the exceptions referred to:—
- (1) Non-gazetted officers the particulars of whose service are recorded in the "History of services of gazetted and other officers" or in Service Registers maintained by the Accountant-General. (2) Sub-Registrars in Bengal and Bihar and Orissa whose record of service is maintained by the Inspector General of Registration in the form of Service Registers. (3) Members of the Salt Freventive Force mentioned

- in item (3) under Article 494 of these Regulations; Police Officers of rank not higher than head constable. (3A) Members of the menial establishment in the Presidency Division of the Salt Department in the Bombay Presidency whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20 a month, also the Excise menial staff in that Presidency. (4) Postmen and village postmen (oscilating head postmen, overseer postmen and sorting or reader postmen), and mail guards in the Railway Mail Service and linemen or line riders in the Telegraph Engineering Branch recruited after the 15th November 1935. (5) Mandals employed in the Assam Valley Districts. (6) Myooks and Junior Assistant Registrars in the Co-operative Department in Burna. (7) Permanent subordinate non-pensionable employés on State Railways for whom a special form of record has been prescribed. (8) Inferior servants of all sorts. (9) Enrolled clerks, storekeepers and checkers of the Indian Army Service Corps and Indian Corps of Clerks (Indian Wing).
- 817. Service rolls such as those prescribed for the Police in Article 823 should be maintained for all officers holding substantive appointments on a permanent establishment for whom service books are not kept except runners, boatmen and coolies in the Post Office, and the officers referred to in exceptions (1), (2), (6) and (7) under Article 816. Service rolls should invariably be submitted with the pension papers to the Andit office.
- 818. A Service Book is supplied at his own cost to every officer on his first appointment. It is kept in the custody of the head of the office in which he is serving, and transferred with him from office to office. It may be given up to the officer if he resigns or is discharged without fault, an entry being first made therein to this effect. The head of the office should see that all entries in the service book are duly made and attested. There should be no erasure or over-writing, all corrections being neatly made and properly attested.
- 819. It is the duty of every officer to see that his Service Book is properly kept up, in accordance with the previous Article. If the book is not carefully kept up, difficulties may arise as to verification of service, when the officer applies for pension. The head of the office will, therefore, allow the officer to examine the service book, should the officer at any time desire to do so. Ordinarily there should be no occasion for this as the examination should be made whenever the officer is required to sign against an entry, in his service book.
- 820. Personal certificates of character should not, unless the Local Government so directs, be entered in column (14), but if an officer is reduced to a lower substantive appointment, the cause of the reduction should always be briefly stated thus—"Reduced for inefficiency," "Reduced owing to revision of establishment," etc.
- 821. Every period of suspension from employment, and every other interruption in service, should be noted, with full details of its duration, by an entry written across the page, and attested by the head of the office or other attesting officer.

<sup>1.</sup> The head of the office should take efficient measures to see that these entries are made with regularity. The duty should not be left to the non-gazetted officer concerned.

- 822. (a) If the officer is transferred to Foreign Service, the head of the office or department should send his Service Book to the Accountant-General, who will return it after noting therein, under his signature, the orders of Government sanctioning the transfer, the effect of the transfer in regard to leave admissible during Foreign Service, and any other particulars which the Accountant-General may consider to be necessary in connection with the transfer. On the officer's re-transfer to the British Service, his Service Book should again be sent to the Accountant-General, who will then note therein, under his signature, all necessary particulars connected with the officer's Foreign Service.
- No entries made in the Service Book of an officer on Foreign Service of the first kind can be attested by any officer except the Accountant-General.
- 2. Rule 1 does not apply in the case of Military Works and Railway Subordinates (vide rule 2 under Article 815).
- (b) In cases in which the salaries are audited by an Accountant-General, this Article does not apply to Foreign Service of the second kind.

SECTION III.-NON-GAZETTED POLICE SERVICE.

- 823. In the case of Police officers of rank not higher than head constable, there shall be kept up for each district by the District Superintendent of Police a Service Roll in English, in which shall be recorded the date of the enrolment of each man in the Constabulary; his caste, tribe, village, age, height, and marks of identification when enrolled; his rank, promotion, reduction or other punishment; his absences from duty, on leave or without leave; the interruptions in his service; and every other incident in his service which may involve forefeiture of portions of his service, or affect the amount of his pension. The roll shall be checked by the Vernacular Roll and Order Book and the Punishment Register, and every entry in it shall be signed by the District Superintendent of Police.
- 824. From this Roll the necessary statement of service of every applicant for pension shall be prepared, additional proofs being collected, as prescribed in Article 908, in respect of any service rendered before enrolment in the Constabulary which the applicant may be entitled to count.

PART IX.—PROCEDURE RELATING TO LEAVE.

Chapter XLIV .- Applications for and Grant of Leave.

SECTION I.-APPLICATIONS.

825. Except as provided in Articles 841 to 845 and 848, an application for leave should be submitted to the Local Government, or other authority whose duty it would be to fill up the appointment of the applicant if it were vacant.

 When a gazetted officer applies for leave, he should quote the Article or Section of these Regulations under which he considers himself entitled to the leave.

826 and 827. Cancelled.

Medical Certificates-General Rules.

827-A. Medical Officers are debarred from recommending the grant of sick leave in any case in which there appears to be no reasonable prospect that the officer concerned will ever be fit to return to duty. In such a case, the opinion that the officer is permanently unfit for service under Government should be recorded in the Medical certificate.

Note.—Leave should not necessarily be refused to an officer, when a Medical Board in India has reported that there is no reasonable prospect of his ever being fit to return to duty, but may be granted after careful and special consideration of the case by the Local Government under which the officer is serving. The following procedure should be carefully observed by the Local Government in dealing with such cases. If the Medical Board are unable to say with certainty that the officer will never be fit for service in India again, it would be reasonable to grant him a short period of leave, not exceeding twelve months in the first instance, if admissible under the rules applicable to him. If, however, the officer is declared to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service in India [see Article 447 (a)], there is ordinarily no alternative but to invalid him from the service, either at the expiration of the leave already granted to him, if he is on leave at the date of his appearance before the Medical Board, or, if he is not on leave, then from the date of the Board's report. In special cases, as for example where the officer's breakdown in health has been caused in and by the service, or where he has had a comparatively small proportion of leave during his service, or will complete at an early date an additional year's service for pension, the Local Government may at its discretion, after due consideration of the merits of the case, grant him leave (if he is not on leave) or an extension of leave thin, provided the grant of leave, or extension, as the case may be, does not exceed six months. This rule should be regarded as applicable to all officers serving under civil rules.]

827-B. All certificates of medical boards or medical officers granted under the provisions of Article 829 or 831 of the Civil Service Regulations (or under any similar rules applicable to particular classes of officers) should contain a proviso that no recommendation in them shall be evidence of a claim to any leave which may not be admissible to an officer under the terms of his contract or the rules to which he is subject.

Medical certificates—Gazetted officers.

823. An application from an officer in India for leave, or extension or commutation of leave, on medical certificate, must be accompanied by a certificate in the following form :-

Medical certificate for Gazetted officers.

The

or Authorised Medical Attendant.

NOTE.—[The form should be adhered to as closely as possible and should be filled in after the signature of the applicant has been taken. The Certifying Officer is not at liberty to certify that the applicant requires a change from or to a particular locality, or that he is not fit to proceed to a particular locality. Such certificates should only be given at the explicit desire of the administrative authority concerned, to whom it is open to decide, when an application on such grounds has been made to him, whether the applicant should go before a Medical Board to decide the question of his fitness for service. ]

829. With the cognizance of the head of his office, or if he is himself the head of his office, of the head of his department, the applicant must, except in the cases provided for in Article 831, present himself with two copies of the statement of his case at the seat of the Government under which he is serving, or at such other place as may be appointed by that Government where a Committee of Medical officers can be assembled under the orders of the Administrative Medical Officer APPLICATIONS FOR AND GRANT OF LEAVE [OHAF: XIII of the Province, and when practicable, presided over by him. From this Committee the officer should obtain a certificate as follows:—

We do hereby certify that according to the best of our professional judgment, after careful personal examination of the case, we consider the health of OD to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of (x) months absolutely necessary for his recovery.

- 829-A. When a gazetted officer is recommended for leave on-medical certificate in Asia for more than 3 months or leave for 3 months or less is extended beyond 3 months, the Medical Committee shall state, at the time of granting this certificate whether the officer should, or need not, appear before another Medical Committee for obtaining the certificate of fitness for return to duty, vide Article 225.
- 830. Before deciding whether to grant or refuse the certificate the Committee may, in a doubtful case, detain the applicant under professional observation during a period not exceeding fourteen days.
- 831. If the state of the applicant's health be certified by a Medical Officer, Commissioned or in charge of a Civil Station, to be such as tomake it inconvenient for him to repair to the seat of the Government under which he is serving, or to any other place, the authority by whom the leave is granted may accept either—
  - a certificate signed by any two Medical officers, Commissioned' or in charge of a Civil Station, who need not belong to the same province as the applicant; or
  - (2) if the authority concerned considers it unnecessary to insist upon the production of two medical opinions, a certificate signed by an officer in medical charge of a Civil Station and countersigned by either the District Officer or the Commissioner of the Division.
- 832. The certificate obtained should then be submitted to Government for orders. The grant in Article 829 of the option of undergoing medical examination at the seat of the Government under which he is serving, or at any other place, does not confer on the applicant a right to proceed on leave without the sanction of the Government to which he is subordinate.

Medical Certificates-Non-gazetted Officers.

- 833. The procedure in regard to the production and acceptance of medical certificates in support of applications for leave by non-gazetted Government servants in superior or inferior service shall be—
  - (a) in the case of Government servants serving in the territories administered by a local Government that prescribed by the local Government for servants under its own administrative control;

(b) in other cases that prescribed in Article 834.

Provided that the form prescribed under Article 834 will be applicable to non-gazetted Government servants in superior or inferior service of the Government of India at Simla and Delhi.

Note.—[In the case of female officers, the Local Government may either dispense with the countersignature referred to in this Article or authorise such countersignature by doctors of their own sex.]

- 834. (a) Every application for leave on medical certificate made by a non-gazetted Government servant in superior or inferior service shall irrespective of the fact whether he is liable for general service or not be accompanied by a medical certificate in the form prescribed below this Article given by a registered medical practitioner defining as clearly as possible the nature and probable duration of the illness, or by a request for the issue of a requisition for examination by a medical officer of Government.
- (b) The authority competent to sanction leave may, at its discretion, secure a second medical opinion by requesting the Agency, or Civil Surgeon to have the applicant medically examined. Should it decide to do so, it must arrange for the second examination to be made on the earliest possible date after the date on which the first medical opinion was given.
- (c) It will be the duty of the Agency or Civil Surgeon to express an opinion both as regards the facts of the illness and as regards the necessity for the amount of leave recommended, and for this purpose he may either require the applicant for leave to appear before himself or require the applicant for leave to appear before a medical officer nominated by himself.

NOTE.—[The possession of a certificate as prescribed in this rule does not in itself confer upon the Government servant concerned any right to leave.]

838. (a) An applicant for an extension or commutation of leave on medical certificate who is residing in Europe, North Africa, America, or the West Indies, must satisfy the Medical Board at the India Office as to the necessity for the extension or commutation.

Ordinarily he must attend at the India Office for examination at the Board; but, in special cases, particularly if he be residing at a distance of more than sixty miles from London, a certificate in a form to be obtained from the India Office and signed by two medical practitioners may be accepted. A certificate obtained outside England and signed by foreigners must be attested by consular or other authority as bearing the signature or qualified medical practitioners.

SECTION IL-GRANT OF LEAVE.

839. Leave may be granted with retrospective effect from the date on which it is admissible.

840. Unless specially otherwise ordered, leave must begin within thirty-five days of the date on which it is granted.

841. (a) After obtaining a report from the Audit Officer upon the title of an applicant who is a gazetted officer to the leave applied for, the Local Government may grant any leave admissible under the Regulations.

Note.—[For the purposes of this rule, Myooks and Junior Assistant Registrars in the Co-operative Department in Burma are treated as gazetted officers.]

(b) In the case of an officer who is not gazetted, leave may be granted by the authority whose duty it would be to fill up his appointment, if vacant.

The report of an Audit Officer is not required on the title to leave of an applicant who is not a gazetted officer.

- (c) The Local Government may, with or without restrictions, delegate the power of granting leave to any officer who, in its opinion, can judge of the expediency of granting the leave and who can, without reference to higher authority, make the necessary arrangements for carrying on the absentee's duties during the leave. The Local Government may at any time withdraw powers delegated under this clause.
- (d) An officer acting under clause (c) must, in the case of a gazetted officer, first obtain a report from the Audit Officer that the leave is admissible. If he grants the leave, he must communicate his orders to the Audit Officer by insertion in the Gazette or otherwise. In delegating its powers of granting leave in accordance with clause (c), the Local Government will decide whether in the case of gazetted officers, either the grant or the refusal of the leave should be reported to it.

PART X.—PROCEDURE RELATING TO PENSIONS.

Chapter XLVII - Applications for and Grant of Pensions.

SECTION I.-APPLICATIONS.

905. The rules in this Chapter apply to all officers applying for pension under these Regulations except—

- (a) Members of the Indian Civil Service—(Chapter XLVX);
- (b) Chaplains—(Chapter L);
- (c) Judges of the High Courts, for whom no special procedure is laid down.

906. There is no limitation on the period after retirement within which an application for pension or gratuity must be submitted; but apart from special orders, a pension applied for after the officer has retired begins from the date of application. (See also Article 930.) An officer may be admitted to pension while absent on leave whether in or out of India.

Non-Gazetted Officers-Preliminary Verification.

907. (a) An applicant for pension, not being a gazetted officer, should submit to the authority whose duty it would be to fill up his appointment, if vacant, a statement of his services in Form 24. If such authority is not the head of the office, the statement should be submitted through the latter officer who in forwarding it will attach thereto the service book of the applicant.

Note.—[For the purposes of this Article, Myooks and Junior Assistant Registrars in the Co-operative Department in Burma are treated as gazetted officers.]

- (b) An officer may submit this statement even though he has not ceased to be borne on the establishment, provided that, before it is sent to the Audit Officer, the authority receiving it certifies that the officer is likely, within six months, to retire from the public service.
- (c) The provision in clause (b) is intended to obviate delay in the verification of service, and to ensure that an officer does not retire under the misapprehension that he has earned a pension which is subsequently found by the Audit Officer to be inadmissible; it should be followed in all cases. It does not, however, justify the preparation of the formal application in Form 25 before the officer has actually retired.
- 908. The authority receiving the statement should then proceed to werify the services claimed according to the following procedure:—
  - (a) If the service has been wholly or in part Inferior (regarding which service the records of the Audit offices are sometimes incomplete), he should first gather from official records and other sources all the information procurable. In respect to Superior service, it will be sufficient to gather, in the first place, only such information as is easily procurable.

- (b) The information thus received should then be forwarded to the Audit Officer concerned for comparison with his office records of the applicant's statements.
- (c) If there be any discrepancy, the Audit Officer will detail the nature of such discrepancy; for instance, that the post which the applicant states that he filled during a certain period is shown by the Audit office registers to have been filled by another man.
- (d) If the service claimed cannot be wholly verified from the records of the Audit offices, reference must be made to the head of the office in which the applicant states that he served during the period in doubt.
- (e) If it be found impossible to verify the service otherwise, the officer receiving the application should take the statement in writing of the applicant on plain paper [see Indian Stamp Act, II of 1899, Schedule I, No. 4 (c)], and should also collect such collateral evidence as may be procurable; for instance, certificates, such as those given by an officer to a subordinate on his leaving an office and the testimony of contemporary servants.

Note 1.—[The power to admit service verified under this clause may be exercised by all subordinate authorities who are empowered to sanction pensions under the rules.]

Note 2.—["The Governor-General in Council has recently had under consideration a case in which a public officer, the head of a department, in granting a certificate to one of his subordinates, suppressed the true reason for which the subordinate had been removed from his appointment. Such an omission may obviously be injurious to the interests of the public service. I am therefore directed to draw attention to the subject, and to request the issue of orders to all public officers, warning them to be careful, in giving certificates to their subordinates to state the whole truth in respect of character and cause of dismissal or resignation of appointment."—(Circular, Home Deportment, dated 15th June 1862).]

909. In the case of a gazetted officer, part of whose service has been rendered in non-gazetted appointments, the ungazetted portion of his service should be similarly verified. The statement mentioned in Article 907 (a) may, however, be sent to the Audit Officer direct or through the head of the department.

Formal Application.

910. After completing the verification in the manner prescribed in the preceding Article, the authority receiving the statement of services of a non-gazetted officer should draw up the application in Form 25, and arrange with it all the documents relied upon for verification of the service claimed, in such manner that they can be conveniently consulted, and then forward it, together with the officer's Service Book, with the statement in Form 24 duly completed up to date, through his official superiors to the Audit Officer. If an applicant for pension (not gratuity) is no longer in active service, a last-pay certificate should be attached to the application, except when he retires from the service while on leave in England and desires to draw his pension in England.

- 911. (a) The officer who submits the application should certify on the application whether the character, conduct, and past services of the applicant are such as to entitle him to the favourable consideration of the Government. If the application is for pension on the Superior scale, he must be careful to enter all periods of leave, suspension, etc.. which are not reckoned as service.
- (b) He must also invariably record his own opinion whether the service claimed has been established, and should be admitted or not; more especially in those cases in which it becomes necessary to resort to the procedure prescribed by clause (e) of Article 908, when the exact nature of the investigation made, and the conclusion at which the authority has arrived, must be especially reported.
- (c) If the application is for an Invalid pension, and the applicant is less than sixty years old, the requisite medical certificate should be attached to the application. But if omission has been made in this respect, the authority having the power to sanction the pension may accept a certificate bearing a later date.

912. Cancelled.

913. (a) A gazetted officer should submit his application through his official superiors and the Audit Officer to the Local Government or other authority empowered to sanction the pension.

NOTE.—[For the purposes of this Article, Myooks and Junior Assistant Registrars in the Co-operative Department in Burma are treated as gazetted officers.]

(b) The application of a gazetted officer of the classes mentioned in Article 297 (c), (d) and (e), as it stood prior to 6th July 1920, and in Articles 654 and 678, whether appointed by the Secretary of State or not, should be prepared in Form 26. In the case of other gazetted officers the application should be prepared in Form 25 either by the officer himself or by the head of his department; and the rules in Article 910 apply, save that it is not necessary, if all the service has been gazetted to have the service formally verified before forwarding the application.

Submission to Government.

914. (a) The last officer through whom the application passes should send it to the Audit Officer, who will (after verifying the service in the manner prescribed in Article 908 or satisfying himself that it has already been so verified) submit the application to the Local Government or other authority empowered to sanction the pension with a report upon the claim for pension and the rules applicable to the case.

In the case of officers whose service has been partly gazetted and partly non-gazetted, the verification statement prepared in the Audit office should be attached to the application on its submission to the sanctioning authority.

- (b) The Audit Officer will also certify the correctness of the calculations of service and of pension, and retain the last-pay certificate (Article 910) unless the pension is to be paid in another circle of audit, in which case he will forward the certificate to the Audit Officer of that circle, along with a copy of the order sanctioning the pension.
- 1. If the case is plainly incorrect or incomplete, the Audit Officer should return it for correction or explanation.
- 2. In the column of Form 24 reserved for the remarks of the Audit Officer, or in his certificate and report on the third page of Form 26, he should note briefly his reasons for disallowing any service claimed, and his explanation of any apparent discrepancies, and the like.
- The Audit Officer should always call special attention to Article 470 in his report of the amount of pension admissible.
- 914-A. (a) When a non-gazetted officer for whom a service roll is maintained under Article 817 retires, the officer who maintains the service roll should proceed to verify the services of the claimant with reference to office copies of pay bills, acquittance rolls or other relevant records. [The procedure laid down in Article 908 (e) may also be adopted when necessary.] He should then prepare a certificate of verification, referring briefly to the documents relied upon, in support of the service claimed. He will then draw up the application in Form 25, and forward it together with the officer's service roll, the statement in Form 24, and the certificate of verification supported by necessary papers, through his official superiors to the authority empowered to sanction the pension. If the applicant for pension is no longer in active service, a last-pay certificate should also be attached to the application. The authority competent to sanction the pension may sanction it before submission of the pension papers to the Audit Office, provided that the claim in each case is for the period of continuous and verified service and the pension is clearly admissible under the strict letter of the rules. All doubtful claims should, however, be kept pending until they have been certified to be admissible by the Audit Officer.
- (b) The Audit Officer will, on receipt of the pension papers, exercise the necessary check on the basis of the facts entered therein and also with reference to the relevant rules. If the claim is in order and has already been sanctioned by competent authority, he will arrange for its payment forthwith. In other cases, he will follow generally the procedure laid down in Article 914 (b).

Note 1.—[The above procedure is also applicable mutatis mutandis to runners, boatmen and coolies in the Post Office, referred to in Article 817, for whom neither service books nor service rolls are required to be maintained.]

Nore 2.—[In the case of Police officers of rank not higher than head constables the procedure laid down in entry No. 40 in Part III of Appendix I will be followed.]

Premature Applications.

915. Questions affecting the pension or pensionable service of ap officer the decision of which depends on circumstances known at the time should be considered as soon as they arise.

Any abstract questions, or questions the decision of which depends on possible circumstances that may arise in future or on hypothetical conditions should not be raised or discussed until the officer concerned retires or is about to retire.

916. Except under orders from the Government of India or the Local Government, an Audit Officer should, as a rule, decline to advise upon any questions connected with the claim of an officer to pension until he retires or is about to retire.

917. Deleted.

SECTION II.—POWERS OF SANCTION.

- 918. A pension which is certified by the responsible Audit Officer to be clearly and strictly admissible under rule may be sanctioned—
  - (a) in any case by the Local Government.
  - (b) in the case of non-gazetted officers, by the officer who has the authority to fill the appointment vacated by the retiring officer.

Norz 1.—[A Local Government may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments and other subordinate officers who are authorised to fill the appointment vacated by the retiring officer.]

NOTE 2.—[In cases in which an officer, who has the power under clause (b) of this Article or under a delegation made in accordance with Note 1 to sanction a pension, records on the application, or on the letter forwarding the application, is recommendation that the pension claimed should be admitted, the Audit Officer should, on finding the claim in order, forthwith issue the necessary pension payment order, and intimate his having done so to the authority concerned.]

919 and 920. Cancelled

921. (See Appendix I, Part III, Entry 40.)

- 922. Should the amount granted to an officer be afterwards found to be in excess of that to which he is entitled under the Regulations, he will be called upon to refund such excess.
- 923. (a) If any interpretation of the rules is involved, or if any indulgence not provided for by the rules is proposed, the Local Government should submit the case, with its opinion and recommendation, to the Government of India in the Administrative Department concerned.

Note.-[In respect to such recommendations, see orders printed as Appendix 9.]

- (b) Until the orders of the Government of India are received a recommendation for any special indulgence should never be communicated, directly or indirectly, to the officer concerned.
- (c) The Governments of Madras and Bombay should, upon questions of pension, communicate with the Secretary of State, through the Government of India.
- (d) An application in Form 25 (together with the statement in Form 24) or 22, as the case may be, should accompany every special recommendation made under this Article.
- 924. (a) Pensions in excess of the amounts admissible under these Regulations or involving any relaxation of rule, require the sanction of the Secretary of State.
  - Note. -[See Note under clause (a) of the preceding Article.]
- (b) The Government of India have, however, been authorised to grant pensions up to a limit of Rs. 25 a month, or gratuities not exceeding the equivalent value of that amount, without reference to the Secretary of State, in any case, even where no pension or gratuity is admissible under rule, provided that the general spirit of the Regulations is observed. Provincial Governments exercise similar powers in respect of officers serving under them.
- (c) When special circumstances appear to justify a departure from the rules laid down regarding "ordinary pensions" to Civil officers, it is generally desirable that the allowance granted should be an arbitrarily fixed sum, rather than any exact proportion of the amount to which it might be supposed that the rules afford a claim.

SECTION III.—ANTICIPATORY PENSIONS.

925. (a) When an officer whose pension is payable in India retires before the necessary enquiries preliminary to the settlement of the amount of his pension can be completed, the Audit Officer may, upon a declaration, as follows, by the officer, sanction the immediate disbursement of the pension to which, after the most careful summary investigation that he can make without delay, he believes the officer likely to be entitled:—

Declaration.—Whereas the (here state the designation of the officer sanctioning the advance) has consented, provisionally, to advance to me the sum of Rs.

- month, in anticipation of the completion of the enquiries necessary to enable the Government to fix the amount of my pension, I hereby acknowledge that, in accepting this advance, I fully understand that my pension is subject to revision on the completion of the necessary formal enquiries, and I promise to base no objection to such revision on the ground that the provisional pension now to be paid to me exceed the pension to which I may be eventually found entitled. I further promise to repay any amount advanced to me in excess of the pension to which I may be eventually found entitled.
- (b) If the Audit Officer thinks it likely that the officer would be found entitled to a gratuity only, one-sixth of the amount of such probable gratuity may, upon a similar declaration, be disbursed to him monthly until the amount is finally settled.
- (c) The settlement of such provisional payments should be made so as to admit of their disbursement not later than one month after the officer has ceased to hold his post.
- (d) When the sanction under this Article is given by an Audit Officer other than the Accountant-General, he shall send a copy of his order to the Accountant-General, for the issue of the requisite orders for disbursement from the treasury concerned.
- 926. When an officer whose pension is payable in England retires before the necessary enquiries preliminary to the settlement of the amount of his pension can be completed, the Audit Officer, if he sees reason to believe that there will be delay before the pension can be finally sanctioned, should, after the most careful summary investigation that he can make without delay, report to the authority who will sanction the pension, the minimum amount to which he believes the officer to be entitled. This report should be forwarded at once to the High Commissioner for India by the Local Government by which the pension will in due course be sanctioned. The High Commissioner will then. on receiving from the officer a declaration similar to that in Article 925, at discretion, sanction the immediate disbursement of the amount of pension reported to be the minimum likely to be admissible, or such smaller amount as may be deemed proper. The final pension certificate in due form should follow the provisional certificate with the least possible delay.
- 927. (a) If, upon the completion of the regular investigation, it be found that the pension thus summarily assigned differs from the pension finally settled, the difference must be adjusted in the first subsequent payments.
- (b) Provided that, if a gratuity summarily assigned under Article 925 proves to be larger than the amount found actually due upon completion of the enquiries, the officer shall not be required to refund any excess actually paid to him, except as provided in Chapter XXI.
- 928. (a) To enable the Audit Officer to exercise the jurisdiction thus entrusted to him, the head of the office or department from which the officer is removed should furnish to the Audit Officer, as soon as possible after it becomes known to him that the officer must retire, and without waiting for his actual retirement, the fullest information that can be obtained regarding the officer's service, without correspondence which must cause delay.

- (b) This information is to be furnished in anticipation of the regular investigation required by Article 908 or 909, which also should on no account be delayed until the officer has actually retired.
- 929. All officers should bear in mind that delay in the payment of pensions may involve peculiar hardship, and everything should be done to prevent or shorten to the utmost, such delays.

Chapter XLVIII.—Payment of Pensions.

SECTION I.—GENERAL BULES

- 930. Apart from special orders, a pension, other than a Wound or Extraordinary pension under Fart VI, is payable from the date on which the pensioner ceased to be borne on the establishment, or from the date of his application, whichever is later. The object of this latter alternative is to prevent unnecessary delay in the submission of applications. The rule may be relaxed, in this particular, by the authority sanctioning the pension when the delay is sufficiently explained.
- 1. The pension of an officer who, under Article 436, has received a gratuity in lieu of notice is not payable for the period in respect of which the gratuity is paid.
- 931. The preceding Article applies to ordinary, not to special, cases. If, under special circumstances, a pension is granted long after an officer has retired, retrospective effect should not be given to it without the special orders of the Government which granted it; in the absence of special orders such a pension takes effect only from the date of sanction.
- 932. In cases where considerable delay has occurred in making application for a Wound or Injury pension, it will be granted only from the date of the report by the Medical Board, and no application for a gratuity or pension will be entertained unless submitted within five years of the date of the wound or injury.
- 933. When a pension is stated in Rupees, it is payable at any treasury in India, or, at the pensioner's option, at the Home treasury.
- 933-A. When a pension is stated in sterling, it is payable at the Home treasury, or, at the option of the pensioner, if he be residing in India, at any treasury in India, converted into rupees at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State in Council may by order prescribe:

Provided that pensioners of the following classes may, at their option, convert their pensions into rupees at the rate of 1s. 4d. to the rupee as long as they are in India or Burma<sup>1</sup> and continue to have their permanent residence there:—

- (i) Pensioners resident in India or Burma,<sup>1</sup> who were on the 1st February 1921 in receipt of pensions converted at that rate.
- (ii) Pensioners of Indian domicile who were, on the 1st February 1921 temporarily drawing their pensions in sterling.
- (iii) Pensioners who were in Government service on the 1st February 1921, and who at that date were of Indian domicile.

Provided further that the pension of any pensioner referred to in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii), who has commuted any portion of his pension after the 10th day of October 1928, shall be converted at the rate of exchange prescribed by the Secretary of State in Council as hereinbefore provided, and to the resulting pension shall be added, so long as he is in India or Burma¹ and continues to have his permanent residence there, the difference between the values of the full sterling pension *(less any portion commuted before the 11th October 1928) converted at that rate and at the rate of 1s. 4d. respectively.

934. Pensions granted in rupees, which are drawn at or through the Home treasury or in a Colony in which the Indian Government rupee is not legal tender, are converted into sterling at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State in Council may by order prescribe, subject to a minimum rate of 1s. 9d. per rupee.

†Provided that the pension of any pensioner who is entitled to the minimum rate of 1/9d, under this Article and who has commuted any portion of his pension after the 4th of December 1928 shall be converted at the rate of exchange prescribed by the Secretary of State in Council as hereinbefore provided, and to the resulting pension shall be added, so long as he is entitled to the minimum rate of 1/9d, the difference between the values of the full pension† (less any portion commuted before the 5th December 1928), converted at that rate and at the rate of exchange prescribed by the Secretary of State in Council as hereinbefore provided, respectively.

The rate of exchange for pensions of pilots of the Bengal Covenanted Pilot Service in service prior to the 30th August 1883 is subject to a minimum of 1s, 11d. per rupee.

Note I.—[This rule also applies to the issue of gratuities of persons residing in any country in which the rupee is not legal tender; but when the service of an officer to whom a gratuity is granted terminated in India, the gratuity should be paid in India.]

† The proviso to Article 934 takes effect from the 4th December 1928 and the words in brackets occurring in this proviso take effect from the 22nd January 1929.

NOTE 2.—[When the minimum rate of exchange comes into operation, the following concessions apply:—

- (i) Ordinary, a pensioner who has been residing in India or other country in which the Indian Government rupee is legal tender, and who proceeds to a country in which the rupee is not legal tender, is entitled to draw his pension from or through the Home treasury at the minimum rate of 1s. 9d. the rupee from the date only when he quitted the former country. But a pensioner who leaves India within six months of his retirement and proceeds to a country in which the rupee is not legal tender is entitled to draw his pension from or through the Home treasury at the minimum rate of 1s. 9d, the rupee from the date to which it has been paid in India or, if no payment has been made there, from the date of its commencement.
- (ii) A pensioner who has been drawing his pension at the minimum rate of 1s. 9d. the rupee, if he proceeds to a country in which the rupee is legal tender and continues to draw his pension from the Home treasury, is allowed the benefit of that minimum rate for six months from the date of his arrival in such country.]

Note 3.—[In the event of a case arising which appears not to be covered by the foregoing rules, reference must be made to the Secretary of State.]

Note 4.—[On warrants issued to persons drawing pensions stated in rupees, it should be noted whether payment is subject to the minimum rate of 1s. 9d. the rupee.]

935. The rule in Article 934 applies to an officer under covenant who is entitled by his covenant to pension; the covenanted rate of exchange for his pay and allowances does not, unless it is expressly so stated, apply to his pension.

Transfers between England and India.

936. Transfer of a pension from an Indian treasury to the Home treasury and vice versa is permitted within reasonable limits whenever desired.

Nozz.—[Frequent transfers of a pension to and fro are not permissible, and the Accountant-General concerned should report to the Government of India, for special orders, any case in which it appears to him that undue advantage is being taken of the rule.]

937. Application for transfer of payment from India to the Home treasury should be made to the Accountant-General within whose jurisdiction the treasury of payment is, who will grant a last-pay certificate, forwarding a duplicate, with a copy of the first page of the application upon which the pension was originally granted, to the High Commissioner for India.

SECTION II.—PAYMENT IN INDIA.

938. (a) The order granting a pension to be paid in India should be forwarded with a copy of the first page of the application in Form 25 or 26, or of the whole application if in Form 22, to the Audit Officer who submitted the application. He should compare the order with his report and then forward a copy thereof to the Accountant-General of the province in which payment is to be made.

- (b) In the case of persons for whom the forms referred to in clause (a) are not used, the information required for the Pension Payment Order should be communicated in a separate letter to the Accountant-General of the province where payment is to be made.
- (c) In the case of pensions to Police officers of rank not higher than head-constable, sanctioned under entry No. 40 of Appendix I, Part III, the order should be forwarded to the Audit Officer who would have reported on the claim had his certificate not been dispensed with. He will exercise the necessary check with reference to Article 922 and endorse it as in clause (a) above.
- 939. The Accountant-General of the province in which payment is to be made will then communicate to the officer who is to pay the pension authority to make the payment: in the case of a pension, such authority will be a Pension Payment Order in Form 27 or 28 or (in the case of Presidency payments) Forms 27-I or 28-A.

Note 1.—[Form 27 may not be used for pensions chargeable to Local Funds other than those which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as incorporated (see Article 200) or Indian States. The following extract from a letter from the Government of India indicates the form of Pension Payment Order to be used and procedure to be followed when a treasury is authorised to pay a pension on behalf of an Indian State:—

"I am directed to say that if an Indian State desires a periodical payment to be made from a Government Treasury, the amount being recovered from the Indian State, there is no objection to the request being granted with the sanction of the Local Government, provided the amount of each payment is not less than Rs. 100, and provided that the treasury at which payment is desired is under the Government which is in political connection with the Indian State concerned. Such payments will be made by Government merely as an agent for the Indian State.

"When such payments on account of pensions are arranged for, the form of payment order should not be the same as that used for pensions payable from Indian Revenues. The order should be of the same kind as the ordinary Pension Payment Order, but should be clearly distinguished in form."

Norm 2.—[Each pension payment order will be accompanied by Form 27-A intended to be delivered by the Disbursing Officer to the pensioner concerned for use as a wallet for the pensioner's half of the Pension Payment Order.]

Procedure in paying.

- 940. A gratuity is paid in a single sum, and not by instalments, on receipt of the Accountant-General's authority.
- 941. (a) A gratuity may, at the discretion of the Government of India, or with the sanction of the Government of India on the application of the recipient, be converted either into a life annuity, or into a temporary life annuity, or into an annuity payable for a fixed number of years with remainder to the annuitant's heirs in case of his death. The amount of the life annuity will be determined by the table prescribed by the Governor General in Council under the 'Civil Pensions (Commutation) Rules', while that of the temporary life annuity will be determined in each case in consultation with the Actuary to the Government of India on the assumption of the same rates of interest and mortality on which the table prescribed by the Governor General in Council under the 'Civil Pensions (Commutation) Rules' is based.

- (b) A Local Government may exercise the power of the Government of India under clause (a) of this Article in respect of gratuities sanctioned by it or by an authority subordinate to it.
- 942. The Government of India or a Local Government will never insist on the conversion of a gratuity into an annuity, unless the expectation of life of the officer be reported by competent medical anthority to be equal to the average.
- 943. A pension is payable in India monthly on and after the first day of the following month under the following rules:—
- On receipt of the Pension Payment Order, the disbursing officer will deliver one half to the pensioner, and keep the other half carefully in such manner that the pensioner shall not have access thereto.
- 2. Each payment made is to be entered on the reverse both of the pensioner's half and of the disbursing officer's half of the Pension Payment Order, both entries being attested at the time of payment by the signature of the disturbing officer.
- With reference to Articles 956 and 957, a pension should, under no circumstances, be paid for the first time in arrears for more than one year without special orders of the Local Government.

NOTE.—[The Local Government may delegate its powers under this rule to Commissioners of Divisions and to such other officers as it may desire.]

4. A pension is payable for the day on which the pensioner dies.

5. In regard to the liability of pensions to attachment by a Civil Court, see section 11 of Act XXIII of 1871, which runs as follows:—

Section 11.—"No pension granted or continued by Government on political considerations, or on account of past sorvices or present infirmities or as a compassionate allowance, and no money due, or to become due, or account of any such pension or allowance, shall be liable to seizure, attachment or sequestration by process of any Court in British India at the instance of a creditor, for any demand against the pensioner, or in satisfaction of a decree or order of any such Court."

Identification of Pensioner.

944. As a rule a pensioner must take payment in person after identification by comparison with the Pension Payment Order.

Norm.—[Officers of the classes mentioned in Article 297 (c), (d) and (e), as it stood prict to 6th July 1920, and in Articles 654 and 678, whether appointed by the Secretary of State or not, are, when pensioned, paid on payment orders in Rorm 28 which do not contain a full description of the payee. In case of doubt, if such a pensioner is not known to the paying officer, he may be required to produce a life certificate or other evidence of identity.]

945. A pensioner specially exempted by the Local Government from personal appearance, a female pensioner not accustomed to appear in public, or a male pensioner who is unable to appear in consequence of bodily illness or infirmity, may receive his or her pension upon the production of a life certificate signed by a responsible officer of Government or by some other well-known and trustworthy person.

Norm.—[The power to grant exemption under this Article from personal appearance to draw pension may be delegated by a Local Government to any officer of not lower rank than Collector of a District.]

- 946. A pensioner of any description, who produces a life certificate signed by some person exercising the powers of a Magistrate under the Criminal Procedure Code, or by any Registrar or Sub-Registrar under the Registration Act, or by any pensioned officer who before retirement exercised the powers of a Magistrate, or by a Chaplain or any gazetted officer of Government, or by a Munsiff or a Judicial Myook in Burma, or by any person holding a Government title, is also exempted from personal appearance.
- 947. (a) In all cases referred to in Articles 945 and 946, the disbursing officer must take precautions to prevent impositions, and must, at least once a year, require proof independent of that furnished by the life certificate of the continued existence of the pensioner.
- (b) For this purpose he should (save in cases of exemption from personal appearance granted by the Local Government) require the personal attendance and due identification of all male pensioners who are not incapacitated by bodily illness or infirmity from so attending, and in all cases where such inability may be alleged, he should require proof thereof in addition to the proof submitted of the pensioner's existence.
- 1. The disbursing officer is personally responsible for any payment wrongly made. In case of doubt, he should consult the Accountant-General.
- 2. A pensioner of rank may be privately identified by the disbursing officer and need not be required to appear at a public office.
- 948. Payment of pensions to Police pensioners are made in accordance with the rules in this Section, but if the disbursing officer entertains any doubt as to the identity of such a pensioner, he may require the local Inspector of Police to identify him. The Inspector would then be responsible for the correct identification of the pensioner.

Payment to Agents.

- 949. (a) A pensioner not resident in India may draw his pension at any treasury in India through a duly authorised agent, who must either produce a certificate by a Magistrate, a Notary, a Banker, or a Minister of religion, on each occasion, that the pensioner was alive on the date to which his pension is claimed, or execute a bond to refund overpayments and produce such a certificate as aforesaid at least once a year.
- (b) A pensioner of any description resident in India is exempted from personal appearance if he draws his pension through a duly authorised agent approved by the Local Government, who must execute a bond to refund overpayments and produce at least once a year a life certificate signed by any of the persons authorised by Article 946 to sign such certificates.

(c) The pension of an officer drawing his pension through an agent who has executed a bond to refund overpayments should not be paid on account of a period of more than a year after the date of the life certificate last received and the Accountant-General and the disbursing officer should be on the watch for authentic information of the decease of any such pensioner, and on receipt thereof, should promptly stop further payments.

Transfers in India.

- 950. A Local Government or an Accountant-General may, on application and on sufficient cause being shown, permit transfer of payment from one treasury in India to another. This jurisdiction may be delegated by the Local Government to any Executive authority not lower than the Collector or other District officer.
- 951. (a) A copy of any order issued by a Local Government or other Executive authority under the preceding Article should be forwarded to the Accountant-General, and the Collector of the district from which the payment is to be transferred should be instructed to return his half of the Pension Payment Order.
- (b) The Accountant-General will then either issue a new payment order, or enface the payment order for payment at the new treasury and forward it to the Treasury Officer who will in future pay the pension, or, if the treasury is in another province, will move the Accountant-General of that province to do so.
- 952. A Treasury Officer may authorise payment in any of the outlying treasuries subordinate to his district treasury of a pension payable under proper authority at his head-quarters, and may transfer the payment of a pension from such subordinate treasury to the district treasury, or from one subordinate treasury to another in the same district.

Certificate of Non-Employment.

- 953. (a) A pensioner drawing pension in India is required to append to his bill a certificate as follows:—
  - "I declare that I have not received any remuneration for serving in any capacity, either under Government or under a Local Fund, during the period for which the amount of pension claimed in this bill is due."
- (b) In the case of a pensioner permitted under Chapter XXI to draw pension after re-employment, this certificate should be modified according to the facts.

(c) In the case of a pensioner drawing his pension through an agent, who has executed a bond of indemnity, as required by Article 42 of the Civil Account Code, the certificate modified accordingly may be signed by the agent, provided that the pensioner shall himself furnish, once a year, a certificate covering the period for which pension has been drawn on the basis of the agent's certificates.

Renewal of Pension Payment Order.

- 954. When the reverse of a Pension Payment Order is filled up, or when the pensioner's half is found to be worn or torn, both halves may be renewed by the Treasury Officer.
- 955. If a pensioner loses his half of the Pension Payment Order, a new Order may be issued by the Treasury Officer, who should see that no payment is made on the half alleged to be lost by a strict observance of Rule 2 under Article 943. The necessary note should be made in the remarks column of the register in Form 39, Civil Account Code.

Lapses and forfeitures.

- 956. If a pension payable in India remains undrawn for more than one year, the pension ceases to be payable.
- 957. If the pensioner afterwards appears, the disbursing officer may renew his payments. But the arrears cannot be paid if the pension in arrears is to be paid for the first time or if the amount of arrears exceeds Rs. 1,000 without the previous sanction of the authority by whom the pension was sanctioned to be obtained through the Accountant-General.

Noze.—[In cases where the pension is sanctioned by the Local Government, it may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments or other subordinate authorities.]

958. If the suspension of payment is attributable to error or neglect by any public officer, the Accountant-General may direct payment of the arrears without taking the orders of the Government.

Deceased Pensioners.

959. (a) On the death of a pensioner, payment of any arrears actually due may be made to his heirs, provided that they apply within one year of his death. It cannot be paid thereafter without the sanction of the authority by whom the pension was sanctioned to be obtained through the Accountant-General.

NOTE.—[In cases where the pension is sanctioned by the Local Government, it may delegate its powers under this Article to Heads of Departments or other sub-ordinate authorities.]

(b) But if the arrears do not exceed Rs. 100, and the case presents no peculiar features, the Accountant-General is empowered to pass the arrears on his own authority.

- (c) After payment of the arrears of pension, the Pension Payment Order should be returned to the Accountant-General with a report of the date of the death of the pensioner.
- 960. Subject to the provisions of the preceding Article, the arrears of pension of a deceased pensioner may be paid to the heirs of the deceased, without the production of the usual legal authority, to the extent of Rs. 500 under the orders of the Collector or other officer responsible for the payment, after such enquiry into the rights and title of the claimants as may be deemed sufficient. Any excess above Rs. 500 may similarly be paid under the orders of the Local Government on execution of an indemnity bond, with such sureties as it may require, if it is satisfied of the right and title of the claimant and considers that undue delay and hardship would be caused by insisting on the production of letters of administration.

In any case of doubt, payment should be made only to the person producing legal authority.

961. If an officer dies before actually retiring or being discharged, his heirs have no claim to anything in respect to his pension.

SECTION III.—PAYMENT IN ENGLAND.

- 962. When a pension is granted to an officer who desires that payment thereof from the date of its commencement should be made at the Home treasury, the Audit Officer who audits the pay of the officer should, on receipt of sanction to the grant of pension, issue a last-pay certificate, and forward to the High Commissioner for India a duplicate thereof, together with a copy of the first page of the application for pension and of the order of the Local Government or other authority granting the pension. The forwarding letter should always request that payment be made from some specific date, the date being ascertained from the last-pay certificate.
- 963. If the pension is not wholly chargeable against the General Revenues, care must be taken to state in the certificate how it is to be charged.
- 964. The annuities and pensions of all officers are issued at the Home treasury monthly in arrear on the 16th day of each calendar month.

They are made up to the following quarterly dates, viz., to the 15th March. 15th June, 15th September and 15th December; and they are paid in monthly instalments, the first two instalments in each quarter being the net amount accrued, omitting shillings and pence, and the third instalment being the balance due for the quarter.

965. Intimation of any revision of a pension paid at the Home treasury should be made to the High Commissioner for India, so as to reach him before the pensioner is informed.

SECTION IV.—PAYMENT IN A COLONY.

966. The rules in this Section apply to pensions granted under the rules in any Chapter of these Regulations. The pension of a pensioner residing in any Colony named in Appendix 15 may be paid there.

Issue of Warrant.

967. The authority for payment of a pension in a Colony shall be a Warrant in Form 29 to be issued by the Accountant-General of the province to the cadre of which the retiring officer belongs.

968 and 969. Cancelled.

- 970. Every Warrant shall be issued in triplicate. The original, bearing the payee's signature, should be forwarded to the Colonial authority concerned, the duplicate to the High Commissioner for India, and the triplicate should be made over to the payee. Each payment should be endorsed on the back of both the original and the triplicate Warrant, an acknowledgment of receipt of money being rendered by the payee. When no space for such entries remains, or when a Warrant is lost or destroyed, a fresh Warrant shall be issued by the officer who issued the original Warrant on application being made through the Colonial disbursing officer. The letter forwarding the duplicate Warrant to the High Commissioner should invariably furnish the following information, viz.:—
  - (1) Whether the pensioner is already on leave in the Colony.
  - (2) Date of his retirement.
  - (3) Date of leaving India.
  - (4) Date of birth.

971. Cancelled.

Transfer of Payment.

- 972. (a) Transfer of a pension from an Indian treasury to a Colony the payments in which are adjusted in the accounts of the Home treasury is permitted only once; but a pensioner can at any time have payment transferred from a Colony to an Indian treasury, or from a Colony the payments in which are adjusted in the accounts of the Home treasury to England for direct payment from the Home treasury.
- (b) In case a pensioner desires transfer of payment of his pension from one Colony to another, the Government of India will recognise the proceedings of the Colonial authorities sanctioning such transfer which should, however, be reported separately by the pensioner to the Government of India and to the High Commissioner for India.

973. Upon his return to India an officer should deliver up his copy of the Warrant, which will serve the purpose of a last-pay certificate.

The Local Government on whose cadre the officer is borne will, on receipt of the application, obtain the report of the Accountant-General upon the officer's claim in respect of service and active service. NOTE 1.—[When reporting on the officer's claim in respect of service and active service, the Accountant-General should send the officer a copy of Article 981.]

Nore 2.—[As soon as an officer gives over charge of his office, the Accountant-General should furnish the following information to the Local Government, or, if the officer belongs to the cadre of another province, to the Accountant-General of that province, who will pass it on to the Local Government:—

- 1. Name of officer.

- 3. The amount of leave granted, if any.
- 4. Date up to (and including) which leave allowances have been drawn.

The annuity or gratuity should be sanctioned subject to the recovery of these outstandings.]

975 and 976. Cancelled.

- 977. (a) An officer who wishes to retire from the Service while on leave in Europe must submit his application to the Secretary of State.
- (b) When an officer makes his application under this Article, whether after completing his full period of service or after having been declared by the Medical Board to be unfit for further service in India, his resignation is accepted, subject to the adjustment of any demands that may be standing against him in India: and he is directed to apply to the Local Government on whose cadre he was borne at the time of retirement for the annuity or gratuity to which his length of service may entitle him.

- 978. (a) The annuity or gratuity will be sanctioned by the Local Government on whose cadre the retiring officer is borne at the time of retirement.
- (b) The copy of the sanctioning order forwarded to the officer will be his authority for drawing his annuity or gratuity.

SECTION II .- PAYMENT.

- 979. Cancelled.
- 980. The annuity of a Member of Council who has not previously resigned his seat in Council, or whose successor has not entered upon his office, commences from the day following that on which the vessel in which he leaves India sails, or from the expiry of his five years' tenure of office, whichever date is earlier.
- 981. An officer on resigning the Service must report to the Local Government on whose cadre he is borne the place at which he desires that his annuity should be paid, and if he is leaving India, the date of departure of the vessel in which he sails.
- Note.—[A copy of this Article should be furnished by the Accountant-General to every officer who applies in India for permission to resign, with the intimation that there will be delay in the commencement of his annuity if he does not furnish the information required by this Article. (See also Note 1 under Article 974).]

- (2) When payment of annuities or gratuities is taken in India, it may be taken, at the option of the recipient, either in rupees or at the fixed sterling minimum converted into rupees at such rate of exchange as the Secretary of State in Council may by order prescribe.

Provided that annuitants of the following classes may, at their option, receive the fixed sterling minimum converted into rupees at the rate of

Provided further that the annuity of any annuitant referred to in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii), who has commuted any portion of his annuity after the 10th day of October 1928, shall be converted at the rate of exchange prescribed by the Secretary of State in Council as hereinbefore provided, and to the resulting annuity shall be added, so long as he is in India or Burma¹ and continues to have his permanent residence there, the difference between the values of the full sterling annuity ²(less any portion commuted before the 11th October 1928), converted at that rate and at the rate of 1s. 4d. respectively.

PART XI.—REGULATIONS RELATING TO TRAVEL-LING ALLOWANCES.

Chapter LI.—Definitions and General Rules.

SECTION I.—PRINCIPLES OF CALCULATION.

995. Travelling allowance is given to an officer to cover the actual travelling expenses incurred by him in travelling in the interests of the public service. It is a fundamental principle that the allowance is not to be a source of profit, and, save as specially provided in these Regulations, no allowances are granted to meet the expenses of the families of officers accompanying them when travelling on duty.

Route for calculation of Travelling Allowance.

996. (a) For the purpose of calculating travelling allowance, a journey between two stations is held to be performed by the shortest of two or more practicable routes, or by the cheapest of such routes as may be equally short.

Note.—[Where there are alternative railway routes, and the difference between them in point of time and cost is not great, travelling allowance should be allowed for the route actually used.]

- (b) The shortest route is that by which the traveller can most speedily reach his destination by the ordinary modes of travelling. In case of doubt the Head of the Department concerned will, in respect of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers under his control, declare which shall be regarded as the shortest of two or more routes.
- (c) If an officer travels by a route which is not the shortest, but which is cheaper than the shortest, his travelling allowance is calculated by the route by which he makes the journey.
- 997. The Local Government, or the Head of the Department in the case of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers under his control, for special recorded reasons, may permit travelling allowance to be calculated by a route other than the shortest or cheapest, provided that the journey is actually performed by such route.

Note.—[In the case of journeys between stations which are in the jurisdiction of different Local Governments, Heads of Departments under whose orders transfers are made from one Province to another may exercise the powers of a Local Government under Articles 996 and 997.]

998. The point in any station from which a journey is held to commence, or at which it is held to end, is the chief public office or any other point fixed for the purpose by the Local Government.

Note.-[See Note under Article 1065 (iii) (1).]

When means of locomotion are supplied.

- 999. (1) An officer who is provided with and avails himself of means of locomotion at the expense of Government, a Local Fund or an Indian State, and does not pay the expenses of its use or propulsion, draws travelling allowance as follows:—
  - (a) If he has not to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he draws the daily allowance ordinarily admissible to him and is not entitled to exchange the daily rate for mileage under Article 1065. But if part of the journey is performed by other means of locomotion he may at his option draw in lieu of daily allowance the travelling allowance admissible for that part.
  - (b) If he has to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he may, under Article 1065, exchange his daily allowance for half the mileage ordinarily admissible to him and may draw in addition the travelling allowance admissible for any part of the journey performed by other means of locomotion.

Note.—[Chauffeurs of motor cars supplied by Government (either under the rules promulgated in the Resolution of the 15th July 1912 or otherwise) or by a local fund, when performing road journeys on motor cars in their churge, draw travelling allowance as above only if the journey involves an absence of at least one night from head-quarters. Otherwise they are not entitled to any travelling allowance for such journeys.]

(2) An officer provided with the means of locomotion as in clause (1), who pays all expenses of its use or propulsion, is entitled to travelling allowance under the ordinary rules, subject to the deduction therefrom of such fixed hire or charge as the Local Government, or the Head of an Imperial Department in respect of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers appointed by him and under his control, may fix.

999-A. The above Article does not apply to-

- (a) Officers using motor cars supplied at the public expense under the rules promulgated in the Resolution in the Finance Department; No. 250-E. A., dated the 15th July 1912. The travelling allowance of such an officer is regulated by the ordinary rules, subject to the following conditions:—
  - (1) If he travels more than twenty miles by the motor car in a day, he will draw for the first twenty miles the mileage allowance ordinarily admissible under these Regulations, and for the remainder three-fourths of the mileage allowance so admissible.
  - (2) If a journey by the motor car is combined with a road journey by ordinary conveyance, the officer will draw the mileage allowance ordinarily admissible for the first twenty miles or for the portion of the journey performed by ordinary conveyance, whichever is greater, and for the remainder three-fourths of the mileage allowance so admissible.

- (3) If journey by road, wholly or partly by the motor car, is combined with a journey by rail or steamer, the officer will draw the allowances admissible under Article 1065 (iii), modified in respect of the road journey, whether made by the motor car or otherwise, with reference to-clauses (1) and (2) of this rule.
- (b) Officers of the fourth class.
- (c) Officers who are entitled to or are allowed free transit by railway whether under a free pass (see Appendix 30) or otherwise.
- (d) Officers who are provided with elephants required for the conduct of professional operations and not for their private use.
- (e) Officers mentioned in Appendix 16A.

Camp Equipment and Horses.

1000. When the Local Government is satisfied that it is in the interests of the public service that an officer required to tour should send his horses, camels, motor cars, motor cycles including side-car, bicycles or camp equipment by railway or steamer, or by country craft when no steamer service exists or is capable of conveying the goods or animals or when such means of carriage is cheaper or more expeditious, it may, by special order in each case, permit him to recover, in addition to his authorised travelling allowance, the actual cost of their carriage including, whether separately charged for or not, the cost of conveyance of one syce and one grass-cutter for each horse and a chauffeur or cleaner for a motor car.

NOTE 1.—[An officer in receipt of a permanent monthly travelling allowance is not entitled to the privilege of this Article.]

In cases where the presence of his private car with the Member of Council has, apart from the advantages to the State of the particular tour or journey, saved him expease in hiring or served his personal convenience to an appreciable degree, he should be required to pay one-fifth of the cost of cerriage.]

1001. The local Government may prescribe such limitation as it thinks fit regarding the maximum weight of camp equipment and number of horses to be carried by an officer of any class or department, and may, subject to such limitations, delegate its power of sanction under Article 1000 to any head of a department or controlling or inspecting officer.

SECTION III.-DAILY ALLOWANCES-CONDITIONS.

- 1052. (a) A daily allowance is intended to cover the ordinary daily charges of an officer on tour; it is drawn only during absence from head-quarters on duty, including the period of halts on duty, or on an authorised holiday, during such absence.
- (b) Save where otherwise expressly provided, daily allowance is madmissible for journeys, or halts in the course of journeys, under any other Chapter of these Regulations.
- 1053. The period of absence from head-quarters begins on the day on which the officer actually leaves head-quarters, and ends on the day on which he returns to them. It is not reckoned by the departure or return of his camp equipage.
- 1054. (a) The Local Government may apply the provisions regarding a halt at head-quarters, contained in Article 1059, subject to the conditions and certificates therein specified (as far as applicable) and to such other restrictions as may seem requisite, to the period, if any, intervening between the departure from, or arrival at, head-quarters of an efficier and of his camp equipage.

(b) In the case of officers in Sind, the Local Government may similarly apply the provisions of Article 1059 to the period, if any, intervening between the engagement of camp equipage and the departure from head-quarters on tour.

Note .- [See Note 2 under Article 1059.]

1055. No travelling allowance, other than a permanent monthly allowance, is admissible for any day on which an officer does not reach a distance exceeding five miles from head-quarters or return thereto from a distance exceeding five miles. But an officer travelling on duty within five miles of head-quarters is entitled to draw the actual amount spent by him in payment of ferry and other tolls or railway fare.

Bisceptions.—I. No travelling allowance, other than a permanent monthly allowance, is admissible to a District or Assistant District Superintendent of Police for visiting a police station otherwise than in the course of a tour, unless he travels at least twenty miles in one day. In this clause "tour" means a journey which involves absence from headquarters for two or more consecutive nights, and the visitation of two or more police stations or posts.

2. In the Bombay Presidency, general-duty Karkuns, general-duty Circle Inspectors and their peons, Talutis deputed on duty outside their jurisdictions, Talutis Head Munshis in the Province of Sind when deputed to carry out field inspections or other similar work ordinarily carried out by Mukhtyarkars, graduates and Munshis deputed to the Tapadars' Training School at Hyderabad to undergo the survey ourse and surveyors deputed to instruct the class, such Excise (Abkart) Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors as do not receive a horse allowance, Nazirs of Subordinate Civil Courts stationed in towns provided with first class Subordinate Judges' Courts, and Veterinary Assistants in charge of stationary dispensaries, are exempted from the operation of this Article, as also are peons attached to Revenue Inspectors in the Madras Presidency.

Note.—[The term "general-duty Karkun" applies to any member on the establishment of a Mamlatdar or Mahalkari occasionally deputed to any part of a taluka for any special enquiry or purpose when the duty for any reason cannot be performed by a Circle Inspector.]

Halts during Tour.

1056. A daily allowance may not be drawn for more than ten days of a halt at one place. But general or individual exemptions from the operation of this rule may be sanctioned by the Local Government by a general rule or order, where they are satisfied—

(a) that prolonged halts are necessary in the interests of the public service, and

(b) that such halts necessitate the maintenance of camp equipage or where no camp equipage is maintained, entail extra expense on the officer after the first ten days.

Similar exemptions, subject to the same conditions, may be granted in individual cases up to a limit of 30 days by Imperial Heads of Departments and Provincial Heads of Departments, Commissioners of Divisions, Settlement Commissioners, and Superintending Engineers to whom the Local Government may delegate authority for this purpose.

It is open to the authority sanctioning the exemption to lay down any limits or conditions which it may think fit to impose; for instance, when an exemption is made under this Article, the full daily allowance admissible under rule may be reduced by such an amount, and may be granted for such number of days, as the sanctioning authority may deem proper in each case.

Nore 1.—[A general-duty Karkun in Bombay draws daily allowance for the first 120 days of absence from head-quarters in each financial year, irrespective of the limitation imposed by this Article. For halts after the first 120 days, the limitation applies.]

NOTE 3.—[The Resident at Baroda exercises the powers of a Local Government under this Article as regards officers serving under him on boundary settlement work.]

Norm 4.—The Chief Inspector of Mines may exempt the clerks of his office from the operation of this Article in any specific cases in which he may consider that such exemption is admissible under the conditions of the rule, subject to the condition that the halting allowance drawn by any person so exempted in any one month shall not exceed 20 per cent. of his salary for the month.

- 1067. (a) For the purpose of Article 1056 a halt is continuous unless terminated by an absence at a distance exceeding 5 miles for a period including not less than three nights.
- (b) In calculating the ten days referred to in that Article any day on which the officer travels or halts outside the five miles radius is to be excluded. For such a journey or halt the officer may draw daily allowance or, if he is entitled to them, allowances under Section V, Chapter LIII.
- (c) After the expiry of ten days an officer may draw travelling allowance under the ordinary rules for journeys from the halting place even though followed by a return to it.

Note.—[In Articles 1056 and 1057, the halting place for the purposes of Article 1055 should be considered to be the officer's temporary head-quarters.]

1058. A list of officers and establishments who have been exempted from the rule in Article 1056, conditionally or unconditionally, will be found in the Manuals of the local audit officers concerned.

Head-quarters.

1059. (a) A Local Government may, by general or special order, permit any officer or class of officers to draw, during a halt at head-quarters, the actual expense (not exceeding the daily allowance) of keeping up camp equipage (when it is necessary to do so) during a halt: provided such actual expense may not be drawn for a longer period than twenty-one days in Sind or Rajputana, and ten days in other places.

Explanation.—A halt is not interrupted for the purpose of this rule by an absence on duty from the place of halting for less than three nights.

(b) An officer drawing an allowance under this Article, for a halt at head-quarters, must certify that he has during such period kept up the whole or part of his camp equipage, and that the expense so incurred is not less than the halting allowance drawn. In the case of a nongazetted or menial officer, the head of the office must also certify that it was necessary for such officer to keep up the whole or a part of his camp equipage as the case may be.

(c) Except in the case of officers to whom Exception 2 to Article 1055 applies, a halt within five miles of head-quarters in the course of a tour is, for the purpose of this Article, treated as a halt at head-quarters.

NOTE 1.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to-Heads of Departments in respect of individual officers serving under them.]

Note 2.—(Riding camels and riding horses may, under the orders of the Local Government, be treated as camp equipage for the purposes of Article 1059 in the case of Munshis and clerks in the Punjah and Sind, and also for the purposes of Article 1054 (b) in the case of such officials in Sind.]

1060. The Local Government may determine, in case of doubt, what are the head-quarters of any officer serving under it. The Head of an Imperial Department may similarly decide in the case of his subordinates.

Cumulative Allowances.

- 1061. (a) An officer compelled, on a sudden emergency, to leave his camp and proceed rapidly on duty to a place more than twenty miles distant, may, under the special order of the Local Government, draw the actual expense of maintaining such camp, not exceeding the daily allowance, in addition to the allowances admissible under Chapter LII, whether the camp be moved or not.
- (b) The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the head of a department.
- 1062. 1162. A Controlling officer (other than the Head of a Local Government or Administration, including the Commissioner in Sind) may not delegate the duty of countersignature to a subordinate.

1163. Countersignature does not dispense with the necessity for formal audit with reference to rates and general conditions. An Audit Officer will accept countersignature by the proper authority, or the signature of the Drawing officer when a bill does not require countersignature, as final evidence that the facts of the journey on which the claim is founded are correct and that the claim is admissible with reference to Article 1161 (a) and to any departmental rules. It is the duty of the Controlling or the Drawing officer as the case may be, and not of the Audit Officer, to enforce departmental rules.

Chapter XIV of the Regulations, as it stood prior to 29th July 1920. Long Leave—Indian Services.

SECTION I.—EXTENT OF APPLICATION.

334. The rules in this Chapter apply to all officers who are not entitled to leave under the other Chapters of these Regulations. They apply jilly only to those officers whose pay is not less than Rs. 100 a month, and who have substantive appointments on permanent establishment under the Government.

335. (a) Leave may, however, be granted under this Chapter to an officer (whether he be a superior or an inferior servant) whose pay is less than Rs. 100, so far as it can be done without imposing any cost upon the State. The absentee allowance of the substantive incumbent must not exceed what remains from his pay after provision is made for the efficient discharge of his duties during his absence, except when, in the resultant acting arrangements, an officer who has no substantive appointment is given more than half the pay of the appointment in which he acts, in which case the excess over half pay granted to him may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be disregarded altogether in calculating the sum available for the leave allowance of the absence and the acting allowances paid in consequence of his absence.

NOTE.—[See Note under Article 147 (iii) which applies also to the calculation referred to in this clause.]

1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this clause to Heads of Offices and Departments.

(b) No leave in excess of the leave admissible under these rules may be granted to such an officer, with allowances, or counting as service for pension.

 An officer holding an appointment on a Progressive pay, rising to a maximum of Rs. 100, who is in the receipt of the maximum pay, is not to be treated as an officer whose pay is less than Rs. 100.

2. If it becomes necessary to bring an officer from a distance to act for an officer on leave whose pay is less than Rs. 100, the travelling allowances and transit pay admissible to the substitute may be borne by the State; but such a transfer should never be made if it can be avoided.

 The minimum allowance during long leave of a Naib Tahsildar in the United Provinces or Baluchistan, is Rs. 30 a month.

SECTION II.—LONG LEAVE. Leave on Medical Certificate.

336. Leave on Medical Certificate may be granted for three years in all, but not for more than two years at one time; and no officer can have Leave on Medical Certificate out of India more than twice.

 An officer who has a temporary or officiating appointment only may be allowedleave under this Article for not more than three months at one time, if no substitute is required, or if his duties can be provided for without additional expense.

Leave on Private Affairs.

- 337. Leave on Private Affairs for six months may be granted to an officer who has not had Furlough, after six years' service, and repeated after intervals of six years,
  - 1. Leave on Private Affairs does not accumulate, and cannot be taken in instalments.
  - 2. Leave on Medical Certificate counts as service for Leave on Private Affairs.

Furlough.

338. Furlough may be granted as follows :-

- (a) After ten years' service—one year or any less period; and thereafter at intervals of not less than eight years, one year or such other period astogether with all periods already spent on Furlough may not exceed twoyears; or.
- (b) After eighteen years' service—two years or any less period; and thereafter, at intervals of not less than eight years, any such period as together withall periods already spent on Furlough may not exceed two years:

Provided that-

- (i) The service for Furlough of an officer who has had Leave on Private Affairs counts only from the date of his last return from such leave;
- (ii) The aggregate amount of Furlough, or of Furlough and Leave on Private Affairs taken together, shall not exceed two years;
- (iii) An interval of not less than eighteen months has elapsed between lastreturn from Privilege leave of over six weeks' duration, whether taken by itself or combined with Leave on Medical Certificate, and the Furlough, or Privilege leave, if any, with which the Furlough is combined.
- 1. Leave on Medical Certificate counts as service for Furlough.

Norz.—[The restriction in clause (b) (iii) of this Article may be relaxed by the Government of India and Provincial Governments in cases in which its enforcement would, in their opinion, cause special hardship to the officer concerned individually or be of material disadvantage to the State.]

Leave without Allowances.

- 339. Extraordinary leave without allowances may, in case of necessity, and when no other leave is by rule admissible, be granted for such time as may be necessary. Time spent on leave under this Article does not count as service for other leave. Subject to the provisions of Article 198, there is no limit to the length or frequency of clave under this Article. It may not be granted in combination with the grant of other leave except as provided in Article 233. But it may be granted in continuation of other leave if circumstances arise which prevent the return by the officer to duty, and which, in the opinion of the Local Government or the authority empowered to grant the leave, are such as to justify the concession. No officer is entitled to Extraordinary leave.
- 1. In cases in which the duration of the Extraordinary leave to be granted does not exceed two months, the Local Government or the authority empowered to grant the leave may dispense with the condition in this Article that the leave can be granted only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible.
- 2. An officer who has a temporary or officiating appointment only may be allowed leave under this Article for not more than three months at one time.

Nore.—[The Note and Explanation under Article 332 apply to this Article also. The Government of India or the Local Government may, however, sanction a substitute for an absentee who is prohibited from attending his duties on account of some infectious disease in his family and whose duties cannot be arranged for without prejudice to his pay; provided that the absence does not exceed 30 days and the pay or salary of the absentee is not more than Rs. 100 a month.]

Leave Allowances.

340. (a) An officer on Leave on Medical Certificate under Article 336 is entitled to half his average salary for the first fifteen months of each period of such leave, but not for more than thirty months in all. For the rest of his leave under Article 336 he is entitled to a quarter of his average salary.

(b) An officer on Furlough or on Leave on Private Affairs is entitled to half his average salary.

(c) But whenever an officer whose appointment is not gazetted takes leave for not more than one month, or whenever such an officers' salary is less than Rs. 500, his pay (not salary) when he gives up office is to be taken in lieu of average salary.

Note.—[For the purpose of this clause, duty and deputation (duty) allowances are deemed to be included in pay and salary.]

*341. (a) Half average salary is subject to the following maxima:-

(i) if paid in India, Rs. 6663 a month;

(ii) if paid at the Home treasury, £600 a year.

(b) Quarter average salary is subject to a maximum of Rs. 533 a month if paid in India, and £480 a year if paid at the Home treasury.

(c) For non-gazetted officers whose salary is not less than Rs. 300, the minimum of half average salary is Rs. 150, and of quarter average salary Rs. 75 a month.

Nors 1.—[Absentee allowances in respect of leave spent out of India, if paid in India, are subject to the rupee limits prescribed in this Article. In cases, however, in which such allowances are paid at sterling rates, under the special orders of the Government of India, with reference to Article 862, they will be subject to the sterling limits prescribed herein.

NOTE 2.—[For the purposes of this Article, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements are not held to be 'out of India'.]

*342. The half average salary and quarter average salary of an officer subject to the rules in this Chapter if on leave out of India (except in Ceylon or the Straits Settlements) are subject to the following minima:

(a) if the leave is Leave on Medical Certificate under Article 336, or

(b) if the leave, although not Leave on Medical Certificate under Article 336, has been granted on account of ill-health.

Half average salary.

Minima.

If paid in England . . . £200 a year, or 4ths of the salary last drawn on duty, whichever is less.

If paid in India . . . Rs. 2222 a month, or 2ths of the salary last drawn on duty, whichever is less.

Quarter average salary.

If paid in England . . . £100 a year, or 37½ per cent. of the salary last drawn on duty whichever is less.

Nors.—[The benefit of this Article is admissible only in cases in which a Medical Certificate in the form prescribed in Chapter XLIV recommends leave out of India, or in which leave (except Extraordinary Leave without allowances) spart out of India, whether so recommended or not, is extended on Medical Certificate or commuted into Leave on Medical Certificate.]

*Articles 341 and 342 should be read as modified by the relevant portions of the orders contained in Government of India, Finance Department, Resolution No. 679-C. S. R., dated the 7th May 1920, and of the subsequent orders issued in Government of India, Finance Department, Resolution No. 2188-C. S. R., dated the 10th

343. All the rules in Article 340 are subject to the proviso that the allowances of an officer during leave shall in no case exceed his actual salary when he takes leave.

344. An officer does not forfeit the allowances to which he is entitled under Articles 340 to 343 by resigning the Service at the end of the leave.

Leave after fifty-five years of age.

345. An Officer in Superior service who is subject to the rules of this Chapter is elligible, after he attains the age of fitty-five years, for Privilege leave, for any Leave on Private Affairs (Article 337) to which he may be otherwise entitled, for Subsidiary Leave preparatory to retirement, and also for leave without allowances under Article 339, provided that the total leave granted, whether on private affairs or without allowances, does not exceed six months in all, and for no other kind of leave. Any leave, other than Privilege leave or Leave on Private Affairs or Subsidiary Leave preparatory to retirement, granted to such an officer before the date on which he attains the age of fifty-five years, cases to have effect on this date.

Norm.—[Except in the case of an officer who, after the age of 54 years, has been refused leave owing to the exigencies of the public service, the grant of leave under this Article is subject to the condition that the officer returns to duty at the end of the leave. In applying for leave the officer must record a declaration that he has no intention of retiring for three months after his return to duty.]

SECTION III.—SUBSIDIARY LEAVE.

346. An officer going on, or returning from, Leave out of India on Medical Certificate, Leave on Private Affairs, or Furlough, is entitled to Subsidiary leave, under the rules in Articles 321 and 323 to 331, and the grant of such leave carries with it the grant of Subsidiary leave, including, as in the cases referred to in Article 321 (a), clause (ii), Subsidiary leave on return to duty.

NOTE.—[When Privilege leave is combined with other leave under Article 233, Subsidiary leave is not admissible to an officer going on leave.]

347. Subsidiary leave on half pay for not more than fourteen days may be granted to an officer leaving India by sea on retirement, provided that the grant causes no additional expense to the State.

348. (a) An officer on Subsidiary leave prefixed to other leave is entitled to half average salary. But he may draw allowances as if he were on Privilege leave, for any part of this leave for which, if he were not going on leave out of India, Privilege leave would be admissible.

Note.—[See Note under Article 331.]

(b) An officer on Subsidiary leave following other leave is entitled to half or quarter average salary, according to the rate of allowance to which he is entitled at the end of the leave to which it is subsidiary.
